The Urbanists, 1865-1915 Dana F. White, 1989-04-26 Based on a reading of almost 6 000 entries from 37 periodicals published between the years 1865 and 1900 The Urbanists offers an insightful analysis of the development of an urban frame of mind Drawing on the writings of such major figures of nineteenth century and early twentieth century urban America as Frederick Law Olmsted Daniel H Burnham W E B Du Bois and Robert E Park as well as their lesser known contemporaries the study combines a number of customarily specialized perspectives those of the urban designer the social scientist the administrator the politician the reformer and the general observer of the city scene The most comprehensive collection of observations on the period s rapidly expanding urban world as expressed by its own chroniclers in periodicals of the times

this study highlights the rise of urban self consciousness into the twentieth century The volume opens with a background chapter on civic concerns expressed during the two decades following the Civil War and proceeds to four chapters detailing the full range of urban affairs during the final fifteen years of the century In addition a series of shorter interludes each more narrowly focused supplements the sweep of the periodical literature provided in the chapters with close up readings from major texts of the era In conclusion the book suggests that the basic outlines of modern urban theory were set for subsequent generations by the first urbanists who emerged during the late 1800s The most comprehensive first hand account of urban change this important contribution to urban studies will provide valued reading for students of U S and urban studies

The Rise of the Social Gospel in American Protestantism, 1865-1915 Charles Howard Hopkins,1967 This is the first adequate history of the uniquely American movement toward the socializing and ethicizing of Protestantism which is known as the social gospel Many people believe that social Christianity was accomplished at the opening of the twentieth century by a handful of clergymen but Mr Hopkins shows that it goes back to the close of the Civil War and that its prophets are legion It came into being as a result of modern industrial society and scientific thought in the half century between the Civil War and the First World War Mr Hopkins describes the movement from its beginning until the present when the social gospel has become a factor of permanent significance in the thinking of Christendom
