Wroble, W. Angus Wallace, 2009-03-01 Sports medicine and sports science are relatively new and rapidly developing fields of knowledge During the past 2 decades a significant body of scientific knowledge has been published in these areas However there is a demand for practical references which address sports medicine and science in the context of different sports This demand is higher in some sports including combat sports which are highly physically and mentally demanding and cause challenging issues such as risk of blood borne infections weight reduction head injuries stress management and safety for women and children This book has been developed to meet the needs of the practitioners who work with combat sports athletes in order to improve their health and performance Combat sports include four Olympic sports boxing wrestling judo and taekwondo and other popular sports such as karate kick boxing and Wushu These sports are popular in most countries of the world both at competitive and recreational levels Combat sports are practiced by people of different ages for a variety of reasons such as to gain fitness and health benefits and to learn self defense

Taekwondo Udo Moenig,2015-04-10 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the historical political and technical evolution of taekwondo Many of the supposedly traditional and ancient Korean cultural elements attached to taekwondo are in fact remnants of East Asia's modernization drive and largely inherited from the Japanese martial arts The current historical portrayal has created an obstacle to a clear understanding of the history of taekwondo and presents problems and contradictions in philosophy and training methodology Using rich empirical data including interviews with leading figures in the field this book brings together martial arts philosophy with an analysis of the technical aspects and the development of taekwondo and provides a detailed comparison of karate and taekwondo techniques It debunks nationalistic mythology surrounding taekwondo to provide a reinterpretation of taekwondo's evolution

Myth and Identity in the Martial Arts Alexis McLeod,2024-12-24 Myth and Identity in the Martial Arts Creating the Dragon is a study of the role of myth and ideology in the formation of social identity focusing on a variety of communities of practice involving the martial arts in East Asian and Western history Alexis McLeod argues that myths of the martial arts should not be understood as falsehoods created as means of legitimizing modern practices but should instead be understood as narratives that enable individuals and communities to formulate social identities and to accord meaning to their practices This book covers six influential sources of myth and identity formation in the history of martial arts early Chinese and Indian philosophy the formation of bushido thought in the Edo period of Japan Republican era Chinese conceptions of nationhood and physical culture Western contributions and the innovations of Bruce Lee African American conceptions of martial arts as a response to oppression in the twentieth century and the contemporary ideologies of mixed martial arts
