The Illustrated Journeys of Celia Fiennes, C1682-c.1712 Celia Fiennes,1988 THIS THIRD EDITION IS A LIVE ACCOUNT OF THE TRAVELS OF CELIA FIENNES THROUGHOUT ENGLAND BETWEEN 1685 AND 1710 AND IS NOW RE ISSUED TO CO INCIDE WITH THE WILLIAM AND MARY TRECENTENARY HER ORIGINAL TEXT IS COMPLIMENTED BY CHRISTOPHER MORRIS S INTRODUCTION AND ANNOTATIONS AND IS ILLUSTRATED THROUGHOUT WITH CONTEMPORARY DRAWINGS AND ENGRAVINGS OF THE TOWNS AND VILLAGES SHE VISITED The Journeys of Celia Fiennes. Edited and with an Introduction by Christopher Morris, Etc Celia FIENNES,Geoffrey Christopher MORRIS,1947

Women Writing the Home Tour, 1682-1812 Zoë Kinsley,2016-12-05 Between the late seventeenth and the early nineteenth century the possibilities for travelling within Britain became increasingly various owing to improved transport systems and the popularization of numerous tourist spots Women Writing the Home Tour 1682 1812 examines women s participation in that burgeoning touristic tradition considering the ways in which the changing face of British travel and its writing can be traced through the accounts produced by the women who journeyed England Scotland and Wales during this important period This book explores female authored home tour travel narratives in print as well as manuscript works that have hitherto been neglected in criticism Discussing texts produced by authors including Celia Fiennes Ann Radcliffe and Dorothy Wordsworth alongside the works of lesser known travellers such as Mary Morgan and Dorothy Richardson Kinsley considers the construction and also the destabilization of gender class and national identity through chapters that emphasize the diversity and complexity of this rich body of writings The Journeys of Celia Fiennes. Edited and with an Introduction by Christopher Morris,... with a Foreword by G. M. Trevelyan,... [Revised Edition.]. Celia Fiennes,1949 An Anthology of Women's Travel Writings Shirley Foster,Sara Mills,2002 This anthology aims to challenge stereotypes of women travellers Rather than simply presenting writings by Victorian women who travelled bravely around the world disregarding social convention and danger the editors present a range of writing and possible ways of being a woman traveller As well as the eccentric woman traveller the editors have included writings by those who might be seen as failed travellers cautious and conventional travellers and those who did not conform to the adventurous heroine stereotype Because travelling as a woman and writing as a woman presents the author with a number of textual problems which must be negotiated Foster and Mills have chosen to include writings which confronted these problems and which resolved them or did not resolve them in different ways These textual problems include the depiction of other women the representation of spatial relations the negotiations undertaken in relation to the adventure heroine narrative and character and the position taken by the author in relation to the representation of knowledge These issues are all crucial in relation to travel writing by women and the women whose writing has been collected together in this anthology have made bold decisions in relation to them The Journeys of Celia Fiennes C. Fiennes, 1947 LIFE CYCLES IN ENG 1560-1720 Mary Abbott, 2013-08-21 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Melbourne Hall Garden Jodie Jones, 2025-09-23 Explore the famous historical gardens of Melbourne Hall widely considered one of the most treasured historical gardens in England The garden is admired for its natural tunnel made up of the sweeping branches of an ancient yew tree as well as its wrought iron arbour created by Robert Bakewell known as the Birdcage which made Bakewell famous but also left him penniless There have been few radical alterations to the gardens since the early 18th century However in the earlier part of the 20th century extensive restoration was carried out Now home to Lord and Lady Ralph Kerr the garden remains a beautifully kept treasure Lady Kerr has developed the garden and her eye for colour and detail means that the Melbourne Garden is a haven of delightful and unusual specimen trees shrubs and herbaceous borders Although still very much an 18th century garden the new planting schemes have introduced greater botanical interest Covering both the early history and more recent developments under its current owners this stunning book contains numerous specially commissioned images by renowned garden photographer Andrea Jones which show this spectacular garden through the seasons At Day's Close A. Roger Ekirch, 2012-03-09 Remarkable Ekirch has emptied night's pockets and laid the contents out before us Arthur Krystal The New Yorker Bringing light to the shadows of history through a rich weave of citation and archival evidence Publishers Weekly scholar A Roger Ekirch illuminates the aspects of life most often overlooked by other historians those that unfold at night In this triumph of social history Mail on Sunday Ekirch's enthralling anthropology Harper's exposes the nightlife that spawned a distinct culture and a refuge from daily life Fear of crime of fire and of the supernatural the importance of moonlight the increased incidence of sickness and death at night evening gatherings to spin wool and stories masqued balls inns taverns and brothels the strategies of thieves assassins and conspirators the protective uses of incantations meditations and prayers the nature of our predecessors sleep and dreams Ekirch reveals all these and more in his monumental study The Nation of sociocultural history maintaining throughout an infectious sense of wonder Booklist The Prose of Things Cynthia Sundberg Wall, 2014-10-01 Virginia Woolf once commented that the central image in Robinson Crusoe is an object a large earthenware pot Woolf and other critics pointed out that early modern prose is full of things but bare of setting and description Explaining how the empty unvisualized spaces of such writings were transformed into the elaborate landscapes and richly upholstered interiors of the Victorian novel Cynthia Sundberg Wall argues that the shift involved not just literary representation but an evolution in cultural perception In The Prose of Things Wall analyzes literary works in the contexts of natural science consumer culture and philosophical change to show how and why the perception and representation of space in the eighteenth century novel and other prose narratives became so textually visible Wall examines maps scientific publications country house guides and auction catalogs to highlight the thickening descriptions of domestic interiors

