Survival Or Salvation:

Mary McLeod Bethune Yahya Jongintaba, 2023-08-18 Mary McLeod Bethune was born on May 10 1875 in a log cabin in rural Sumter County South Carolina She was the fifteenth child among seventeen siblings but the first born free of the bonds of slavery As a child she attended a Presbyterian mission school in nearby Mayesville and Scotia Seminary in Concord North Carolina After some years at Scotia she was admitted in 1894 to the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago Her two years of training at Moody did not lead to missionary work in Africa as she had dreamed but to missionlike teaching positions in the South and eventually her founding in 1904 of the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute for Girls in Daytona Beach Florida That institution would grow to the present day Bethune Cookman University In this religious biography author Yahya Jongintaba traces Bethune's life of service in lively prose structuring his book in a five part framework that organizes his subject's life in parallel with the Lord's Prayer and virtues identified by Bethune herself freedom creativity integrity discipline and love With unfettered access to Bethune's personal archive Jongintaba paints a picture of a mother figure and mentor to generations a nearsaint who lived a blameless life for four score years With deep empathy and the kind of spiritual understanding that Bethune had despaired of finding in a biographer in her own lifetime despite attempts by publishers and herself to find just the right person Jongintaba endeavors to achieve in his biography what Bethune wrote that she hoped to accomplish in an autobiography that never materialized to give to the world the real Mary McLeod Bethune's life as I have lived it

Can We Survive Our Origins? Pierpaolo Antonello, Paul Gifford, 2015-01-01 Are religions intrinsically violent as is strenuously argued by the new atheists Or as Girard argues have they been functionally rational instruments developed to manage and cope with the intrinsically violent runaway dynamic that characterizes human social organization in all periods of human history Is violence decreasing in this time of secular modernity post Christendom as argued by Steven Pinker and others Or are we rather at increased and even apocalyptic risk from our enhanced powers of action and our decreased socio symbolic protections Rene Girard's mimetic theory has been slowly but progressively recognized as one of the most striking breakthrough contributions to twentieth century critical thinking in fundamental anthropology in particular for its power to model and explain violent sacralities ancient and modern The present volume sets this power of explanation in an evolutionary and Darwinian frame It asks How far do cultural mechanisms of controlling violence which allowed humankind to cross the threshold of hominization i.e. to survive and develop in its evolutionary emergence still represent today a default setting that threatens to destroy us Can we transcend them and escape their field of gravity Should we look to or should we look beyond Darwinian survival What and where if anywhere is salvation

The Breaking of the Bread Eugene LaVerdiere, 1998 Traces Luke's further development of eucharist practice and theology in Acts You Are Not Going to Heaven (and why it doesn't matter) Wes Bergen, 2013-07-08 Honesty Humility The purpose and future of the church Useful and not useful parts of the Bible A doctrine of salvation that includes mosquitoes These are some of the topics dealt with in this controversial book Written for those who still have hope for the church as well as those who don't Wes Bergen's aim is to cast a vision of the church beyond divine fire insurance Bergen's contention is that salvation is something that either happens here and now on this earth or not at all Salvation is something that happens to bodies More importantly salvation is something that either will happen on this earth or we risk making the world uninhabitable by human beings Souls are irrelevant when the air is dirty the water is undrinkable and there isn't enough to eat These are the things that the Bible really cares about and form the building blocks for the salvation that God offers This is also why this book is not about heaven The Bible is not a manual for getting to heaven The Bible cares very little about heaven and neither should you Salvation is about what happens to bodies on Tuesday rather than what we do Sunday morning or what happens to souls after the body dies Forget about heaven Either you trust in God or you don't Now get to work helping salvation happen

