An important building block for further advancing world system theory this book considers the theory from the perspectives of global processes and antisystemic movements feminist theory and the aftermath of the colonial system The volume addresses three myths tied to Eurocentric forms of thinking objectivist and universalist knowledges the decolonization of the modern world and developmentalism All three myths the authors argue conceal the continued hierarchical and unequal relations of domination and exploitation between European and Euro American centers and non European peripheral regions In this volume world system scholars address these and related aspects of the modern colonial capitalist world system Addressing the myth of universalist knowledge the volume reminds us that our knowledge is situated in the gender class racial and sexual hierarchies of a specific region in the world system while the colonality of power additionally situates our knowledge The volume further argues that the postcolonial era retains the hierarchy of colonialism and the possibility of national development without global structural changes is one of the greatest 20th century myths Taking these perspectives into consideration the contributors examine and help to refine classic world system theory

World Cities in a World-System Paul L. Knox, Peter James Taylor, Peter J. Taylor, 1995-07-06 Cities such as New York Tokyo and London are the centres of transnational corporate headquarters of international finance transnational institutions and telecommunications They are the dominant loci in the contemporary world economy and the influence of a relatively small number of cities within world affairs has been a feature of the shift from an international to a more global economy which took place during the 1970s and 1980s This book brings together the leading researchers in the field to write seventeen original essays which cover both the theoretical and practical issues involved They examine the nature of world cities and their demands as special places in need of specific urban policies the relationship between world cities within global networks of economic flows and the relationship between world city research and world systems analysis and other theoretical frameworks

The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell, Sophie Oldfield, 2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city Global Ethnography Michael Burawoy, Joseph A.

Blum, Sheba George, Zsuzsa Gille, Millie Thayer, 2000-10-01 In this follow up to the highly successful Ethnography Unbound Michael Burawoy and nine colleagues break the bounds of conventional sociology to explore the mutual shaping of local struggles and global forces In contrast to the lofty debates between radical theorists these nine studies excavate the dynamics and histories of globalization by extending out from the concrete everyday world The authors were participant observers in diverse struggles over extending citizenship medicalizing breast cancer dumping toxic waste privatizing nursing homes the degradation of work the withdrawal of welfare rights and the elaboration of body politics From their insider vantage points they show how groups negotiate circumvent challenge and even re create the complex global web that entangles them Traversing continents and extending over three years this collaborative research developed its own distinctive method of grounded globalization to grasp the evaporation of traditional workplaces the dissolution of enclaved communities and the fluidity of identities Forged between the local and global these compelling essays make a powerful case for ethnography s insight into global dynamics Globalization, Knowledge and Society Martin Albrow, Elizabeth

King, 1990-08 Globalization Knowledge and Society addresses the issues involved in the development of sociology as a global discipline and the increasing interpenetration of national traditions cultures and economies through global change Classic issues of relativism and universalism are raised in a new context The related problems of tensions between national sociological traditions and the international discipline are explored Finally the book considers the transnational process of social change particularly as exemplified in international actors such as the Green and peace movements This innovative volume drawing on papers from International Sociology addresses key questions for all those interested either in th

Social Dynamics of Global Terrorism and Prevention Policies Nilay Çabuk Kaya, Aykan Erdemir, 2008 Over the course of the first decade of the third millennium terrorism has become a phenomenon that no state society or individual can afford to ignore This volume is compiled in response to the challenge of global terrorism bringing together scholars and practitioners from around the world who are experts on the study of terrorism ASEAN in the Global System H. M. Dahlan, 1997

Ecological Imperialism, Development, and the Capitalist World-System Mariko Lin Frame, 2022-10-13 Two major trends are currently challenging the sustainability of human civilization extreme inequality and the ecological crisis This book argues that these are intrinsically linked by further exploring the complex relationships between global ecological crises neoliberal globalization orthodox development policies and imperialism Drawn from extensive theoretical historical policy and empirical research as well as fieldwork in Africa and Asia this book examines the crucial characteristics of the capitalist world system and how it enables and drives ecological imperialism Neoliberal globalization has allowed for capital s unfettered access to and exploitation of Nature across the planet and neoliberal development policies have reinforced a contemporary form of ecological imperialism where the environments of the Global South are enclosed and exploited and local communities are dispossessed of their land and livelihoods Simultaneously resources from the Global South are funneled to the Global North in the form of consumer goods and ecologically unequal exchange while the profits from those resources are siphoned away to transnational corporations financiers and government elites This work traces the historical development of free market policies while also paying special attention to the role of Northern international financial institutions emerging economies the semi periphery and the often hidden role of international finance in ecological imperialism This volume will be of keen interest to scholars and students of political economy critical development studies environmental sociology and political ecology

Orientalism, Postmodernism and Globalism Professor Bryan S Turner, 2002-11 This book represents a remarkable synthesis of recent discussion and debate regarding crucial aspects of postmodernization religious change and the globalization of world society

The Prospect of Global History James Belich, John Darwin, Margret Frenz, Chris Wickham, 2016-02-11 The Prospect of Global History takes a new approach to the study of global history seeking to apply it rather than advocate it The volume seeks perspectives on history from East Asian and Islamic sources as well as European ones and insists on depth in historical analysis The Prospect of Global History will speak to those interested in medieval and ancient history as well as modern history Chapters range from historical sociology to economic history from medieval to modern times from European expansion to constitutional history and from the United States across South Asia to China
