The Independent Scholars Handbook How To Turn Your Interest In Any Subject Into Expertise:

Independent Scholars Meet the World Christine Caccipuoti, Elizabeth Keohane-Burbridge, 2020-10-16 For too long graduate school was viewed solely as a pipeline to teaching positions at colleges and universities As MAs and PhDs proliferate and opportunities in the academy narrow this timely book reminds us that the academy is only one of many venues for satisfying and successful scholarly endeavor The contributors to Independent Scholars Meet the World represent a spectrum of graduate school experiences from leaving midprogram to completing an MA or PhD They include those who sought nontraditional paths and others who started in the familiar professorial direction only to change course Ultimately they are independent scholars contributing to their fields but working outside the academy Their stories illustrate the variety of options that exist beyond the university setting from museum education and high school teaching to newer professions like podcasting and creating historical coloring books These scholars impart advice about encountering difficulties overcoming challenges and learning to adapt to changing circumstances All have something to share that the graduating scholar and those who guide them ought to hear about cultivating networks viewing departure from familiar terrain as an option not a failure and understanding the real value that an independent scholar brings to any number of situations Perhaps the most important lesson this book offers is for those steeped in the belief that the only right way to be a scholar is as a tenured professor and how therefore to embrace the label independent scholar The contributors to Independent Scholars Meet the World offer the advice and encouragement they wish they'd received when heading into uncharted postgraduate territory They demonstrate that success awaits the determined and resourceful scholar pursuing a different path towards expanded ac

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 The Independent Learners' Sourcebook Robert McCaughan Smith, Phyllis M. Cunningham, 1987 Building a Win-Win World Hazel Henderson, 1997-10-09 World renowned futurist Hazel Henderson extends her twenty five years of work in economics to examine the havoc the current economic system is creating at the global level Building a Win Win World examines how jobs education health care human rights democratic participation socially responsible business and environmental protection are all sacrificed to global competitiveness and outlines a new economic architecture based on positive sustainable systems Creating the Work You Love Rick Jarow, 1995-11-01 In this unique and provocative look at work career counselor Rick Jarow argues for a return to the concept of vocation finding a calling instead of a job Traditional career guides inventory the individual skills talents and abilities that correlate to specific existing jobs Creating the Work You Love presents a unique alternative approach using self reflective exercises based on the seven chakras to help you determine the elements you need to create a life filled with meaning and purpose Jarow believes that it is possible to live and act from the most authentic part of ourselves and to express our strongest values energies and talents through our work in the world Concentrating on the attributes associated with each of the body's energy centers or chakras Dr Jarow helps us form a bridge between our personal priorities and the
