Sled Dog Charles Edward Gillham,1950 To Hell With Togetherness Jack Stout,Rita Stout,2014-10-27 Between filing for our homestead on Bureau of Land Management BLM land in 1957 and the government granting of the patent in 1962 we spent five years on the homestead on Point MacKenzie in Southcentral Alaska This point is across four and a half miles of water from Anchorage yet the area is still remote and without road access A boat made getting back and forth a possible commute We walked everywhere We tied our kids to a packboard because no one had yet come out with a baby pack The trail was too rough for wheels so a stroller or wagon didn't work Disposable diapers were not available and with a baby less than a year old we washed cloth diapers on a scrub board Our grandparents worried about Indians we worried about bears It was when I was eight months pregnant and helping to dynamite a drainage ditch across a swamp that I decided to write a book and call it To Hell With Togetherness I lived in a totally male environment Games were wrestling or fighting with socks in the toe of other socks Always lots of hungry males around Fleshing a moose hide for tanning was free time activity This is a journal like essay of those five years that Jack and I have written together and it is what we believe to be true We thought we knew a lot about living as most young people do but god did we have a lot to learn I can't tell you why we did what we did except once we got started we were too stubborn to quit The Alaska Sportsman ,1962 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association. Association ,1950 The Rough Poets Melanie Dennis Unrau,2024-10-15 Oil workers are often typecast as rough embodying the toxic masculinity racism consumerist excess and wilful ignorance of the extractive industries and petrostates they work for But their poetry troubles these assumptions revealing the fear confusion betrayal and indignation hidden beneath tough personas The Rough Poets presents poetry by workers in the Canadian oil and gas industry collecting and closely reading texts published between 1938 and 2019 S C Ells s Northland Trails Peter Christensen s Rig Talk Dymphny Dronyk s Contrary Infatuations Mathew Henderson s The Lease Naden Parkin s A Relationship with Truth Lesley Battler s Endangered Hydrocarbons and Lindsay Bird s Boom Time These writers are uniquely positioned Melanie Dennis Unrau argues both as petropoets who write poetry about oil and as theorists of petropoetics with unique knowledge about how to make and unmake worlds that depend on fossil fuels Their ambivalent playful crude and honest petropoetry shows that oil workers grieve the environmental and social impacts of their work worry about climate change and the futures of their communities and desire jobs and ways of life that are good safe and just How does it feel to be a worker in the oil and gas industry in a climate emergency facing an energy transition that threatens your way of life Unrau takes up this question with the respect care and imagination necessary to be an environmentalist reader in solidarity with oil workers
