The Subversive Poetics of Alfred Jarry Marieke Dubbelboer, 2017-07-05 Paradox and provocation were essential features of all of the work of Alfred Jarry 1873 1907 His non conformist attitude whether employed to subvert literary or artistic conventions or to scrutinize social and political issues marked both his literary writing and his view of the world Nowhere is this more apparent than in the experimental and satirical Almanachs du Pere Ubu 1898 and 1901 which to date have received little critical attention Jarry's groundbreaking use of collage in these early works his absurdist humour and his rethinking of literary authorship and artistic originality foreshadow many innovations of twentieth century art and literature In this generously illustrated study Marieke Dubbelboer examines key characteristics of Jarry's poetics through an analysis of the Almanachs and addresses their role within the European avant garde

The Screen in Surrealist Art and Thought Haim Finkelstein, 2017-07-05 An interrogation of the notion of space in Surrealist theory and philosophy this study analyzes the manifestations of space in the paintings and writings done in the framework of the Surrealist Movement Haim Finkelstein introduces the screen as an important spatial paradigm that clarifies and extends the understanding of Surrealism as it unfolds in the 1920s exploring the screen and layered depth as fundamental structuring principles associated with the representation of the mental space and of the internal processes that eventually came to be linked with the Surrealist concept of psychic automatism Extending the discussion of the concepts at stake for Surrealist visual art into the context of film literature and criticism this study sheds new light on the way film thinking permeates Surrealist thought and aesthetics In early chapters Finkelstein looks at the concept of the screen as emblematic of a strand of spatial apprehension that informs the work of young writers in the 1920s such as Robert Desnos and Louis Aragon He goes on to explore the way the spatial character of the serial films of Louis Feuillade intimated to the Surrealists a related mode of vision associated with perception of the mystery and the Marvelous lurking behind the surfaces of quotidian reality The dialectics informing Surrealist thought with regard to the surfaces of the real with walls doors and windows as controlling images are shown to be at the basis of Andr   Breton's notion of the picture as a window Contrary to the traditional sense of this metaphor Breton's window is informed by the screen paradigm with its surface serving as a locus of a dialectics of transparency and opacity permeability and reflectivity The main aesthetic and conceptual issues that come up in the consideration of Breton's window metaphor lay the groundwork for an analysis of the work of Giorgio de Chirico Ren   Aguitte Max Ernst Andr   Breton and Joan Mir   he concluding chapter considers Surrealism and Photography in 1930s Japan Jelena Stojkovic, 2020-05-31 Despite the censorship of dissident material during the decade between the Manchurian Incident of 1931 and the outbreak of the Pacific War in 1941 a number of photographers across Japan produced a versatile body of Surrealist work In a pioneering study of their practice Jelena Stojkovic draws on primary sources and extensive archival research and maps out art historical and critical contexts relevant to the apprehension of this rich photographic output most of which is previously unseen outside of its country of origin The volume is an essential resource in the fields of Surrealism and Japanese history of art for researchers and students of historical avant-gardes and photography as well as for readers interested in visual culture

Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L. Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant-garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I
