Tahn A Novel:

The Scarlet Trefoil (The Tahn Saga Book #3) L. A. Kelly, 2007-02-01 The Trilett family and friends prepare for the joyous celebration of Tahn and Netta's wedding. Returning from a party in her honor, Netta is kidnapped and her coachman and escorts are found murdered. It looks like the work of bandits, but Tahn is secretly sent a message that Netta will be released if he will present himself in trade. Tahn believes that his murderously jealous cousin Baron Lionel Trent is responsible for the villainy. The baron would surely kill Tahn given the chance just to eliminate the possibility of a rival heir. But Tahn chooses to go to the assigned meeting place anyway, alone as ordered, in hopes of securing Netta's release. Will he succeed in rescuing his bride? Or will Tahn and Netta forever miss their chance at happiness. Stranger Than Fiction Chuck

Palahniuk, 2005-05-10 Chuck Palahniuk's world has always been well different from yours and mine. In his first collection of nonfiction, Chuck Palahniuk brings us into this world and gives us a glimpse of what inspires his fiction. At the Rock Creek Lodge Testicle Festival in Missoula, Montana, average people perform public sex acts on an outdoor stage. In a mansion once occupied by The Rolling Stones, Marilyn Manson reads his own Tarot cards and talks sweetly to his beautiful actress girlfriend. Across the country, men build their own full-size castles and rocketships that will send them into space. Palahniuk himself experiments with steroids, works on an assembly line by day and as a hospice volunteer by night, and experiences the brutal murder of his father by a white supremacist. With this new direction, Chuck Palahniuk has proven he can do anything. BONUS This ebook edition includes an excerpt from Chuck Palahniuk's Doomed. String Processing and Information

Felt like touching it, establishing a contact in order to discover what you might learn from it? What ideas, insights, or questions sprang to your mind? A single two-surfaced composition can be a source of inspiration, and it has been so for many writers who expanded their initial attraction into a well-developed story that captured the attention of a multitude of readers. Why only them? Couldn't also you be able to do like them and write a story after a painting that stimulated in you a particular reaction If you see something in it that the artist did not imagine at the time wouldn't you like to add it to its value as a work of art that inspires reflection and change The purpose of this book is twofold first of all it's a reflection on what is at the heart of a creative writing process with an analysis of the archetypal plots and characters that are found in a short story and an investigation in the working of the creative mind of a young adult There will be the results of an analysis on the use of creative imagination in young writers their preferred fictional archetypes the way they connected their imaginary world to their real life and feelings and their use of the elemental masculine and feminine principles in the construction of their stories Secondly it will be a practical guide on how to write a short story based on a painting from the past You will be taken by the hand and guided into a journey that will allow you to write a short story about a painting that you consider special particularly inspiring that captured your curiosity and heart There will be practical examples from students who underwent the same experience at first doubtful of their own abilities to create something original and inspiring but with the appropriate support they managed to overcome the obstacles learn something more about the writing process and not only that and eventually acquire some expertise in this field

Romantic Postmodernism in American Fiction Eberhard Alsen, 1996 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen's book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O'Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disjunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence
