Survey Of Twentieth Century Revival Movements In North America:

A Survey of 20th-century Revival Movements in North America Richard M. Riss, 1988 The twentieth century has witnessed periodic revivals comparable to the awakenings of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries And yet many of the places and players of these reawakenings have been overlooked or neglected by the chroniclers of North American church history A Survey of 20th Century Revival Movements in North America attempts to set the record straight It offers a concise and useful survey of the major currents of revival that have swept over this continent since the turn of the century As the final decade of this century approaches it is appropriate that historian Richard Riss chart the course of twentieth century revival on this continent and record the people places and events that have shaped the modern American church Names like William J Seymour or Maria B Woodworth Etter places like Azusa Street or North Battleford Saskatchewan and events like the forest Home Briefing Conference or the Latter Rain Revival might not be as familiar as Billy Graham Oral Roberts or the Jesus movement but each has played a significant role in keeping the streams of revival flowing The impact of these often lesser known figures and events is tremendous For example William J Seymour was a key figure in early Pentecostalism which has become one of the most rapidly growing segments of modern Christianity Also college awakenings at Bethel College in St Paul Minnesota Northern Baptist Theological Seminary North Park College and Wheaton College in late 1949 and early 1950 received nationwide press coverage and sparked college revivals throughout the country A decade later in 1960 Dennis Bennett s experience of the Holy Spirit in Van Nuys California would mark the beginning of a tremendous outpouring of the Spirit and for many came to represent the start of the charismatic renewal movement The Rise of the

Pentecostal and Charismatic movement is one of the miracles of the 20th century Without government support without an advertising campaign often without the notice of journalists and academics and sometimes in the face of persecution and ridicule it has spread its message around the world and now attracts in the region of 500 million people Many of its original and formative documents are unknown and out of print This book collects together samples from the writings of key Pentecostals and charismatics going back about 100 years and over a range of issues and practices shows how they vary and how they have developed historically These texts have lain in out of print magazines and archives and so far as we know have never been collected before in this way This book allows you to hear the authentic voice of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements drawing especially from sources in English

Canadian Pentecostalism Michael Wilkinson, 2009. One of the most significant transformations in twentieth-century Christianity is the emergence and development of Pentecostalism. The fastest growing form of Christianity with over five hundred million followers worldwide, this widely diverse movement has influenced many sectors of Christianity, flourishing in Africa, Latin America, and Asia, and also affecting Canada. Bringing together a previously scattered and somewhat hidden literature, Canadian Pentecostalism provides the first comprehensive overview of the subject. The collection is broad in focus, examining classical Pentecostalism, charismatic movements in the Roman Catholic and mainline Protestant traditions, and neo-Pentecostalism. Contributing authors examine historical debates about the origins of the movement, the response of Pentecostalism to institutionalization and globalization, and the roles of women, aboriginals, and immigrants within the Canadian movement. A multi-disciplinary study with contributions from scholars in history, sociology, cultural studies, theology, and religious studies, Canadian Pentecostalism provides an important window into the Pentecostal Charismatic movement and fills a gap in our general understanding of religion in Canada. Contributors include Peter Althouse, Southeastern University; Peter Beyer, University of Ottawa; Robert K. Burkinshaw, Trinity Western University; Michael Di Giacomo, Valley Forge Christian College; Bruce L. Guenther, Trinity Western University; Randall Holm, Providence College; Pamela M. S. Holmes, Th.D. candidate, Toronto School of Theology; Stephen Hunt, University of the West of England; Martin Mittelstadt, Evangel University; David Reed, University of Toronto; Thomas A. Robinson, University of Lethbridge; Donald S. Swenson, Mount Royal College; and Michael Wilkinson, Trinity Western University.

Ecstatic Prophecy Stacey Campbell, Wesley Campbell, 2008-11-01. Ecstatic prophecy is a form of prophecy in which the prophet is completely overtaken by the Holy Spirit, body, soul, and spirit, and prophesies almost as an oracle. In Ecstatic Prophecy, Stacey Campbell, a respected teacher and regular and high-profile recipient of this gift, explains the ins and outs of this remarkable mode of prophecy. She takes readers through biblical and early church examples of ecstatic prophecy and uncovers the history of its occurrence until modern times. She also examines how those with this gift can mature in it, avoid deception by testing spirits, and use this method of prophesying to grow closer to God and to reveal Jesus. This unique book will be compelling to anyone who follows prophetic literature and movements, as well as to those who may be experiencing ecstatic prophecy without understanding it.
