The Man in Lonely Land Kate Langley Boshier, 2014-12-15

Mr Winthrop Laine threw his gloves on the table his overcoat on a chair put his hat on the desk and then looked down at his shoes Soaking wet he said as if to them I swear this weather would ruin a Tapley temper For two weeks rain and sleet and snow and steam heat to come home to Hello General How are the legs tonight old man Stooping he patted softly the big beautiful collie which was trying to welcome him and gently he lifted the dog s head and looked in the patient eyes No better Not even a little bit I d take half if I could General more than half It s hard luck but it s worse not to know what to do for you He turned his head from the beseeching eyes For the love of heaven don t look at me like that General don t make it His breath was drawn in sharply then as the dog made effort to bark to raise his right paw in greeting as of old he put it down carefully rang the bell walked over to the window and for a moment looked out on the street below