The Theology of Death Douglas Davies, 2008-07-31 The first part of the book is grounded in biblical issues and in historical and philosophical theology It seeks to establish several schemes of death theology related for example to early Christianity's Jewish cultural milieu to belief in Christ's resurrection and to Christology to issues of millennial belief and to an emergent liturgical practice The rise of notions of the soul in relation to medieval thought and practice and the place of death in reformation theology are both covered as is the role of the nineteenth and twentieth century Finally the rise of biblical theology is considered especially in the twentieth century The second part of the book takes up several contemporary models of the theology of death The first pursues a traditional acceptance of an otherworldly afterlife the second explores worldly analysis of eternal life as a quality of contemporary existence devoid of any future state The third develops the worldly model and considers a wider sense of self as a part of an ecological view of the world as a divine creation and explores the meaning of birth life and death amidst a divine environment The Theology of Death aims to offer some sharply defined schemes to focus thought in a Christian environment in which death hell and heaven have almost lost their place The topic of hope is a key element and the book explores the birth and fostering of hope within Christian traditions Radical Atheism Martin Hägglund, 2008 Radical Atheism challenges the religious appropriation of Derrida's work and offers a compelling new account of his thinking on time and space life and death good and evil self and other In the Name of Friendship: Deguy, Derrida and Salut, 2017-11-20 In the Name of Friendship Deguy Derrida and Salut centres on the relationship between poet Michel Deguy and philosopher Jacques Derrida Translations of two essays Of Contemporaneity by Deguy and How to Name by Derrida allow Christopher Elson and Garry Sherbert to develop the implications of this singular intellectual friendship In these thinkers' efforts to reinvent secular forms of the sacred such as the singularity of the name and especially poetic naming Deguy by adopting a Derridean programme of the impossible and Derrida by developing Deguy's ethics of naming through the word salut situate themselves at the forefront of contemporary debates over politics and religion alongside figures like Alain Badiou and Jean-Luc Marion John Caputo and Martin Hägglund Dust in the Blood Jessica

Coblentz,2022-01-15 Dust in the Blood considers the harrowing realities of life with depression from a Christian theological perspective In conversation with popular Christian theologies of depression that justify why this suffering exists and prescribe how people ought to relate to it Coblentz offers another Christian approach to this condition she reflects on depression as a wilderness experience Weaving first person narratives of depression contemporary theologies of suffering and ancient biblical tales of the wilderness especially the story of Hagar Coblentz argues for and contributes to an expansion of Christian ideas about what depression is how God relates to it and how Christians should understand and respond to depression in turn The Memorabilia of Jesus William Wynne Peyton,1892 Tolerance and Transformation Sandra B. Lubarsky,1990-12-31 In the last twenty five years the effort to understand the ways of others has reinvigorated religious discussion on many levels We have entered what has been described as the Age of Dialogue But what should be the nature of such dialogue And what should be its goal What exactly is the proper relationship between different communities of faith In this book Sandra B Lubarsky offers some new answers to these timely questions She begins with an affirmation of veridical pluralism the position that more than one tradition speaks truth a blessed fact that enables us to enlarge our vision of truth through openness to the perceptions of others Using the concept of transformative dialogue a term borrowed from the theologian John B Cobb Jr she presents a method for the encounter of traditions in an age of religious pluralism one which entails neither a loss of particularity nor a descent into relativism In a Jewish contexts Lubarsky argues that the Noachide Covenant the premodern Jewish approach to non Jews is an inadequate framework for today s dialogue since it accords no independent value to any non Jewish tradition She then gives serious attention to the interreligious views of four seminal modern Jewish thinkers Leo Baeck Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber and Mordecai Kaplan Acknowledging our tremendous intellectual debt to them she nevertheless calls for a move beyond tolerance and beyond mutual appreciation toward dialogue that may be transformative of our own traditions Making a Way Out of No Way Monica A. Coleman,2008 A womanist theology of change Integrates postmodern thought womanist theology and process philosophy Building Bridges, Doing Justice Orlando O. Espin,2009 These essays by leading Latino a theologians both Protestant and Catholic represent an exciting new stage in the development of Latino a theological identity while also making an important contribution to the wider cause of ecumenical dialogue As Orlando Espin observes No ecumenical relation or dialogue today in the United States can be truly reflective of our respective churches unless Latinos as and their faith and their lives are acknowledged as indispensable and equal conversation partners Among the themes discussed in this dialogue God the Holy Spirit Mary the Bible and Tradition Grace and Justification and Ecclesiology Contributors Efran Agoso Hartford Seminary Neomi DeAnda DePaul University Miguel H Daz St John s University Collegeville Orlando O Espin University of San Diego Roberta S Goizueta Boston College Juan F Martnez Fuller Theological Seminary Nstor Medina University of Toronto Carmen M Nanko Fernndez Catholic Theological Union Mayra Rivera Pacific School of Religion Jos D Rodrguez Lutheran School of Theology Jean Pierre
