Melville Hershel Parker, 2008 Revealed here is an unknown Melville the autodidact who made himself a poet and who brilliantly constructed a personal aesthetic credo Dispelling baseless claims that Melville had a quarrel with fiction after Moby Dick or Pierre and that he did not in 1860 complete a book he called Poems Parker offers new evidence of the full trajectory of Melville's career in all its glory and frustration BOOK JACKET

The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares, 2016-03-17 How did the human mind evolve and how does it emerge again and again in individual lives In The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares presents a fascinating inquiry into the origin of mind He proposes that the way in which mind or self evolved may resemble the way it emerges in childhood play and that a poetic analogical style of thought is a biological necessity essential to bringing to fruition the achievement of the human mind Taking a fresh look at the language used in psychotherapy he shows how language and conversation in particular is central to the development and maintenance of self His theory incorporates the ideas from William James Hughlings Jackson Janet Hobson Gerald Edelman Wolf Singer Vygotsky and others It is illuminated by extracts from literary artists such as Wallace Stevens W S Merwin Virginia Woolf Joseph Conrad and Shakespeare Encompassing psychotherapy psychoanalysis evolution child development literary criticism philosophy studies of mind and consciousness The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind is an engaging ground breaking and thought provoking work that will appeal to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as anyone interested in the emergence of mind and self

Walt Whitman and the Making of Jewish American Poetry Dara Barnat, 2023-08-01 Walt Whitman has served as a crucial figure within the tradition of Jewish American poetry But how did Whitman a non Jewish American born poet become so instrumental in this area of poetry especially for poets whose parents and often they themselves were not born here Dara Barnat presents a genealogy of Jewish American poets in dialogue with Whitman and with each other and reveals how the lineage of Jewish American poets responding to Whitman extends far beyond the likes of Allen Ginsberg From Emma Lazarus and Adah Isaacs Menken through twentieth century poets such as Charles Reznikoff Karl Shapiro Kenneth Koch Muriel Rukeyser Adrienne Rich Marge Piercy Alicia Suskin Ostriker and Gerald Stern this book demonstrates that Whitman has been adopted by Jewish American poets as a liberal symbol against exclusionary and anti Semitic elements in high modernist literary culture The turn to Whitman serves as a mode of exploring Jewish and American identity

John Keats Aileen Ward, 1966 Genders, Races, and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetry, 1908-1934 Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2001-01-11 In Genders Races and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetries Rachel Blau Duplessis shows how through poetic language modernist writers represented the debates and ideologies concerning New Woman New Negro and New Jew in the early twentieth century From the poetic text emerge such social issues of modernity as debates on suffrage sexuality manhood and African American and Jewish subjectivities By a reading method she calls social philology a form of close reading inflected with the approaches of cultural studies Duplessis engages with the work of such canonical poets as Wallace Stevens Ezra Pound T S Eliot William Carlos Williams Gertrude Stein Marianne Moore and H D as well as Mina Loy Countee Cullen Alfred Kreyenborg and Langston Hughes writers she claims still marginalized by existing constructions of modernism This book is an ambitious attempt to remap our understanding of modern poetries and poetics and the relationship between early twentieth century writing and society

In Plain Sight Alexandra Socarides, 2020-02-06 In Plain Sight explores how the poetry of nineteenth century American women that was once so visible within American culture could have with the exception of that by Emily Dickinson so thoroughly disappeared from literary history By investigating erasure not merely as something that was done to these women but as the result of the conventions that once made the circulation of their poetry possible in the first place this volume offers the first book length analysis of the conventions of nineteenth century American women's poetry While each of the chapters focuses on a specific convention taken together they tell the complicated story of nineteenth century American women's poetry tracing the spaces within literary culture where it lived and thrived the spaces from which it was always in the process of vanishing By reclaiming these conventions as a constitutive part of nineteenth century American women s poetry this book asks readers to take seriously the work these women produced and the role their work might play in remapping American literary history

theories then the relationship between subjective fictionality and ironic objectivity in Chinese poetics the continuity of the dilemma in the Chinese novelists in their dual allegiance to the ideal and the real A final section gives a critical overview of the literary scene in Taiwan The following four chapters provide examples of the internal tension between fictionality and ironic awareness in the Taiwanese modernist texts I suggest that instead of stretching the metaphorical potential of fiction to a highly intellectualized abstraction or playing down the interpretive claims of fiction by dramatizing its vulnerability like their Western counterpart the Taiwanese modernists create their texts on the borderline between the high and the low Self assertive as well as self denying each of them confronts his own intellectual vision with paradox and ambivalence In Ch en Ying chen this is expressed as a battle between a lyrical vision of ideological values and an instinctive self clowning in Ch i teng Sheng as a form of competition between pattern and contingency in Wang Chen ho as a celebration and abuse of the fictionality of fiction and in Wang Wen hsing an intense self parody I conclude that the sensitivity to the irrational and contradiction inherent with a resistance to didacticism constitutes the best part of the Chinese humanistic tradition which is continuously enriched with new dimensions by the contemporary Taiwanese writers

Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print Bartholomew Brinkman, 2016-12-15 How scrapbooking book collecting and other ways of handling print media informed modernist poetry In Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print Bartholomew Brinkman argues that an emerging mass print culture conditioned the production reception and institutionalization of poetic modernism from the latter part of the nineteenth century through the middle of the twentieth century with lasting implications for the poetry and media landscape Drawing upon extensive archival research in the United States and Britain Brinkman demonstrates that a variety of print collecting practices including the anthology the periodical the collage poem volumes of selected and collected poems and the modern poetry archive helped structure key formal and institutional sites of poetic modernism Brinkman focuses on the generative role of book collecting practices and the negotiation of print ephemera in scrapbooks He also traces the evolution of the modern poetry archive as a particular case of the mid twentieth century rise of literary archives and identifies parallels between the beginning of mass print culture at the end of the nineteenth century and the growth of digital culture today Advocating for a transatlantic modernism that stretches roughly from 1880 to 1960 one that incorporates both popular and canonical poets Brinkman successfully extends the geographical historical and vertical dimensions of modernist studies Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print will appeal not only to scholars and students of literary modernism modern periodical studies book history print culture media studies history art history and museum studies but also to librarians archivists museum curators and information science professionals

Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Se n Riord in to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet M irt n Dire in In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire in This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell s concept of the zig zag movement of a country s culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala N Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of the American Renaissance Christopher N. Phillips, 2018-03-07 The American Renaissance has been a foundational concept in American literary history for nearly a century The phrase connotes a period as well as an event an iconic turning point in the growth of a national literature and a canon of texts that would shape American fiction poetry and oratory for generations F O Matthiessen coined the term in 1941 to describe the years 1850 1855 which saw the publications of major writings by Hawthorne Melville Emerson Thoreau and Whitman This Companion takes up the concept of the American Renaissance and explores its origins meaning and longevity Essays by distinguished scholars move chronologically from the formative reading of American Renaissance authors to the careers of major figures ignored by Matthiessen including Stowe Douglass Harper and Longfellow The volume uses the best of current literary studies from digital humanities to psychoanalytic theory to illuminate an era that reaches far beyond the Civil War and continues to shape our understanding of American literature
