Survival and Resistance in Evangelical America Crawford Gribben, 2021-02-23 Over the last thirty years conservative evangelicals have been moving to the Northwest of the United States where they hope to resist the impact of secular modernity and to survive the breakdown of society that they anticipate These believers have often given up on the politics of the Christian Right adopting strategies of hibernation while developing the communities and institutions from which a new America might one day emerge Their activity coincides with the promotion by prominent survivalist authors of a program of migration to the American Redoubt a region encompassing Idaho Montana parts of eastern Washington and Oregon and Wyoming as a haven in which to endure hostile social change or natural disaster and in which to build a new social order These migration movements have independent origins but they overlap in their influences and aspirations working in tandem to offer a vision of the present in which Christian values must be defended as American society is rebuilt according to biblical law This book examines the origins evolution and cultural reach of this little noted migration and considers what it might tell us about the future of American evangelicalism Drawing on Calvinist theology the social theory of Christian Reconstruction and libertarian politics these believers are projecting significant soft power Their books are promoted by leading mainstream publishers and listed as New York Times bestsellers Their strategy is gaining momentum making an impact in local political and economic life while being repackaged for a wider audience in publications by a broader coalition of conservative commentators and in American mass culture This survivalist evangelical subculture recognizes that they have lost the culture war but another kind of conflict is beginning

Hold Everything Dear John Berger, 2025-03-25 A powerful meditation on political resistance and the global search for justice From the War on Terror to resistance in Ramallah and traumatic dislocation in the Middle East Berger explores the uses of art as an instrument of political resistance Visceral and passionate Hold Everything Dear is a profound meditation on the far extremes of human behaviour and the underlying despair Looking at Afghanistan Palestine and Iraq he makes an impassioned attack on the poverty and loss of freedom at the heart of such unnecessary suffering These essays offer reflections on the political at the core of artistic expression and at the center of human existence itself

Survival and Resistance in the City William J. Hanson, 1969 France's Memorial Landscape Sophie Fuggle, 2023-09-15 During August 1942 several women jumped to their deaths from a second story window at the tile factory in the small town of Milles near Aix en Provence Between 1939 and 1942 the factory assumed various roles as internment camp transit camp and ultimately deportation camp This book is about the view from the suicide window as it is presented within the Camp des Milles memorial museum which opened in 2012 It explores how this view might help us to understand and imagine the world of internment and deportation camps operating in France during the Second World War and their memorial today The book uses the views framed by the window to think critically about the museography of the memorial within the wider context of France's relatively late acknowledgment of its role in the persecution of the Jews during the Second World War      Walking on Fire Beverly Bell, Edwidge Danticat, 2013-07-24 Haiti long noted for poverty and repression has a powerful and too often overlooked history of resistance Women in Haiti have played a large role in changing the balance of political and social power even as they have endured rampant and devastating state sponsored violence including torture rape abuse illegal arrest disappearance and assassination In Walking on Fire Beverly Bell an activist and an expert on Haitian social movements brings together thirty eight oral histories from a diverse group of Haitian women The interviewees include for example a former prime minister an illiterate poet a leading feminist theologian and a vodou dancer Defying victim status despite gender and state based repression they tell how Haiti's poor and dispossessed women have fought for their personal and collective survival The women's powerfully moving accounts of horror and heroism can best be characterized by the Creole word istwa which means both story and history They combine theory with case studies concerning resistance gender and alternative models of power Photographs of the women who have lived through Haiti's recent past accompany their words to further personalize the interviews in Walking on Fire      Tactical Emergency Medicine Richard B. Schwartz, John G. McManus, Raymond E. Swinton, 2008 This brief practical text covers all aspects of tactical emergency medicine the practice of emergency medicine in the field rather than at the hospital during disasters police or military conflicts mass events and community incidents Key topics covered include hostage survival insertion and extraction techniques continuum of force medical support planning and triage medical evaluation in the incident zone care in custody medical control of incident site decontamination community communication and more Boxed definitions case scenarios and treatment algorithms are included The concluding chapter presents real world scenarios to run tactical teams through and lists recommended training programs and continuing education      Tribals and Dalits in Orissa Biswamoy Pati, 2018-10-18 Historians have generally focused on the extraordinary forms of protest while speaking of the lives of oppressed social groups but the basic survival strategies of these groups are often overlooked in research The fact that excluded groups have managed to survive has hidden right beneath the surface a whole range of complexities while also demonstrating their ability to resist dominant social orders Biswamoy Pati's posthumous volume on the lives of the tribals and dalits outcastes in Orissa from c 1800 to 1950 shows how such communities were further impoverished by both colonial government policies and the chiefs of the despotic princely states Colonial knowledge systems constructions of the criminal tribe and agrarian settlements affected tribals and dalits crucially These marginalized groups were connected with the national movement However their inherited problems remained unresolved even after Independence Examining these and several other issues such as adivasi strategies of resistance indigenous systems of health and medicine the colonial medical gaze conversion to Hinduism the fluidities of caste formation as well as the development of colonial capitalism and urbanization the author presents a broader view of their struggle and endurance      Narrative Therapy for Women Experiencing Domestic Violence Mary Allen, 2012 This book examines how women experiencing domestic violence employ strategies of resistance and survival and how narrative therapy helps them define their identities and resist abuse It demonstrates how an understanding of this resistance can help practitioners effectively intervene and support these women in transitions from abuse to safety
