Taiwan Studies In Chinese Local History:

Taiwan; Studies in Chinese Local History Leonard H. D. Gordon, 1970 台灣 The Taiwanese Making of the Canada Presbyterian Mission Mark A. Dodge, 2021-04-06 The Taiwanese Making of the Canada Presbyterian Mission explores the Canadian Presbyterian Mission to Northern Taiwan 1872-1915. The Canada Presbyterian Mission has often been portrayed as one of the nineteenth century's most successful missions and its founder George Leslie Mackay has been called the most successful Protestant Missionary of all time. Mark Dodge challenges the heroic narrative by exploring the motives and actions of the Taiwanese actors who supported and established the mission. Religious leaders, teachers, doctors, and businessmen from Northern Taiwan collaborated to build a strong and vital mission whose phenomenal success brought fame and status to Mackay and their cause. In turn, this status provided a protective space in which these Taiwanese patrons were able to exert significant economic and political autonomy in spite of pressures from competing colonial interests. This book will be of particular interest to students and historians of nineteenth century East Asia as well as scholars of comparative colonialism with a focus on missionary history and cultural colonialism. Reform in Nineteenth-Century China John E. Schrecker, 2020-03-17 An edited volume consisting of 33 papers presented at Harvard University's East Asian Research Center's 1975 workshop on reform in China in the nineteenth century. The book is divided into eight parts, each with a general thematic introduction, several essays on more specialized topics, and a summary of the discussion that took place at the conference. A Companion to Chinese History Michael Szonyi, 2017-02-06 A Companion to Chinese History presents a collection of essays offering a comprehensive overview of the latest intellectual developments in the study of China's history from the ancient past up until the present day. Covers the major trends in the study of Chinese history from antiquity to the present day. Considers the latest scholarship of historians working in China and around the world. Explores a variety of long range questions and themes which serves to bridge the conventional divide between China's traditional and modern eras. Addresses China's connections with other nations and regions and enables non-specialists to make comparisons with their own fields. Features discussion of traditional topics and chronological approaches as well as newer themes such as Chinese history in relation to sexuality, national identity, and the environment. The United States between China and Japan Caroline Rose, Victor Teo, 2014-07-24 From its insistence that Japan should favour diplomatic normalization with the Republic of China over the People's Republic of China in 1952 through its role via the Security Treaty of keeping the cap in the bottle of Japanese militarism to weighing in on the Diaoyu/Senkaku islands dispute between China and Japan, the United States has played a pivotal and at times controversial role in the development of China-Japan relations since the end of World War II. By extension, US influence on China-Taiwan and Taiwan-Japan relations, in addition to its impact on the efforts of various actors to construct a Northeast Asian regional community, continues to pose important questions about the nature of the US role in East Asia in the 21st century. This volume provides a multi-faceted overview of the nature of America's interaction in East Asia since the end of the war and highlights the obstacles to improved bilateral and regional integration. The contributors offer a range of perspectives from their respective US, European and East Asian vantage points and point to the ongoing and prominent involvement of the US in the region for the foreseeable future.

God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto, 2007-06-15. Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this-worldliness from its inception in the 1940s. This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church-centric and world-centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West. This work examines the development of such this-worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M. M. Thomas of India and C. S. Song from Taiwan. Special attention is drawn to the idea of God's this-worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church. The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song. The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds, the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns. These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world. In so doing, the study highlights the significance of the idea of God's this-worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds, approaches and theological formulations. Having compared Thomas and Song, the study concludes that the idea of God's this-worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity. The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples, cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously.

