Take Me Home Melanie Sweeney, 2024-07-09 AN INSTANT USA TODAY BESTSELLER Road Trip Rules No bad music No detours No falling in love Hazel Elliot never looks back If a door closes she burns the whole house down But when she's invited to her father's Christmas Eve wedding she's forced to return to Lockett Prairie Texas for the first time since she fled for college Ash Campbell has been in love with Hazel since she dated his best friend in high school Now Ash and Hazel's relationship is limited to playful feuding over the best chair in their favorite coffee shop but his attraction to the prickly girl from home has only grown stronger When Ash's car breaks down just as family obligations and the holidays pull him home only one person can get him there on time But Hazel has a condition Everything between them must stay the same And if it doesn't She gets the coffee shop So the frenemies endure bad music inclement weather and B Bs with only one bed and that's just the drive across Texas When they finally arrive Hazel must face that in a small town there's nowhere to run and maybe for the first time she's found a reason to stay

Prairie Silence Melanie Hoffert, 2013-01-08 A rural expatriate's struggle to reconcile family home love and faith with the silence of the prairie land and its people Melanie Hoffert longs for her North Dakota childhood home with its grain trucks and empty main streets A land where she imagines standing at the bottom of the ancient lake that preceded the prairie crop rows become the patterned sand ripples of the lake floor trees are the large alien plants reaching for the light and the sky is the water's vast surface reflecting the sun Like most rural kids she followed the out migration pattern to a better life The prairie is a hard place to stay particularly if you are gay and your home state is the last to know For Hoffert returning home has not been easy When the farmers ask if she's found a fella rather than explain that actually she dates women she stops breathing and changes the subject Meanwhile as time passes her hometown continues to lose more buildings to decay growing to resemble the mouth of an old woman missing teeth This loss prompts Hoffert to take a break from the city and spend a harvest season at her family's farm While home working alongside her dad in the shop and listening to her mom warn Honey you do not want to be a farmer Hoffert meets the people of the prairie Her stories about returning home and exploring abandoned towns are woven into a coming of age tale about falling in love making peace with faith and belonging to a place where neighbors are as close as blood but are often unable to share their deepest truths In this evocative memoir Hoffert offers a deeply personal and poignant meditation on land and community taking readers on a journey of self acceptance and reconciliation

“I Want to Join Your Club” Norah L. Lewis,2010-10-30 I am a girl 13 years old and a proper broncho buster I can cook and do housework but I just love to ride In letters written to the children s pages of newspapers we hear the clear and authentic voices of real children who lived in rural Canada and Newfoundland between 1900 and 1920 Children tell us about their families their schools jobs and communities and the suffering caused by the terrible costs of World War I We read of shared common experiences of isolation hard work few amenities limited educational opportunities restricted social life and heavy responsibilities but also of satisfaction over skills mastered and work performed Though often hard children s lives reflected a hopeful and expanding future and their letters recount their skills and determination as well as family lore and community histories Children both make and participate in history but until recently their role has been largely ignored In I Want to Join Your Club Lewis provides direct evidence that children s lives like adults have both continuity and change and form part of the warp and woof of the social fabric Home Missionary ,1884
