The Intercultural Nation:

The Intercultural City Giovanna Marconi, Elena Ostanel, 2016-03-31 The resulting cultural differences can often create problems and conflict In Europe alone the sheer scale of migration is forcing the issue to the top of the political agenda The Intercultural City brings together scholars from a range of disciplines including urban studies geography planning sociology political science and spatial design to explore both the failings of existing policies to manage diversity and to examine how one might begin to create ways to remove obstacles and enhance the integration of migrants and minorities Combining fresh theoretical insights with studies from cities in Europe North America Asia and Africa The Intercultural City offers a timely and important contribution to the challenge of managing diversity in the city of the twenty first century The Intercultural Communication Playbook Teri Kwai Gamble, Michael W. Gamble, Xiaowen Guan, 2024-02-13 Featuring a three prong approach on culture communication and creative problem solving The Intercultural Communication Playbook highlights how active imaginative and productive problem solving methods can transform the way students understand intercultural communication Language and Culture in the Intercultural World Vesna Mikolič, 2020-12-09 The intensification of contacts between cultures and languages has a major impact on all social spheres today Multiculturalism and multilingualism are important elements of the local regional national and global community Much of the world s conflict stems from the contrast between globalization and nationalism fuelled by religions racial divisions traditions and other cultural particularities Focusing mainly on the situation in Central and South eastern Europe this book addresses how cultural identities develop through tourism education literature and other social fields and how language and literature teaching should be planned in this context It consists of the following sections Language Culture and Tourism Interculturalism Multilingualism and Approaches to Language Learning and Culture in Literature and Translation The volume will be of interest to teachers and researchers of cultural and tourism studies linguistics and language learning literary studies and translation while also addressing wider readers interested in contemporary intercultural society The Intercultural Nation Alfred Prettyman, 1998-11-01 This text is intended for courses in race and diversity or multiculturalism found in sociology departments Some or all of the 50 reading selections could also be used in English courses dealing with cross cultural issues The previous edition of the book was entitled National Civics in a Mosaic Democracy The Intercultural Dialogue Thor-André Skrefsrud, 2016 The speed scale and spread of international migration and globalisation have firmly placed the issue of intercultural dialogue at the top of the educational agenda in Europe and elsewhere In this book Skrefsrud sheds light on intercultural dialogue as a key competence for teachers working in changing and diverse classrooms In the first part the notion of dialogue is explored with the theory of culture religion and communication as the focus In the second part Skrefsrud analyses the government initiated curriculum framework for teacher education in Norway and discusses the preconditions for intercultural dialogue in educational policies The analysis illustrates how difficult it is to make issues of difference permeate all aspects of teacher preparation Thor Andr Skrefsrud works as an associate professor in education at the Hedmark University of Applied Sciences in Norway His research interests include intercultural education religious education and educational philosophy In 2012 he received his Ph D for a thesis on the concept of intercultural dialogue in teacher education Understanding the Intercultural Differences between Germans and the French in the Working Environment Sarah-Jane Pill,2006-01-11 Inhaltsangabe Abstract In an ideal world the policemen would be English the car mechanics German the cooks would be French the bankers Swiss and the lovers Italian But in the real world we must not forget that there are also policemen that are German car mechanics that are French cooks that are English bankers that are Italian and lovers that are Swiss www.analytictech.com Internationalisation and globalisation have an enormous affect on every day life The number and intensity of contacts in business life school apprenticeship advanced training or in private life between people from different cultures is ever increasing Due to a growing number of international companies and mergers working together with foreign colleagues has become a usual occurrence for many people It is therefore a central topic of the 21st century to cope with cultural diversity and develop intercultural competence Looking back at history interaction between cultures is nothing new Interstate contacts and intercultural processes have always been the result of political military economic and religious actions In the majority of cases the enlargement and stabilisation of the power structure were the fundamental causes for these processes Due to an expanding transportation system and technological progress globalisation has entered a new dimension Nowadays information can be passed on across the globe easily and inexpensively exchanges between schools universities or businesses have become a stable feature travelling around the world is no longer the privilege of the rich Accordingly there are several areas of life affected by cross cultural interactions a very complex one is the working environment which is the subject of this thesis Understanding the dynamics of international business encounters requires a fundamental shift from comparative studies of cultural differences to the study of intercultural interactions The decisive issue in international management is not the existence of differences but the way behavioural differences are perceived interpreted and managed by members of different national cultures This research will clarify the intercultural aspects of business relations between French and Germans Why is this relationship of such great interest As the European Union grows the idea of a European identity is spread among its member countries Although these countries have a relatively close geographical The Intercultural Performance Reader Patrice Pavis,1996 Views on intercultural exchanges within theatre practice from contributors including Peter Brook Clive Barker Jacques Lecoq and Rustom Bharucha Branding the Nation, the Place, the Product Ulrich Ermann,Klaus-Jürgen Hermanik,2017-11-22 Branding is a profoundly geographical type of commodification process Many things become commodities that are compared and valued on markets around the globe Places such as cities or regions countries and nations attempt to acquire visibility through branding Geographical imaginations are evoked to brand goods and places as commodities in order to show or create connections and add value Yet not all that is branded was originally intended and created for markets This volume aims to broaden current understanding of branding through a series of contributions from geography history political studies cultural and media studies offering insight into how ordinary places objects and practices become commodities through branding In so doing the contributions also show how nation place and product as targets of branding can be seen as intertwined To discuss these forms of branding book chapters refer to states cities holiday destinations food malls movies dances post stamps and other items that serve as brands and or are branded The book will be of interest to students and scholars in geography sociology history cultural studies and business studies who would like to gain an understanding of the intricate and surprising ways in which things places and cultural practices become brands Ferment in the Intercultural Field William J. Starosta, Guo-Ming Chen, 2003-06-26 Ferment in the Intercultural Field Axiology Value Praxis Volume 26 of The International and Intercultural Communication Annual examines how the field of intercultural communication has encouraged new techniques in the area of research Editors William J Starosta and Guo Ming Chen along with a diverse group of distinguished contributors recall the 1983 topical issue of The Journal of Communication that reported a critical turn and a shift of paradigms in communication research Recommended for scholars and researchers in the area of intercultural communication Ferment in the Intercultural Field is also a vital resource for upper level undergraduate and graduate communication students Teaching and Assessing Intercultural Communicative Competence Michael Byram, 1997-01-01 Foreign and second language teaching should prepare learners to use a language with fluency and accuracy and also to speak with people who have different cultural identities social values and behaviours This text aims to define precisely what competencies are required how these can be included in teachers objectives and methods and how the ability to communicate across cultural differences can be assessed The Multicultural Dimension Of The National Curriculum Anna King, Michael Reiss, 2020-07-24 Given the National Curriculum Council s failure to issue any formal guidance on the subject multicultural education is becoming increasingly marginalized and left to individual schools This book provides guidance and advice to schools on issues of racial equality and cultural diversity It helps teachers managers and governors implement the requirements and expectations of new educational legislation since the 1988 Education Reform Act and its associated non statutory advice and guidance Within a whole school curriculum framework chapters provide analysis and practical guidance for each subject area of the National Curriculum With responsibility for multicultural education resting largely on individual schools this book sets out to aid schools of all kinds primary secondary grant maintained and LEA to ensure that issues of racial equality and cultural diversity are addressed throughout the whole curriculum It is aimed at teachers at all levels Heads of Education Departments Mentors Governors Advisers INSET course tutors students on PGCE BEd MEd courses and those doing a BA in Education Approaches to the Study of Intercultural Transfer Thomas Adam, 2019-10-31 Approaches to the Study of Intercultural Transfer presents a collection of compelling case studies in the areas of social reform museums philanthropy football nonviolent resistance and holiday rituals such as Christmas that demonstrate key mechanisms of intercultural transfers Each chapter provides the application of the intercultural transfer studies paradigm to a specific and distinct historical phenomenon The chapters not only illustrate the presence or even the depth and frequency of intercultural transfer but also reveal specific aspects of the intercultural transfer of phenomena the role of agents of intercultural transfer and the transformations of ideas transferred between cultures thereby contributing to our understanding of the mechanisms of intercultural transfers

