Survey Of Bible Doctrine:

A Survey of Bible Doctrine Charles C. Ryrie, 1989-06-08 A Survey of Bible Doctrine is an easy to read Bible based overview of the various doctrines of Scripture targeted to the layman who wants to understand what the Bible teaches

SURVEY OF BIBLE DOCTRINE. CHARLES C. RYRIE, 1999      A Survey of Bible Doctrine Charles Caldwell Ryrie, 1972

A Survey of Bible Doctrine Edgar James (C.), Moody Publishers, Barbara James (G.), Charles Caldwell Ryrie, 1978-07-01

A Popular Survey of Bible Doctrine Norman Geisler, Douglas E. Potter, 2016-01-06 Christians more than ever need a basic introduction to Bible doctrine that is systematic and true to Scripture This book is a popular introduction to the study of Bible doctrine firmly in the evangelical tradition Each chapter covers a biblical doctrine stresses its doctrinal importance and inter connectedness to formulating a Christian worldview The study questions provided help reinforce the material and make it usable even for a formal study of Bible doctrine It is ideal for personal study and in groups for the home church school or ministry environment      The Bible Tells Me So Robert C. Walton, 2012-08-01 Anyone looking at Scripture finds that the material in the Bible is not arranged topically Thus the pursuit of Systematic Theology requires some justification Why should anyone rearrange the teaching found in the Bible on the basis of some man made scheme First of all the practice of Systematic Theology is supported by Scripture itself where we find instances where those who sought to understand its teachings drew from a variety of passages in order to do so Second Systematic Theology is legitimized by the inspiration and unity of Scripture The Bible is made up of sixty six books but is really one Book with one Author that speaks with a coherent message In fact if the Bible were not the work of a single Author the topical study of it would be absurd because unity of thought would not exist Third Systematic Theology is justified by the progressive nature of revelation God did not tell His people everything He intended to reveal at once but gradually unfolded the truth expanding on previous teachings by clarifying and illuminating them later As a result if we want to discover the complete teaching of the Bible on any subject we must gather together many relevant passages in order to answer the question What does the Bible teach about _____ What about the arrangement of the material in the book Why treat subjects in the order in which they are presented in this text The Doctrine of Scripture is the logical place to begin if the Bible is to be our authority we must have confidence that it is indeed the Word of God We then seek to discover what God has revealed about Himself and we find that He is one God in three Persons Father Son and Holy Spirit leading us to the study of the members of the Trinity Having come to a clear understanding of who God is we must then consider who we are so we study the Doctrine of Man What we find is that we are sinners alienated from God What is to be done We find that God has provided a solution to man's greatest need in the Gospel which leads us to the Doctrine of Salvation Once we see that God has called sinners to Himself we find that His intention is to bring them together into one body the Church and to gather that Church into His presence forever We thus finish the course by studying Ecclesiology and Eschatology The reader of this book should keep several things in mind The first is that the organization of the biblical material is artificial rather than one demanded by the text itself and therefore attention to context is essential Proof texting in the study of Bible Doctrine is very easy to do Second be aware that many of the questions discussed in the book are ones about which Christians disagree The faithful interpreter of Scripture must be able to discern between those clear teachings that are of the essence of the faith and those issues where our understanding of the Bible may not be as clear and sincere believers may harmoniously agree to disagree A third reminder is that Christians must be humble enough to let God be God Many of the doctrinal disputes that have arisen over the years stemmed from the attempt on man's part to delve into divine mysteries that God has not chosen to reveal to us Such pursuits are dangerous many heresies in the history of the church have grown out of the desire to present dogmatic answers to questions about which God has not spoken Lastly keep in mind that Bible Doctrine can never be simply a theoretical academic pursuit The Bible never teaches abstract doctrine but always presents ideas in the context of real life application So it must be for us We must always ask the So what question seeking from our studies not only intellectual stimulation and greater understanding but also a deeper relationship to God
