The year 1931 was a depressed year, too, but it was the year that the motorcycle industry began to recover. The year 1932 was a depressed year, too, but it was the year that the motorcycle industry began to recover. The year 1933 was a depressed year, too, but it was the year that the motorcycle industry began to recover. The year 1934 was a depressed year, too, but it was the year that the motorcycle industry began to recover.
