Taiwan In Transformation 1895 2005 The Challenge Of A New Democracy To An Old Civilization:

Taiwan in Transformation 1895-2005 Chun-chieh Huang, 2017-07-12 The last decade of the twentieth century witnessed rapid changes not only in global politics but also in Taiwan's quests for new identities. The notorious martial law was lifted in July 1987 and long repressed calls for democratization began to be heard that caught worldwide attention. In tandem with economic transformation, the entire world of thought in Taiwan underwent significant changes. Both economic and ideological restructuring have been basic elements of transformation in postwar Taiwan. However, rapid democratization has opened a Pandora's box and stirred a whirlwind of discord. This volume elaborates on the where from and the where to of the Taiwan transformation and attempts to answer such questions as: Is the old Taiwanese work ethic just a relic of the past? Is Taiwan going to become an Armageddon of ideological wars? Chapters deal with the vicissitudes of Taiwanese nostalgia for cultural China, postwar Taiwan in historical perspective, in particular the rise and fall of the agrarian culture, the transformation of farmers' social consciousness in the period 1950-1970, Confucianism in postwar Taiwan, historical philosophical and sociological, the case of Hsu Fu kuan which provides an epic case of the intertwining of cultural crisis with personal crisis, the development and metamorphoses of Taiwanese consciousness in the unfolding political context, the awakening of the self and finally mutual historical understanding as the basis for Taiwan Mainland relations in the twenty-first century. Taiwan in Transformation seeks to show that historical insights extrapolated from an understanding of history are essential for grasping and solving the basic problems facing Taiwan at present, including the Taiwan Mainland relationship in the twenty-first century. It will be of interest to Chinese area specialists, sociologists and historians. Taiwan in Transformation, 1895-2005 Junjie Huang, 2006 The last decade of the 20th century witnessed rapid changes not only in global politics but also in Taiwan's quests for new identities. Taiwan in Transformation 1895 2005 elaborates on the where from and the where to of the Taiwan transformation and attempts to answer such questions as: Is the old Taiwanese work ethic just a relic of the past? Is Taiwan going to become an Armageddon of ideological wars? European Perspectives on Taiwan Jens Damm, Paul Lim, 2012-02-23 The initiative and leadership for this edited volume came from the European Institute for Asian Studies (EIAS) based in Brussels. The book discusses questions related to the different European perspectives on Taiwan in various fields, asking in particular: How has the European Union dealt with the unsolved status of the Republic of China on Taiwan? In which ways has Europe been seen as a model for Taiwan's transformation and does the example of the EU offer any lessons for cross Strait integration? Furthermore, the authors, well-known specialists drawn from disciplines such as economics political science international law history and cultural studies are equally interested in Taiwan's perspectives on Europe and in the historical relationship between Taiwan and Europe The Life and Legacy of George Leslie Mackay Clyde R. Forsberg Jr., 2011-10-18 George Leslie Mackay 1844 1901 the famous Canadian Presbyterian missionary who came to northern Formosa Taiwan in 1872 and preached specifically with aborigines in mind is the subject of an interdisciplinary study by seven independent scholars interested in the nineteenth century imperial project and Christian mission to China Importantly Mackay's mission defies such binary opposites as East and West the missionary a conduit of an earlier Scottish Canadian spirituality adapted to Taiwan that allowed converts to appropriate the Presbyterian faith on their own terms the mission field in which he operated a biculture of foreign initiative and aboriginal agency working hand in hand Mackay's ordination of aboriginal ministers giving us the Northern Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Taiwan PCT was a bold departure from the imperial Anglo Canadian Presbyterian norm So too his marriage to a Taiwanese slave girl Chhang mia and the arranged interracial marriages that he performed between select Chinese ministers and female Taiwanese graduates which included his two daughters Mackay's missionary writing and famous autobiography From Far Formosa a fine specimen of the nineteenth century heroic memoir genre is notable for its defense of both gender and racial equality and despite its unmistakable patriarchal leanings Mackay's repudiation of Darwinism and belief in an early type of creation science therein also locates the so called Barbarian Bible Man opposite such virulent racist theorizing as Social Darwinism and Eugenics He was a dentist not an abortionist A relative unknown to most Western scholars of religion Mackay is Taiwan's most famous native son represented on the national stage in 2008 as a sky god and Taiwanese animistic deity of supernatural power and political influence par excellent Although a product of the colonial times in which he lived post colonial scholars who ignore Mackay his life and legacy clearly do so at some peril Policing in Taiwan Liqun Cao, Lanying Huang, Ivan Y.

Sun, 2014-05-09 The police in Taiwan played a critical role in the largely peaceful transition from an authoritarian regime to a democracy While the temptation to intervene in domestic politics was great the top down pressure to maintain a neutral standing facilitated an orderly regime change This is the first monograph to examine the role of the police as a linkage between the state and civil society during the democratic transition and the role of the police in contemporary Taiwan Starting with a brief history of Taiwan this book examines the development of policing in Taiwan from a comparative environmental historical operational philosophical and political perspective considers the role of the police in the democratic transition and draws comparisons between police cultures in the East and in the West both now and in the past Taiwan operates as a modern country within an East Asian culture and this book shows that Taiwan's move towards democracy may have political ramifications for the rest of the nations in the area Including references to literature on policing in China and the U S this book about Taiwan police may serve as a springboard for academics and students to learn about similar cultures in this important area of the world Policing in Taiwan will be of interest to academics and students who are engaged in the Mobilizing for Development Kristen E. Looney, 2020-05-15 Mobilizing for Development tackles the question of how countries achieve rural development and offers a new way of thinking about East Asia's political economy that challenges the developmental state paradigm Through a comparison of Taiwan 1950s 1970s South Korea 1950s 1970s and China 1980s 2000s Kristen E Looney shows that different types of development outcomes improvements in agricultural production rural living standards and the village environment were realized to different degrees at different times and in different ways She argues that rural modernization campaigns defined as policies demanding high levels of mobilization to effect dramatic change played a central role in the region and that divergent development outcomes can be attributed to the interplay between campaigns and institutions The analysis departs from common portrayals of the developmental state as wholly technocratic and demonstrates that rural development was not just a byproduct of industrialization Looney's research is based on several years of fieldwork in Asia and makes a unique contribution by systematically comparing China's development experience with other countries Relevant to political science economic history rural sociology and Asian Studies the book enriches our understanding of state led development and agrarian change

In the Global Vanguard James Lin, 2025-04-15 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In just half a century Taiwan transformed from an agricultural colony into an economic power spurred by efforts of the authoritarian Republic of China government in land reform farmers associations and improved crop varieties Yet overlooked is how Taiwan brought these practices to the developing world In the Global Vanguard elucidates the history and impact of the Taiwan model of agrarian development by incorporating how Taiwanese experts took the country's agrarian success and exported it throughout rural communities across Africa and Southeast Asia Driven by the global Cold War and challenges to the Republic of China's legitimacy Taiwanese agricultural technicians and scientists shared their practices which they claimed were better suited for poor tropical societies in the developing world These development missions James Lin argues were projected in Taiwan as proof of the ruling government's modernity and technical prowess and were crucial to how the state sought to hold onto its contested position in the international system and its rule by martial law at home
