information on international and regional processes relating to indigenous peoples The No-nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples Lotte Hughes, 2003 Indigenous peoples have long suffered from exoticization Outsiders elevate their beauty remoteness and difference and do not see beyond this to the real problems they face The No Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples looks beyond the exotic images tracing the stories of different indigenous peoples from their first and often fatal contact with explorers and colonizers Much of this history is told here by indigenous people themselves They vividly describe why land and the natural world are so special to them how it feels to be snatched from your family as a child because the government wants to make you white why they are demanding that museums must return the bones of their ancestors how can they retain their traditional culture while moving with the times and what kinds of development are positive This short guide discusses all this and more raising countless issues for debate Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16 This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems John H Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems , Competing Jurisdictions Sandra Evers, Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2005 Includes bibliographical references Securing Land Rights in Africa Tor A. Benjaminsen, Christian Lund, 2012-12-06 Authors have published widely in the area A fascinating chronicle of changing legislation and its practical implications A unique title with application to African Studies Geography and Economics courses Victims of Progress John H. Bodley, 2014-08-14 Victims of Progress now in its sixth edition offers a compelling account of how technology and development affect indigenous peoples throughout the world Bodley s expansive look at the struggle between small scale indigenous societies and the colonists and corporate developers who have infringed their territories reaches from 1800 into today He examines major issues of intervention such as social engineering economic development self determination health and disease global warming and ecocide Small scale societies Bodley convincingly demonstrates have survived by organizing politically to defend their basic human rights Providing a provocative context in which to think about civilization and its costs shedding light on how we are all victims of progress the sixth edition features expanded discussion of uprising politics Tebtebba a particularly active indigenous organization and voluntary isolation A wholly new chapter devotes full coverage to the costs of global warming to indigenous peoples in the Pacific and the Arctic Finally new appendixes guide readers to recent protest petitions as well as online resources and videos Global Health Watch 2005-2006 ,2005 This alternative world health report offers a comprehensive survey of the key areas that influence the health of poor and vulnerable groups in all countries They range from climate change water and nutrition to national health policies and services and the brain drain of health professionals from South to North The Lesser Gods of the Sahara Jeremy Keenan,2004 The eight essays that comprise this collection cover various aspects of social change and contested terrain amongst the Tuareg people Algeria

The War Hotel Arlene Audergon, 2004-12-10 Human Nature is the fuel of violent conflict The War Hotel looks at how we get aroused and how we get silenced into violent conflict We are pulled apart in the name of justice and loyalty Past trauma is triggered into a replay Out of love and longing to step beyond the ordinary world we sacrifice ourselves and others Dehumanizing the enemy disinformation torture stirring fear in order to crack down these terror tactics too are based in psychology The manipulation of psychological dynamics to create violent conflict is distressing But if our emotions and behaviour are the fuel then our awareness can impact world events There is something truly hopeful here Awareness makes a difference Examples draw particularly from the author's work in the Balkans Other examples include Nazi Germany Rwanda the Israeli Palestinian conflict Communism and its fall in Europe South Africa the treatment of Native Americans and African Americans in the USA Vietnam and the war on terror