Considering the prose works of John Bunyan Samuel Pepys Aphra Behn Daniel Defoe Samuel Richardson David Hume Ann Radcliffe and Sir Walter Scott The Prose of Things is the first full account of the historic shift in the art of describing The Journeys of Celia Fiennes, Edited by C. Morris Celia Fiennes, Christopher (editor) Morris, 1947 The Cambridge History of English Literature, 1660-1780 John Richetti, 2005-01-06 The Cambridge History of English Literature 1660 1780 offers readers discussions of the entire range of literary expression from the Restoration to the end of the eighteenth century In essays by thirty distinguished scholars recent historical perspectives and new critical approaches and methods are brought to bear on the classic authors and texts of the period Forgotten or neglected authors and themes as well as new and emerging genres within the expanding marketplace for printed matter during the eighteenth century receive special attention and emphasis The volume's guiding purpose is to examine the social and historical circumstances within which literary production and imaginative writing take place in the period and to evaluate the enduring verbal complexity and cultural insights they articulate so powerfully Murky waters Sophie Vasset, 2022-06-21 Murky waters challenges the refined image of spa towns in eighteenth century Britain by unveiling darker and more ambivalent contemporary representations It reasserts the centrality of health in British spas by looking at disease the representation of treatment and the social networks of care woven into spa towns The book explores the great variety of medical and literary discourses on the numerous British spas in the long eighteenth century and offers a rare look at spas beyond Bath Following the thread of murkiness it explores the underwater culture of spas from the gender fluidity of users to the local and national political dimensions as well as the financial risks taken by gamblers and investors It thus brings a fresh look at mineral waters and a pinch of salt to health related discourses Milton's Visual Imagination Stephen B. Dobranski, 2015-10-14 Milton's Visual Imagination contends that Milton enriches his biblical source text with acute and sometimes astonishing visual details

The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern Women's Writing in English, 1540-1700 Elizabeth Scott-Baumann, Danielle Clarke, Sarah C. E. Ross, 2022 A Handbook on early modern women's writing that combines new developments in historical and critical research with theoretical and conceptual approaches Understanding Early Modern Primary Sources Laura Sangha, Jonathan Willis, 2016-07-07 Understanding Early Modern Primary Sources is an introduction to the rich treasury of source material available to students of early modern history During this period political development economic and social change rising literacy levels and the success of the printing press ensured that the State the Church and the people generated texts and objects on an unprecedented scale This book introduces students to the sources that survived to become indispensable primary material studied by historians After a wide ranging introductory essay part I of the book Sources takes the reader through seven key categories of primary material including governmental ecclesiastical and legal records diaries and literary works print and visual and material sources Each chapter addresses how different types of material were produced whilst also pointing readers towards the most important and accessible physical and digital source collections Part II Histories takes a thematic approach Each chapter in this section explores the sources that are used to address major early modern themes including political and popular cultures the economy science religion gender warfare and global exploration This collection of essays by leading historians in their respective fields showcases how practitioners research the early modern period and is an invaluable resource for any student embarking on their studies of the early modern period

The birth of modern London ,2021-02-23 The period 1660 1720 saw the foundation of modern London The city was transformed post Fire from a tight warren of medieval timber framed buildings into a vastly expanded regularised landscape of brick houses laid out in squares and spacious streets This work for the first time examines in detail the building boom and the speculative developers who created that landscape It offers a wealth of new information on their working practices the role of craftsmen and the design thinking which led to the creation of a new prototype for English housing The book concentrates on the mass produced houses of the middling sort which saw the adoption of classicism on a large scale in this country for the first time McKellar shows however that the new city maintained a surprising degree of continuity with existing patterns of urban used and traditional architecture The book presents the late seventeenth and the early eighteenth century as a distinct phase in London s architectural development and offers a radical reinterpretations of the adoption of Renaissance styles and ideas at the level of the everyday challenging conventional interpretations of their use and reception in this country
