The Man In The High Castle :

The Man in the High Castle Philip K. Dick, 2011 Slavery is back America 1962 Having lost a war America finds itself under Nazi Germany and Japan occupation A few Jews still live under assumed names The I Ching is prevalent in San Francisco Science fiction meets serious ideas in this take on a possible alternate history

The Man in the High Castle Philip K. Dick, 2001 First published in 1962 this title imagines the world as if the Allies had lost the Second World War the African continent virtually wiped out the Mediterranean drained to make farmland and the United States divided between the Japanese and the Nazis

The Man in the High Castle and Philosophy Bruce Krajewski, Joshua Heter, 2017-08-04 The Man in the High Castle is an Amazon TV show based on the Philip K Dick novel about an alternate present beginning in the 1960s in which Germany and Japan won World War II with the former Western US occupied by Japan the former Eastern US occupied by Nazi Germany and a small neutral zone between them A theme of the story is that in this alternative world there is eager speculation fueled by the illicit newsreel The Grasshopper Lies Heavy about how the world would have been different if America had won the war In The Man in the High Castle and Philosophy twenty two professional thinkers look at philosophical issues raised by this ongoing enterprise in alternative history One question is whether it really made a profound difference that the Allies won the war and exactly what differences in everyday life we may expect to arise from an apparent historical turning point Could it be that some dramatic historical events have only superficial consequences while some unnoticed occurrences lead to catastrophic results Another topic is the quest for truth in a world of government misinformation and how dissenting organizations can make headway influenced science fiction and horror film and television These genres explore important Holocaust themes trauma guilt grief ideological fervor and perversion industrialized killing and the dangerous afterlife of Nazism after World War II Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Shows Set in New York City Wikipedia contributors, Pink Beam Lord Rc,2007-07-01 A study of the novels and short stories of science fiction writer Philip K Dick 1928 1982 with presentation of a literary chronology of his career The World Hitler Never Made Gavriel D. Rosenfeld,2005-05-23 A fascinating 2005 study of the place of alternate histories of Nazism within Western popular culture Philip K Dick Christopher Palmer,2003-03-01 Once the sole possession of fans and buffs the SF author Philip K Dick is now finding a much wider audience as the success of the films Blade Runner and Minority Report shows The kind of world he predicted in his funny and frightening novels and stories is coming closer to most of us shifting realities unstable relations uncertain moralities Philip K Dick Exhilaration and Terror of the Postmodern examines a wide range of Dick s work including his short stories and posthumously published realist novels Christopher Palmer analyses the puzzling and dazzling effects of Dick s fiction and argues that at its heart is a clash between exhilarating possibilities of transformation and a frightening lack of ethical certainties Dick s work is seen as the inscription of his own historical predicament the clash between humanism and postmodernism being played out in the complex forms of the fiction The problem is never resolved but Dick s ways of imagining it become steadily more ingenious and challenging Blending and the Study of Narrative Ralf Schneider,Marcus Hartner,2012-10-30 The theory of Blending or Conceptual Integration proposed by Gilles Fauconnier and Marc Turner is one of most promising cognitive theories of meaning production It has been successfully applied to the analysis of poetic discourse and micro textual elements such as metaphor Prose narrative has so far received significantly less attention The present volume aims to remedy this situation Following an introductory discussion of the connections between narrative and the processes of blending the contributions demonstrate the range of applications of the theory to the study of narrative They cover issues such as time and space literary character and perspective genre story levels and fictional minds some chapters show how such phenomena as metalepsis counterfactual narration intermediality extended metaphors and suspense can be fruitfully studied from the vantage point of Conceptual Integration Working within a theoretical framework situated at the intersection of narratology and the cognitive sciences the book provides both fresh readings for individual literary and film narratives and new impulses for post classical narratology The Holocaust across Borders Hilene S. Flanzbaum,2021-06-29 Literature of the Holocaust courses whether taught in high schools or at universities necessarily cover texts from a broad range of international contexts Instructors are required regardless of their own disciplinary training to become comparatists and discuss all works with equal expertise This books offers analyses of the ways in which representations of the Holocaust whether in text film or material culture are shaped by national context providing a valuable pedagogical source in terms of both content and methodology As memory yields to post memory nation of origin plays a larger role in each re telling and the

chapters in this book explore this notion covering well known texts like Night and Day, Hunger for Survival in Auschwitz, Italy, My Father's House, The United States, This Way to the Gas, Poland and The Reader, Germany while also introducing lesser known representations from countries like Argentina or Australia

Intersectionality in Anglophone Television Series and Cinema Kévin Drif, Georges-Claude Guilbert, 2020-10-15 This book takes an intersectional approach to explore gender, race, ethnicity and social class in television series and films produced by English speaking countries. Starting from Kimberl Crenshaw's 1989 concept of intersectionality and encompassing film studies, television studies, cultural studies, gender studies, Queer theory, African American studies and post colonial studies, this volume sheds light not only on revealing intersectional elements of on screen fiction but also on the very nature of intersectional criticism

Alternate History Kathleen Singles, 2013-10-14 While strictly speaking Alternate Histories are not Future Narratives, their analysis can shed a clear light on why Future Narratives are so different from past narratives. Trying to have it both ways, most Alternate Histories subscribe to a conflicting set of beliefs concerning determinism and freedom of choice, contingency and necessity. For the very first time, Alternate Histories are here discussed against the backdrop of their Other Future Narratives. The volume contains in depth analyses of the classics of the genre such as Philip K Dick's The Man in the High Castle and Philip Roth's The Plot Against America as well as less widely discussed manifestations of the genre such as Dieter Kuhn's N, Christian Kracht's Ich werde hier sein im Sonnenschein und im Schatten and Quentin Tarantino's film Inglourious Basterds

Historical Fiction Now Mark Eaton, 2023 An edited volume that brings together award winning historians, novelists and literary critics to discuss the popularity of historical fiction

Modernism and Time Machines Tung Charles M. Tung, 2019-03-14 Bridging modernist studies and science fiction scholarship, Modernism and Time Machines places the fascination with time in canonical works of twentieth century literature and art side by side with the rise of time travel narratives and alternate histories in popular culture. Both modernism and this cardinal trope of science fiction produce a range of effects and insights that go beyond the exhilarations of simply sliding back and forth in history. Together, the modernist time obsession and the fantasy of moving in time help us to rethink the shapes of time, the consistency of timespace and the nature of history.

Key Features Draws on insights from a range of sources including critical geography, postcolonial theory, science and technology studies and time studies. Examines different kinds of objects together: SF, Impressionism and Henri Lefebvre's rhythm analysis, evolutionary biology, Eliot's The Waste Land and Leinster's e, Sidewise in Time, Woolf, Philip K Dick's alternate history and the film Interstellar, bullet time, Faulkner's racialized lag and Jessica Hagedorn's postcolonial anachronism, e, big history, e, Olaf Stapledon's two billion year novel of the human species and Terrence Malick's film Tree of Life

Intercultural Translations of Japan in Western Media Frank Jacob, Bruno Surace, 2021-03-02 Our images of non Western cultures are often based on stereotypes that are replicated over the years These stereotypes often appear in popular media and are responsible for a pre set image of otherness The present book investigates these processes and the media representation of otherness especially as an artificial construct based on stereotypes and their repetition in the case of Japan Western Japaneseness thereby illustrates how the Western image of Japan in popular media is rather a construct that in a way replicated itself instead of a more serious encounter with a foreign and different cultural context This book will be of great value to students and academics who hold interest in media studies Japanese studies and cultural studies It will also appeal to a broader audience with interests in Japan more generally Imagining the Unimaginable Glyn
