Curtin, 1964 In this encyclopedic work of intellectual history Philip D. Curtin sought to discover the British image of Africa for the years 1780-1850      White Supremacy George M. Fredrickson, 1982-02-04 The history of race relations on two continents is enormously enriched by this comparative study      The Abolition of the Brazilian Slave Trade Leslie Bethell, 1970 He covers a major aspect of the history of the international abolition of the slave trade      Recaptured Africans Sharla M. Fett, 2016-11-23 In the years just before the Civil War during the most intensive phase of American slave trade suppression the U.S. Navy seized roughly 2,000 enslaved Africans from illegal slave ships and brought them into temporary camps at Key West and Charleston In this study Sharla Fett reconstructs the social world of these recaptives and recounts the relationships they built to survive the holds of slave ships American detention camps and ultimately a second transatlantic voyage to Liberia Fett also demonstrates how the presence of slave trade refugees in southern ports accelerated heated arguments between divergent antebellum political movements from abolitionist human rights campaigns to slave trade revivalism that used recaptives to support their claims about slavery slave trading and race By focusing on shipmate relations rather than naval exploits or legal trials and by analyzing the experiences of both children and adults of varying African origins Fett provides the first history of U.S. slave trade suppression centered on recaptive Africans themselves In so doing she examines the state of recaptivity as a distinctive variant of slave trade captivity and situates the recaptives story within the broader diaspora of Liberated Africans throughout the Atlantic world      Heredity, Race, and the Birth of the Modern Sara Eigen Figal, 2010-04-15 In this volume Eigen places under sustained scrutiny some of our most basic modern assumptions about inheritance genealogy blood relations and racial categories in order to answer the question what constitutes good bonds among humans and what compels us to determine them so across generations as both a physical and a metaphysical attribute      The Underneath of Things Mariane C. Ferme, 2001-09-14 Researched with unusual sensitivity original in approach illuminating beyond its immediate geographical and theoretical referents and written in a style that is both carefully crafted and eminently accessible this is the work of a remarkably talented observer and scholar Jane Guyer editor of Money Matters Instability Values and Social Payments in the Modern History of West African Communities former president of the African Studies Association The world is currently quite aware of Sierra Leone and its predicament and it needs this well informed and beautifully written account of what makes the country so wonderful despite its woes Ferme's work is truly transcendent capturing magnificently well some of the most important aspects of an otherwise difficult ethnographic case It is a truthful and honest piece of work based on a deep grasp of the ethnographer's craft Paul Richards author of Fighting for the Rain Forest War Youth and Resources in Sierra Leone Ferme is a true master in the magic of things She gives the study of secrecy new impetus by examining its history relating that history not only to discourse but also to material conditions She brilliantly shows how for Sierra Leone societies the celebration of ambiguity has been a way to live with permanent danger from the long history of slavery through the present civil war Peter Geschiere author of The Modernity of Witchcraft Politics and the Occult in Postcolonial Africa The Underneath of Things is a model of patience detailed observation and elegant writing a theoretically creative study that is keen to track and to disentangle the webs and flows of everyday life Achille Mbembe author of On the Postcolony Making Money Colleen E.
