Taiwan Facing Mounting Threats:

Taiwan Martin L. Lasater,1987 Taiwan's Security in the Post-Deng Xiaoping Era Martin L. Lasater,Peter Kien-Hong Yu,2023-09-01 Originally published in 2000 Taiwan's Security in the Post Deng Xiaoping Era analyses the many domestic and international factors comprising Taiwan's security situation in the late 1990s and early 21st Century The security of Taiwan remains of international strategic concern and the military situation in the Taiwan Strait is increasingly volatile nearly 25 years after this book was first published This detailed study concludes that Taiwan's overall security will become increasingly dependent on external factors and that the most important contribution Taipei can make to its own security other than military preparation is political astuteness Beijing's Blockade Threat to Taiwan Martin L. Taiwan Issue In Sinoamerican Strategic Relations Martin L Lasater,2019-07-09 The first two years of the Reagan administration saw a close correlation between improved unofficial relations between Washington and Taipei and a deterioration of strategic cooperation between Washington and Beijing These developments led many U S officials and scholars to conclude that U S security interests may require periodic concessions over Taiwan to ensure China's cooperation in countering the Soviet threat Rejecting this view Mr Lasater argues that Washington's and Beijing's bilateral relations with Moscow and not the Taiwan issue are the key international determinants of Sino American strategic cooperation Examining the parameters of that cooperation and the role of Taiwan in Sino American relations Mr Lasater suggests that Beijing is deliberately using U S security concerns to seek concessions on Taiwan and other issues He advises a policy that stands firm in negotiations with the Chinese and that resists the temptation to make politically expedient concessions a more balanced course of action whereby improved relations with Beijing are sought concurrently with the maintenance of friendly unofficial ties with Taipei The Changing Of The Guard Martin L Lasater,2019-07-11 The increased military power of China since the close of the Cold War has forced the United States to reconsider its security policy toward Taiwan In this volume Martin

Lasater explores the many new factors that are now influencing U S calculations of one of its more enduring and important security interests in Asia He considers such security concerns as the reduction of U S military forces in the western Pacific a new arms race in the Taiwan Strait Sino American tensions over human rights and arms proliferation issues increased calls for Taiwan's independence the Clinton administration's concentration on domestic issues and the shifting balance of power in the Asia Pacific especially the PRC's growing influence Considering the difficult issues President Clinton must weigh Lasater provides a timely analysis of Taiwan's security in the 1990s within the broader context of Sino American relations U.S.

Interests In The New Taiwan Martin L Lasater,2021-11-28 Focusing on a persistent crux of Sino American relations the author shows how an essentially new Taiwan has emerged in terms of political economic diplomatic and security developments He explores the future prospects of the new Taiwan and analyzes its implications for US interests and policy

Changing Taiwanese Identities J. Bruce Jacobs, Peter Kang, 2017-08-03 The peoples of Taiwan have been influenced by many different cultures and migrations throughout the island's history. In the 20th and early 21st centuries especially it has been a stage for cultural and ethnic conflict not least because of the arrival of mainland Chinese fleeing the Chinese Communist Revolution. The subsequent tensions between those who see Taiwan as a natural territory of China and those who would prefer to see it remain independent have brought to the fore questions of what it is to be Taiwanese. This book addresses the question of how Taiwanese identities have changed after the Taiwanization process which began in the 1990s. It also examines the impact of this process on cross strait relations between Taiwan and the People's Republic of China after the return of the Kuomintang to power after 2008 and the Sunflower movement in 2014. The various contributors between them cover a range of topics including the waves of migration to Taiwan, changes of political regimes, generational differences and social movements. Taken as a whole this book presents a nuanced picture of the patchwork of identities which exist in contemporary Taiwan.

Isolated States Deon Geldenhuys, 1990 This book examines a largely neglected phenomenon in the field of international relations: the concept of the isolated state. Deon Geldenhuys begins by discussing how he measures both voluntary and enforced international isolation by among other things membership of international organizations, official visits and international censure. He then presents a number of case studies of self isolation. The remainder of the study is devoted to an analysis of the enforced isolation of Taiwan, Israel, Chile and South Africa. Using a wealth of statistical material he demonstrates their varying degrees of isolation in the diplomatic, military, economic and socio-cultural arenas of the international community.
