The Making Of Politicians Studies From Africa And Asia:

Discerning the Powers in Post-Colonial Africa and Asia Pak Nung Wong, 2016-02-17 Qualifying post Westphalian sovereign statehood as a power as argued for in Hendrik Berkhoff's political theology this book addresses the decades long theological spiritual debate between Christian realism and Christian pacifism in U S foreign policy and global Christian circles It approaches the debate by delving into the pacifist Anabaptist political theology and delineates empirically how sovereign statehood in post colonial Africa and Asia has fallen into the hands of the devil Satan as a fallen power in the Foucaultian terms of power structures techniques and episteme While the book offers intervention schemes and options it holds that Christian statecraft remains the source of hope to effectively address a number of serious global issues By extension the book is thus an invitation to ignite debates on the suitability of Christian statecraft and the nexus between spirituality and world politics making it especially interesting for scholars and students in the fields of International Politics Politics of Asian and African States Post colonial Studies and Political Theology

China's New Role in African Politics Christof Hartmann, Nele Noesselt, 2019-10-21 China's rise to global power status in recent decades has been accompanied by deepening economic relationships with Africa with the New Silk Road's extension to Sub Saharan Africa as the latest step leading to much academic debate about the influence of Chinese business in the continent However China's engagement with African states at the political and diplomatic level has received less attention in the literature This book investigates the impact of Chinese policies on African politics asking how China deals with political instability in Africa and in turn how Africans perceive China to be helping or hindering political stability While China officially operates with a foreign policy strategy which conceives of Africa as one integrated monolithic area with the Forum on China Africa Cooperation FOCAC the flagship of inter continental cooperation this book highlights the plurality of context specific interaction patterns between China and African elites demonstrating how China's role and relevance has differently evolved according to whether African countries are resource rich and geostrategically important from the Chinese perspective or not By looking comparatively at a range of different country cases the book aims to promote a more thorough understanding of how China reacts to political stability and instability and in which ways the country contributes to domestic political dynamics and stability within African states China's New Role in African Politics will be of interest to researchers from across Political Science International Relations International Law and Economy Security Studies and African and Chinese Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY ND 4.0 license

Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental
