Parenting with a Purpose Walter E. McDonald, 2010-06. Parenting With A Purpose. Parenting is not about ownership; it is about stewardship, and stewardship is about doing a job for God. Parenting is not about being glorified; it is about glorifying God. Parenting is not about lifting up children or being lifted up by children; it is about lifting up Christ by bringing children up in the training and instruction of the Lord. When the objective of parenting is to glorify God, God gets the glory and parents get the joy. And there is no joy like the joy that a parent experiences when his child grows like Jesus grew: in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and men. Walter E. McDonald currently teaches a young adult Sunday school class for parents with children in elementary school and middle school. He was ordained a deacon in 1978 and has been teaching Sunday school since 1965. He has taught children, youth, high school students, college students, young married couples, single adults and senior adults. He has also worked with youth mission groups such as Royal Ambassadors and Shepherd Boys. His approach to teaching, no matter what age group he teaches, has always been that of the Apostle Paul written in 1 Corinthians 2:2: "For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ and him crucified." KJV

And We Shall Learn through the Dance Kathleen S. Turner, 2021-07-28. Liturgical dance is a way to present, reflect, instruct, learn, study and share religious beliefs with one's self, within one's worship community and with one's God. Such a belief is confirmed and witnessed within a variety of religious settings throughout the world from the beginning of time to this present age. However, there is a vacuum of resources that connect liturgical dance within the Christian context as a tool for religious learning within the field of religious education. With the continual rise of liturgical dance as an artistic form of expression, this book proposes that liturgical dance offers unique attributes conducive to the teaching and learning of faith and to faith formation. Kathleen S. Turner shows how liturgical dance is religious education in two very important ways: first, by addressing the power and potential liturgical dance has in nourishing the faith life of Christian congregants through means that are both educative and reflective; and second, by giving examples of how liturgical dance can be implemented as a religious education tool within the teaching life of the church.