Nation-Building, Identity and Citizenship Education Joseph Zajda, Holger Daun, Lawrence J. Saha, 2008-12-16 A major aim of Nation Building Identity and Citizenship Education Cross cultural Perspectives is to present a global overview of selected scholarly research on global and comparative trends in dominant discourses of identity politics and nation building in comparative education research It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information about the international concern in the field of nation building identity and citizenship education Above all the book offers the latest findings on discourses surrounding national identity nation building and citizenship education in the global culture It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting the formation of social identity and citizenship education in the global culture More than ever before there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalisation and the forces of globalisation on nations organisations communities educational institutions and individuals around the world This is particularly relevant to the evolving and constantly changing notions of nation states national identity and citizenship education globally Current global and comparative research demonstrates a rapidly changing world where citizens are experiencing a growing sense of alienation uncertainty and loss of moral purpose In this stimulating and important book the authors focus on discourses surrounding three major dimensions affecting the national identity nation building and citizenship education debate in education and society ideology democracy and human rights These are among the most critical and significant dimensions defining and contextualising the processes surrounding the nation building and identity

The Intercultural City Charles Landry, Phil Wood, 2012 In a world of increasing mobility how people of different cultures live together is a key issue of our age especially for those responsible for planning and running cities New thinking is needed on how diverse communities can cooperate in productive harmony instead of leading parallel or antagonistic lives Policy is often dominated by mitigating the perceived negative effects of diversity and little thought is given to how a diversity dividend or increased innovative capacity might be achieved The Intercultural City based on numerous case studies worldwide analyses the links between urban change and cultural diversity It draws on original research in the US Europe Australasia and the UK It critiques past and current policy and introduces new conceptual frameworks It provides significant and practical advice for readers with new insights and tools for practitioners such as the intercultural lens indicators of openness urban cultural literacy and ten steps to an Intercultural City Published with Comedia

The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney

Needham,2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities

Cultural Borders of Europe Mats Andrén,Thomas Lindkvist,Ingmar Söhrman,Katharina Vajta,2017-08-01 The cultural borders of Europe are today more visible than ever and with them comes a sense of uncertainty with respect to liberal democratic traditions whether treated as abstractions or concrete realities cultural divisions challenge concepts of legitimacy and political representation as well as the legal bases for citizenship Thus an understanding of such borders and their consequences is of utmost importance for promoting the evolution of democracy Cultural Borders of Europe provides a wide ranging exploration of these lines of demarcation in a variety of regions and historical eras providing essential insights into the state of European intercultural relations today

National Image Xiangfei Meng,2020-03-12 This book introduces researchers students and the general public to an intriguing phenomenon at the intersection of diverse fields national branding In particular it uses representative cases particularly to show how China responded to major challenges not only in the distant past but also especially in our hectic age of national image construction By pursuing an interdisciplinary socio historical approach the book sheds new light on the role of cultural symbols in national image building As such readers will learn how China has exploited its black and white tradition calligraphy and painting in the construction of a national image
