Hard Lines Daniel Cross Turner, William Wright, 2016-04-01 A collection of contemporary poems exploring the grit of work love and the land down South Daniel Cross Turner and William Wright's anthology Hard Lines Rough South Poetry centers on the darker side of southern experience while presenting a remarkable array of poets from diverse backgrounds in the American South As tough minded as they are high minded the sixty contemporary poets and two hundred poems anthologized in Hard Lines enhance the powerful genre of Grit Lit The volume gathers the work of poets who have for some decades formed the heart of southern poetry as well as that of emerging voices who will soon become significant figures in southern literature These poems sting our senses into awareness of a gritty world down South hard work hard love hard drinking hard times but they also explore the importance of the land and rural experience as well as race gender and class based conflicts Readers will see hear for poetry is meant to ring in the ears and feel for poetry is meant to beat in the blood there is plenty of raucousness in this anthology And yet the cultural conflicts that ignite southern wildness are often depicted in a manner that is lyrical without becoming lugubrious mournful but not maudlin Some of these poets are coming to terms with a visibly transforming culture a roughness in and of itself Indeed many of these poets are helping to change the definition of the South The anthology also features biographical information on each poet in addition to further reading suggestions and scholarly sources on contemporary poetry Featured Poets Betty Adcock David Bottoms Kathryn Stripling Byer James Dickey Rodney Jones Yusef Komunyakaa Ron Rash Dave Smith Natasha Trethewey Charles Wright Fred Chappell Kelly Cherry Allison Adelle Hedge Coke Kate Daniels Kwame Dawes Claudia Emerson Andrew Hudgins T R Hummer Robert Morgan Ellen Bryant Voigt Dan Albergotti Tarfia Faizullah Forrest Gander Terrance Hayes Judy Jordan John Lane Michael McFee Paul Ruffin Steve Scafidi Jake Adam York

Over seventy contributors are represented here and their essays discuss a wealth of women's issues from four centuries: race, urbanization and feminism, the myth of southern womanhood, preset images and assigned social roles from the belle to the mammy and real life behind the facade of meeting others' expectations, poverty and the labor movement, responses to Uncle Tom's Cabin and the influence of Gone with the Wind. The history of southern women's literature tells ultimately the story of the search for freedom within an insidious tradition, to quote Ellen Glasgow, "This teeming volume validates the deep contributions and pleasures of an impressive body of writing and marks a major achievement in women's and literary studies."

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape, past and present, this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever-flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon. As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions, southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures, a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here. Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia, this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature, theoretical categories such as regionalism, the southern gothic and agrarianism, and themes in southern writing such as food, religion and sexuality. Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists, playwrights, poets and critics. Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship. Another South Bill Lavender, 2003 Gathers the best work of flourishing but often neglected avant garde southern poets. Another South is an anthology of poetry from contemporary southern writers who are working in forms that are radical, innovative and visionary. Highly experimental and challenging in nature, the poetry in this volume, with its syntactical disjunctions, formal revolutions and typographic playfulness, represents the direction of a new breed of southern writing that is at once universal in its appeal and regional in its flavor. Focusing on poets currently residing in the South, the anthology includes both emerging and established voices in the national and international literary world. From the invocations of Andy Young's Vodou Headwashing Ceremony to the blues-informed poems of Lorenzo Thomas and Honoré Jeffers, from the different voicings of John Lowther and Kalamu ya Salaam to the visual multi-genre art of Jake Berry, David Thomas, Roberts and Bob Grumman, the poetry in Another South is rich in variety and enthusiastic in its explorations of new ways to embody place and time. These writers have made the South lush with a poetic avant garde all its own, not only redefining southern identity and voice but also offering new models of what is possible universally through the medium of poetry. Hank Lazer's introductory essay about Kudzu textualizes the work by these contemporary innovators. Like the uncontrollable runaway vine that entwines the southern landscape, their poems are hyperfertile, stretching their roots and shoots relentlessly, at once destructive and regenerative. In making a radical departure from nostalgic southern literary voices, these poems of polyvocal abundance are
