The Tainted Relic (Talking Book), 2012 Werewolves, Witches, and Wandering Spirits Kathryn A. Edwards, 2002-11-01 Bringing together scholars from Europe America and Australia this volume explores the more fantastic elements of popular religious belief ghosts werewolves spiritualism animism and of course witchcraft These traditional religious beliefs and practices are frequently treated as marginal in more synthetic studies of witchcraft and popular religion yet Protestants and Catholics alike saw ghosts imps werewolves and other supernatural entities as populating their world Embedded within notarial and trial records are accounts that reveal the integration of folkloric and theological elements in early modern spirituality Drawing from extensive archival research the contributors argue for the integration of such beliefs into our understanding of late medieval and early modern Europe

Beyond Cadfael Lucy C. Barnhouse, Winston Black, 2023-06-01 Medievalism and medieval medicine are vibrant subfields of medieval studies enjoying sustained scholarly attention and popularity among undergraduates Popular perceptions of medieval medicine however remain understudied This book aims to fill that lacuna by providing a multifaceted study of medical medievalism defined as modern representations of medieval medicine intended for popular audiences The volume takes as its starting point the fictional medieval detective Brother Cadfael whose observations on bodies herbs and death have shaped many popular conceptions of medieval medicine in the Anglophone world The ten contributing authors move beyond Cadfael by exploring global medical medievalisms in a range of genres and cultural contexts Beyond Cadfael is organized into three sections the first of which engages with how disease injury and the sick are imagined in fictitious medieval worlds The second on doctors at work looks at medieval medical practice in novels films and television and public commemorative practice These essays examine how practitioners are represented and imagined in medieval and pseudo medieval worlds The third section discusses medicine designed for and practiced by women in the Middle Ages and today with a focus on East Asian medical traditions These essays are guided by the recognition that medieval medical practices are often in dialogue with contemporary medical practices that fall outside the norms of Western biomedicine

The Moon's Eye A.J. Calvin,2022-01-11 Chosen for advanced training by the god of war himself Vardak is considered a paragon amongst his people the Scorpion Men Yet his position and training come with a cost He must serve the whims of the god with no questions asked Only days after his training is complete he is sent far away from his desert homeland in order to act as the protector of the Fire Maiden s mortal daughter Janna Janna has been tasked with the recovery of a magical relic known as The Moon s Eye but she has little worldly experience to guide her The Immortals deem the relic s recovery imperative for it alone can combat the rise of the Soulless those sworn to the fallen nameless god of death The Soulless are ruthless and powerful and eager to wage war upon the land in order to appease the god they serve Though Vardak is skilled in battle he must lead Janna through several perilous areas in order to reach the relic she seeks pushing his abilities to the limit Unbeknownst to the pair the Soulless raise an army and begin their conquest leaving a path of destruction in their wake Will they secure The Moon s Eye before all is lost or will the relic itself prove to be their undoing one of America's finest historians Stanley Karnow boarded a freighter bound for France planning to stay for the summer. He stayed for ten years, first as a student and later as a correspondent for Time magazine. By the time he left, Karnow knew Paris so intimately that his French colleagues dubbed him le plus parisien des Américains, the most Parisian American. Now Karnow returns to the France of his youth perceptively and wittily illuminating a time and place like none other. Karnow came to France at a time when the French were striving to return to the life they had enjoyed before the devastation of World War II. Yet even during food shortages, political upheavals, and the struggle to come to terms with a world in which France was no longer the mighty power it had been, Paris remained a city of style, passion, and romance. Paris in the Fifties transports us to Latin Quarter cafés and basement jazz clubs, to unheated apartments and glorious ballrooms. We meet such prominent political figures as Charles de Gaulle and Pierre Mendès France, as well as Communist hacks and the demagogic tax rebel Pierre Poujade. We get to know illustrious intellectuals among them Jean-Paul Sartre, Simone de Beauvoir, Albert Camus, and André Malraux, and visit the glittering salons where aristocrats with exquisite manners mingled with trendy novelists, poets, critics, artists, composers, playwrights, and actors. We meet Christian Dior, who taught Karnow the secrets of haute couture, and Prince Curnonsky, France's leading gourmet, who taught the young reporter to appreciate the complexities of haute cuisine. Karnow takes us to marathon murder trials in musty courtrooms, accompanies a group of tipsy wine connoisseurs on a tour of the Beaujolais vineyards, and recalls the famous automobile race at Le Mans when a catastrophic accident killed more than eighty spectators. Back in Paris, Karnow hung out with visiting celebrities like Ernest Hemingway, Orson Welles, and Audrey Hepburn, and in Paris in the Fifties we meet them too. A veteran reporter and historian, Karnow has written a vivid and delightful history of a charmed decade in the greatest city in the world.