Japan at War in the Pacific Jonathan Clements, 2022-05-10. A lucid history of the rise and fall of militarism in Japan. New York Journal of Books. Japan at War in the Pacific recounts the dramatic story of Japan's transformation from a Samurai-led feudal society to a modern military industrial empire in the space of a few decades and the many wars it fought along the way. These culminated in an attempt by Japan's military leaders to create an Asia-Pacific empire which at its greatest extent rivaled the British Empire in scope and power. The battle for supremacy in the Pacific brought the Japanese to great heights but led ultimately to the nation's utter devastation at the end of World War II, culminating with the dropping of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the only time such weapons have been used in warfare. In this book, author Jonathan Clements offers fascinating insights into the wars that Japan fought during its rise to supremacy in the western Pacific, including the Russo-Japanese War, the seizure of Manchuria and war in China, and the Pacific theater of World War II. The many military actions undertaken by Imperial Japanese forces, including the horrific Rape of Nanjing, the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor, the decisive defeat at the Battle of Midway, the savage Battles of Okinawa and Iwo Jima, and many more. The motivations and beliefs of Japan's leaders, as well as the policy decisions of a government dedicated to expansion, which ultimately led to a complete dismantling of the nation's political and social order during the Allied Occupation. With over 75 photographs and maps this book vividly recounts the brutal story of Japan's military conquests Clements charts the evolution of the Japanese empire in the Pacific and the influence of a ruthless military led government on everything from culture and food to fashion and education including the anthems and rallying calls of a martial nation which were silenced long ago but continue to echo in Asian politics Toward a Political Economy of Development Robert H. Bates, 2023-11-15 Japan and Korea Frank Joseph Shulman, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1971 This annotated bibliography of doctoral dissertations on Japan and Korea grew out of a decision to expand and bring up to date an earlier list entitled Unpublished Doctoral Dissertations Relating to Japan Accepted in the Universities of Australia Canada Great Britain and the United States 1946-1963 compiled by Peter Cornwall and issued by the Center for Japanese Studies in 1965 Historical Dictionary of Taiwan (Republic of China) John F. Copper, 2024-11-05 Taiwan is a place of contradictions Its successful economic and political modernization has stimulated the imaginations of most observers Still its nation state status has been constricted and weakened It covets and pursues peace yet it is a vortex actor in global strategic military competition It is small yet its importance far exceeds its size It has long occupied a crucial place in history even though it has not sought this status yet it appears inevitable that it will continue to do so Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Republic of China Fifth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Taiwan Taiwan: A New History Murray A. Rubinstein, 2015-02-12 This is a comprehensive portrait of Taiwan It covers the major periods in the development of this small but powerful island province nation The work is designed in the style of the multi volume Cambridge History of China The American Colonial State in the Philippines Julian Go, Anne L. Foster, 2003-07-08 Interdisciplinary collection placing the U S imperial project in the Philippines within a global comparative framework The Cambridge History of China, 1980 Choice and Change John Davis, 2021-01-07 This volume in honour of Professor Mair reflects the range of her interests and those of the Department in which she taught in many areas of social anthropology for it reports on research in Africa Asia and the Mediterranean on the tensions between tradition and modernity between the individual and society deviance and conformity stability and conflict The ambiguities of social change and the choices thus presented to individuals are examined in all the essays and issues of modern politics and development dominate most of them History and Magical Power in a Chinese Community P. Sangren, 1987-09-01 This book is a case study of history and culture in the Taiwanese town of Ta-chi and the group of rural villages that constitute its standard marketing community However its scope exceeds that of most community studies The author attempts to construct a holistic view of Chinese culture from an analysis of the relationship between history and ritual in a particular locality The author argues that social institutions and collective representations are dialectically connected in the process of social and cultural reproduction He describes this dialectical process through an analysis of the key cultural concept of ling the magical power attributed to ghosts gods and ancestors In analyzing the symbolic logic of ling he asserts that it can be fully understood only as a product of the reproduction of social institutions and as a manifestation of a native historical consciousness Structuralist and Marxist insights are combined to explain how ling is best understood as both a cultural logic of symbolic relations and a material logic of social relations The book is in three parts Part I is a social and economic history that outlines what one might call an objectivist or positivist view of Ta ch i s history describing events as they were regardless of the perceptions of local participants This material is a background to the synchronic sociological analysis of local territorial cults that constitutes Part II In Part III the author unsettles the objectivist assumptions of Part I by showing how the idiom of ling underlies Taiwanese constructions of history and identity and how the cultural construction of history dialectically reproduces society and creates history The book is illustrated with 8 pages of photographs 17 line drawings and 9 maps Japan Army Library (U.S.),1972 Wealth and Freedom Gerald A. McBeath,2018-12-07 First published in 1998 this volume examines the economic miracle of Taiwan s remarkable transition from poverty to one of the world s most affluent economies ten years after its emergence from martial law Gerald A McBeath explores Taiwan from its time as a country barely recovered from Japanese occupation and wartime damage to a nation filled with new office buildings and skyscrapers where few think twice about frequenting expensive restaurants Beginning with the State of Taiwan between 1945 and 1986 McBeath progresses through the transformation of the Party State the changing status of economic interests policy making in the democratic era and Taiwan s internationalisation campaigns Department of the Army Pamphlet ,1972 Ploughshare Village Stevan Harrell,2014-11-01 This anthropological study of a workers village in North Taiwan makes an important contribution to the comparative literature on Chinese and Taiwanese social organization Based on fieldwork conducted in 1973 and 1978 the study is exceptional not only because of its excellent data but also because the village itself was unique Unlike villages previously studied and written about Ploughshare was neither an agricultural nor a fishing village but rather one whose inhabitants earned their living mostly from coal mining knitting and other non agrarian activities Culture and environmental context thus shaped social organization there differently than in other Taiwanese villages This ethnography links local data to surrounding socioeconomic spheres it shows the village s relationship to its region to Taiwan as a whole and to the international economy It also captures an important point in time as Taiwan was undergoing the economic miracle that brought it into the ranks of developed countries Stevan Harrell s new preface highlights changes not only in the village over the last several decades but also in the ways that anthropologists think about culture and Taiwan Ploughshare Village with its rich descriptions and analyses will be of value to anthropologists sociologists economists and China specialists The Protestant Community on Modern Taiwan Murray A. Rubinstein,1991
