From Soldier to Storyteller Kathleen Broome Williams, Hal M. Friedman,2024-10-09 Many of the best known and most popular children s stories of the 20th and early 21st century were written by veterans of World War I and World War II These include works by such writers as A A Milne C S Lewis Roald Dahl Ian Fleming and J R R Tolkien among others Although they had experienced war most of the veterans did not overtly write about it The seeming paradox of warriors who went through searing combat and then wrote books for children has not been addressed collectively before now The essays in this book explore what motivated

these veterans to write for children what they wrote and how their writing was influenced by the wars they lived through It examines how their combat experience can be traced in their writing however subtly whether it was stories about a bear and his piglet companion a World War I flying ace or a flying car Their reactions to war as reflected in their writing yield important lessons about the complicated legacy of the 20th century s two great conflicts and their long lasting impact through children on society at large

A Special Duty Jennifer Elkin,2014-03-18 This is the true story of a young RAF pilot his crew a Halifax bomber and their attempts to carry agents and supplies from bases in Libya and Italy deep into Europe the Balkans and Poland during the Second World War The crew were forced to bale out during a supply drop to southern Poland but unlike many they survived thanks to Polish and Russian partisans who risked everything to shelter and protect them They became the first RAF crew to be repatriated through Russia and though they all survived the personal cost forms the central thread of this story
