Global Challenges in Maritime Security Lisa Otto, Anja Menzel, 2024-10-22 Achieving sustainability is perhaps the single most important task for our generation In the face of a looming climate disaster calls for the sustainable use of the world s resources are getting louder As the sea covers more than 70 per cent of the earth s surface this holds even more true for the use of ocean resources Despite its vastness the sea has often been a securitised and politicised space where the concepts of sustainability and security meet at sea in the form of a myriad of important contemporary issues In this volume we set out the intersection between sustainability and security alongside the security development nexus and examine these issues under four dimensions of security economic security ecological security human security and traditional security Within sections dedicated to each of these we explore both theory and practice by offering cases alongside a conceptual discussion and in so doing cover topics ranging from the Blue Economy and the net zero agenda to natural disasters and climate change from food security and the future of Small Island Developing States to the geopolitics of the Arctic This book takes a bird s eye view connecting the dots between these issues of security and sustainability and ending with scenarios for the future with policy making in mind This volume presents a timely and compelling argument that policymakers and scholars need to come to terms with the intersection of sustainability and security at sea The editors detail a clear and insightful conceptual approach for grasping the simultaneity and interplay of security and sustainability concerns that will give inspiration to further research in the field Chapter contributors convincingly illustrate aspects of this approach across regions scales and sites of political engagement from port cities to the UN A must read for students researchers and practitioners of ocean politics Elana Wilson Rowe Research Professor at the Norwegian Institute of International Affairs NUPI Too often issues of security and sustainability at sea have been studied in narrow terms This volume makes a critical contribution the literature by unpacking the interconnections and interdependence between these two vitally important issues Robert McCabe Assistant Professor and Director of the MA Maritime Security Programme at Coventry University In this timely publication an international set of contributors portray a rich array of views on the oceans security and sustainability for the reader Of particular value is how the security sustainability nexus runs through the chapters to emphasise the ever growing importance and relevance of this interplay Francois Vre Professor Emeritus of Military Science and Research Coordinator at the Security Institute for Governance and Leadership in Africa SIGLA Stellenbosch University The Maritime Traditions of the Fishermen of Socotra, Yemen Julian Jansen van Rensburg, 2016-11-30 This research analyses the Socotri maritime traditions and addressing the question as to how social environmental and technological influences have shaped the maritime traditions of the fishermen of Socotra 205 nautical miles south of Yemen The Maritimes [text (large Print)] :

Tradition, Challenge & Change MacGregor, Carolyn, Peabody, George, Richard Gregory Thorne, 1987 Maritime Security Complexes of the Indo-Pacific Region Dr Vijay Sakhuja, Prof (Dr) W Lawrence S Prabhakar, 2023-03-06 This book seeks to provide a net assessment of regional challenges and opportunities in this study of the Indo Pacific region s security dynamics viewed through the maritime variant of the Regional Security Complex Theory The objective of this volume is to ascertain the regional security dynamics and assess securitization as a driving force It infers the scope of traditional non traditional and transnational security issues and their regional impact with a specific focus on the maritime perspectives of regional security dynamics and also envisages the potential interplay of these factors as they continue to influence and shape future discourse Bridging the Strait Copthorne Macdonald, 1997-09 June 1997 marked the opening of the

Confederation Bridge which spans the Northumberland Strait and connects Prince Edward Island to New Brunswick The bridge designed and built by the international consortium Strait Crossing is one of the most innovative engineering projects undertaken in Canada It is the longest bridge ever constructed over ice covered water and one of the longest continuous multi span bridges in the world Bridging the Strait describes the arduous trips taken by ice boats ferries steamers and ice breakers which have been the link to PEI The author Copthorne Macdonald traces the events leading up to the building of the bridge He explains the problems faced by the Strait Crossing team and tells the story of how they overcame challenging obstacles such as ice wind and treacherous ocean currents The stunning achievement of the Confederation Bridge is celebrated in this handsome book It highlights the contribution of Strait Crossing and Public Works Canada who steered the project from conception to completion and it provides a fitting tribute to the engineers and designers who solved the technical problems and the workers who sacrificed to bring the project to fruition Non-Traditional Security Challenges in Asia Shebonti Ray Dadwal, Uttam Kumar Sinha, 2017-07-05 Asia is challenged by a number of non traditional security issues including the foodenergywater nexus climate change transnational crime terrorism disaster relief and economic performance This volume categorizes and clarifies some key emerging issues in the area and looks at their interconnectedness and implications The essays explore how non traditional issues can manifest as security challenges and the role of the state and military in dealing with these Issue based and area specific they rely on facts and interpretation of data avoiding alarmist predictions A nuanced and analytical approach into an uncharted area this book will be essential for policymakers
