Hope on the Inside Marie Bostwick,2019-03-26 In this compelling heartwarming novel from New York Times bestselling author Marie Bostwick one woman finds new purpose in a new phase of life Whatever comes your way find the happiness in it Hope Carpenter received that advice from her mother decades ago Now with their four children grown Hope and her husband Rick are suddenly facing an uncertain future after a forced retirement strains both their savings and their marriage Seeking inspiration and a financial boost Hope gets a job teaching crafts to inmates at a local women's prison. At first Hope feels foolish and irrelevant struggling to relate to women whose choices seem so different from her own. But with time and the encouragement of the prison chaplain she begins to discover common ground with the inmates in their worries about their children and families, their fear of having failed those who need them. Just like her, they want to make something of themselves but believe it might be impossible. Embarking on an ambitious quilting project, Hope and her students begin to bond. Together, piece by piece, they learn to defy expectations, their own and others', and to see that it's never too late to stitch together a life that even in its imperfections is both surprising and beautiful.

Praise for Marie Bostwick and Her Novels: Reading Marie Bostwick is like wrapping yourself up in a warm, hand-crafted quilt. Debbie Macomber, 1 New York Times bestselling author. It takes great skill to write a heartwarming story about grief and Bostwick proves she is up to the task. A great addition to any women's fiction collection. Booklist. The Makeover in Movies Elizabeth A. Ford, Deborah C. Mitchell, 2004-04-14. The plots of many films pivot on the moment when a dowdy girl with bad hair, ill-fitting, outdated clothing, and thick glasses is changed into an almost unrecognizable glamour girl. Makeover scenes such as these are examined, beginning with 1942's Now Voyager. The study examines whether the film makeover is voluntary or involuntary, whether it is always successful, how much screen time it takes up, where in the narrative structure it falls, and how the scene is actually filmed. Films with a Pygmalion theme such as My Fair Lady, Vertigo, and Shampoo are examined in terms of gender relations, whether the man is content with his creation, and what sort of woman is the ideal. Some films publicize a glamorous star's choice to play an unattractive character, as discussed in a chapter examining stars like Bette Davis, Meryl Streep, and Cameron Diaz. Topics also include folk literature's Cinderella tale, men as the inspiration for makeovers in teen flicks, films like Clueless, She's All That, and Me, Natalie, and class repositioning in such movies as Working Girl, Pretty Woman, and Grease. Photographs are presented in a before-and-after format showing the change in the makeover character.
