The Man Who Invented Genocide:

The Origins of Genocide Dominik J. Schaller, Jürgen Zimmerer, 2013-09-13 This year the United Nations celebrated the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide adopted in December 1948 It is time to recognize the man behind this landmark in international law At the beginning were a few words New conceptions require new terms By genocide we mean the destruction of a nation or of an ethnic group Rarely in history have paradigmatic changes in scholarship been brought about with such few words Putting the quintessential crime of modernity in only one sentence Raphael Lemkin 1900 1959 the Polish Jewish specialist in international law not only summarized the horrors of the National Socialist Crimes which were still underway when he coined the term genocide in 1944 but also influenced international law As the founding figure of the UN Genocide Convention Lemkin is finally getting the respect he deserves Less known is his contribution to historical scholarship on genocide Until his death Lemkin was working on a broad study on genocides in the history of humankind Unfortunately he did not manage to publish it The contributions in this book offer for the first time a critical assessment not only of his influence on international law but also on historical analysis of mass murders showing the close connection between both This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research The Man who Invented "genocide" James Joseph Martin, 1984 Col. William N. Selig, the Man Who Invented Hollywood Andrew A. Erish, 2012-03-01 All histories of Hollywood are wrong Why Two words Colonel Selig This early pioneer laid the foundation for the movie industry that we know today Active from 1896 to 1938 William N Selig was responsible for an amazing series of firsts including the first two reel narrative film and the first two hour narrative feature made in America the first American movie serial with cliffhanger endings the first westerns filmed in the West with real cowboys and Indians the creation of the jungle adventure genre the first horror film in America the first successful American newsreel made in partnership with William Randolph Hearst and the first permanent film studio in Los Angeles Selig was also among the first to cultivate extensive international exhibition of American films which created a worldwide audience and contributed to American domination of the medium In this book Andrew Erish delves into the virtually untouched Selig archive at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Library to tell the fascinating story of this unjustly forgotten film pioneer He traces Selig's career from his early work as a traveling magician in the Midwest to his founding of the first movie studio in Los Angeles in 1909 to his landmark series of innovations that still influence the film industry As Erish recounts the many accomplishments of the man who first recognized that Southern California is the perfect place for moviemaking he convincingly demonstrates that while others have been credited with inventing Hollywood Colonel Selig is actually the one who most deserves that honor Raphael Lemkin and the Struggle for the Genocide Convention J. Cooper, 2008-01-17 public display political activism and hundreds of other forms We Remember with Reverence and Love shows that publicly memorializing those who died in the Holocaust arose from a deep and powerful element of Jewish life in postwar America Not only does she marshal enough evidence to dismantle the idea of American Jewish forgetfulness she brings to life the moving and manifold ways that this widely diverse group paid tribute to the tragedy Diner also offers a compelling new perspective on the 1960s and its potent legacy by revealing how our typical understanding of the postwar years emerged from the cauldron of cultural divisions and campus battles a generation later The student activists and new Jews of the 1960s who in rebelling against the American Jewish world they had grown up in a world of remarkable affluence and broadening cultural possibilities created a flawed portrait of what their parents had or rather had not done in the postwar years This distorted legacy has been transformed by two generations of scholars writers rabbis and Jewish community leaders into a taken for granted truth theories from the humanities and social sciences upon the treatment of Holocaust studies Unhappy the Land Liam Kennedy, 2015-10-26 In Unhappy the Land Liam Kennedy poses fundamental questions about the social and political history of Ireland and challenges cherished notions of a uniquely painful past Images of tragedy and victimhood are deeply embedded in the national consciousness yet when the Irish experience is viewed in the larger European context a different perspective emerges The author's dissection of some pivotal episodes in Irish history serves to explode commonplace assumptions about oppression victimhood and a fate said to be comparable only to that of the Jews Was the catastrophe of the Great Famine really an Irish Holocaust Was the Ulster Covenant anything other than a battle cry for ethnic conflict Was the Proclamation of the Irish Republic a means of texting terror And who fears to speak of an Irish War of Independence shorn of its heroic pretensions Kennedy argues that the privileging of the gun the drum and the flag above social concerns and individual liberties gave rise to disastrous consequences for generations of Irish people Ireland might well be a land of heroes from C Chulainn to Michael Collins but it is also worth pondering Bertolt Brecht's warning Unhappy the land that is in need of heroes American Trinity Larry Len Peterson, 2017-09-11 American Trinity is for everyone who loves the American West and wants to learn more about the good the bad and the ugly It is a sprawling story with a scholarly approach in method but accessible in manner In this innovative examination Dr Larry Len Peterson explores the origins development and consequences of hatred and racism from the time modern humans left Africa 100 000 years ago to the forced placement of Indian children on off reservation schools far from home in the late 1800s Along the way dozens of notable individuals and cultures are profiled Many historical events turned on the lives of legendary Americans like the Father of the West Thomas Jefferson and the Son of the West George Armstrong Custer two strange companions who shared an unshakable sense of their own skills as their interpretation of truths motivated them in the winning of the West Dr Peterson reveals how anti Indian sentiments were always only obliquely about them They were victims but not the cause The Indian was a symbol not a real person The politics of hate and racism directed toward them was also experienced in prior centuries by Jews enslaved Africans and other Christians Hatred and racism when taken into the public domain are singularly difficult to justify which is why Europeans and Americans have always sought vindication from the highest sources of authority in their cultures In the Middle Ages it was religion supplemented later by the philosophy of the Enlightenment In nineteenth century Europe and America religion and philosophy were joined by science and medicine to support Manifest Destiny scientific racism and social Darwinism all of which had profound consequences on Native Americans and the Spirit of the West Presenting research in anthropology archaeology biology history law medicine religion philosophy and psychology Dr Peterson provides the latest observations that delineate why the Native American's life was destroyed American Trinity is a stunning portrait a view at once unique panoramic and intimate It is a fascinating book that will make you think about the differences between belief and knowledge about the self skepticism of science and medicine and about what aspects of the world we take on faith
