On the Divide David H. Porter, 2008-12-01. On the Divide analyzes the iconic image that Cather helped develop for herself in contrast to the anonymous face she adopted for promotional activities and the very different private self she shared only with friends and family. Delving into Cather's correspondence and the little-known promotional material she produced anonymously, David Porter provides new insight into the extent and direction of her control. He also considers the contrasting influences of Mary Baker Eddy, whose biography Cather ghostwrote, and Sarah Orne Jewett on the author's emerging artistic persona. The study goes on to explore the many ways in which these OC divides in Cather's life found expression in her writing. Extending from Cather's early stories to her final novel, Porter's book documents the degree to which Cather's understanding of her own different and often conflicting sides and of her penchant for playing diverse roles enabled her as a novelist to create characters so torn, so complex, and so profoundly human.

The little fox in the chaotic galaxy Karen Lee, 2019-05-08. Cheng Fan stood woodenly on the overpass, looking at the endless stream of vehicles moving forward in an orderly manner with the sound of wind whistling in his ears. He couldn't tell which was the dream.

A Family Affair: The List Mary Campisi, 2021-05-03. Can her free-spirited ways fit into his plan? Radford Keller is a successful businessman who sees life as a corporation. He's guided by structure, facts, and deadlines. He has no time or interest in concepts like serendipity, destiny, or ever after. In fact, he doesn't believe they exist. Marisela Ricci is a talented, kind-hearted free spirit with an unfortunate past that's left her filled with self-doubt and an inability to commit to long-term or anything resembling a plan. And relationships? Too much hurt, too much exposure. Not happening. Ever. They're from different worlds, but they share one very strong common interest: Radford's Aunt Lina. Lina Keller has lived in the small town of Magdalena, New York, for over fifty years, but she's known her share of heartache, loss, and the repercussions of not taking a chance. That's why she's determined that the two people who mean the most to her—her city-boy nephew and the woman who's like a daughter to her—don't experience those same mistakes. She devises a twenty-one-day list that will force them to work together, develop new skills and maybe learn about each other Will they want to do it Of course not Will they do it for her Absolutely And perhaps what they ll discover along the way will change how they view each other the world and their take on commitment and happily ever after What happens when the twenty one day list is completed Well that depends on them with a little help from the residents of Magdalena
