Popular Cinema of the Third Reich Sabine Hake,2010-01-01 Too often dismissed as escapist entertainment or vilified as mass manipulation popular cinema in the Third Reich was in fact sustained by well established generic conventions cultural traditions aesthetic sensibilities social practices and a highly developed star system not unlike its Hollywood counterpart in the 1930s This pathfinding study contributes to the ongoing reassessment of Third Reich cinema by examining it as a social cultural economic and political practice that often conflicted with contradicted and compromised the intentions of the Propaganda Ministry Nevertheless by providing the illusion of a public sphere presumably free of politics popular cinema helped to sustain the Nazi regime especially during the war years Rather than examining Third Reich cinema through overdetermined categories such as propaganda ideology or fascist aesthetics Sabine Hake concentrates on the constituent elements shared by most popular cinemas famous stars directors and studios movie audiences and exhibition practices popular genres and new trends in set design the reception of foreign films the role of film criticism and the representation of women She pays special attention to the forced coordination of the industry in 1933 the changing demands on cinema during the war years and the various ways of coming to terms with these filmic legacies after the war Throughout Hake s findings underscore the continuities among Weimar Third Reich and post 1945 West German cinema They also emphasize the codevelopment of German and other national cinemas especially the dominant Hollywood model

Cinema in Democratizing Germany

Heide Fehrenbach,2000-11-09 Heide Fehrenbach analyzes the important role cinema played in the reconstruction of German cultural and political identity between 1945 and 1962 Concentrating on the former West Germany she explores the complex political uses of film and the meanings attributed to film representation and spectatorship during a period of abrupt transition to democracy According to Fehrenbach the process of national redefinition made cinema and cinematic control a focus of heated ideological debate Moving beyond a narrow political examination of Allied German negotiations she investigates the broader social nexus of popular moviegoing public demonstrations film clubs and municipal festivals She also draws on work in gender and film studies to probe the ways filmmakers students church leaders local politicians and the general public articulated national identity in relation to the challenges posed by military occupation American commercial culture and redefined gender roles Thus highlighting the links between national identity and cultural practice this book provides a richer picture of what German reconstruction entailed for both women and men

Nordic Exposures Arne

Lunde,2011-07-01 Nordic Exposures explores how Scandinavian whiteness and ethnicity functioned in classical Hollywood cinema between and during the two world wars Scandinavian identities could seem mutable and constructed at moments while at other times they were deployed as representatives of an essential biological and natural category As Northern European Protestants Scandinavian immigrants and emigres assimilated into the mainstream rights and benefits of white American identity with comparatively few barriers or obstacles Yet Arne Lunde demonstrates that far from simply manifesting a normative unmarked whiteness Scandinavianness in mass immigration America and in Hollywood cinema of the twentieth century could be hyperwhite provisionally off white or not even white at all Lunde investigates key silent films such as Technicolor's The Viking 1928 Victor Sjöström's He Who Gets Slapped 1924 and Mauritz Stiller's Hotel Imperial 1927 The crises of Scandinavian foreign voice and the talkie revolution are explored in Greta Garbo's first sound film Anna Christie 1930 The author also examines Warner Oland's long career of Asian racial masquerade most famously as Chinese detective Charlie Chan as well as Hollywood's and Third Reich Cinema's war over assimilating the Nordic female star in the personae of Garbo Sonja Henie Ingrid Bergman Kristina Söderbaum and Zarah Leander

Nazi Cinema's New Women Jana F. Bruns, 2009-04-27 This book examines the careers of three of Nazi cinema's preeminent movie actresses painting a unique portrait of mass entertainment and stardom under Nazi rule Bruns uses undiscovered sources and a new approach which integrates visual analysis within a thorough political and social context to trace how the Nazis tried to use films and stars to build National Socialism This analysis focuses on female stars an important but largely unexplored area because they were mostly responsible for Nazi cinema's spectacular commercial success and political failure Challenging earlier studies which view Nazi cinema as an effective propaganda instrument that helped turn Germans into devoted Aryan mothers and tough warriors the book shows that the Nazi regime's liaison with the cinema was ambivalent Films failed to disseminate a coherent political message and to Nazify German society However they helped the regime maintain power by diverting people's attention from the brutality of Hitler's rule and eventually from impending defeat
