

COLLEGE SURVIVAL TIPS

How to be a good student AND be involved on- or off-campus

It is not easy to balance all aspects of life and school at one time. But with these tips, hopefully you will be better at managing than I was.

by Camila Rodriguez

1 LEARN ABOUT YOURSELF

Take some time to learn what you enjoy doing, what you do not enjoy, and how you like to do things. This will come in handy when someone who is talkative wants to be your study buddy but you know you need less distractions to get work done.

2 SCHEDULE IT. STICK TO IT.

Time management is a difficult skill to learn, but is important to know, especially when juggling a variety of organizations. It takes time to learn; so, remember to be patient with yourself, as Kelci Lucier from U.S. News recommends.

3 THINK SMART, NOT HARD

This cliché may be overused, but it is important to keep in mind. Simplify your life by getting involved with the organizations that will provide the most benefits to you and your future. If dance is your form of exercise, work it into your schedule.

4 GET SOME SLEEP

Nowadays, all-nighters--staying up all night to study the material for an upcoming exam--are common on university campuses. But according to a study, students who pull all-nighters have slightly lower GPAs than student who don't pull all-nighters.

5 CREATE A STUDY PLAN

Making a plan to study may seem excessive, but planning out a daily schedule will spread out the information. This is also a measure to reduce the need for all-nighters and aids in the retention of information. See the MIT website for more tips on mastering exams.

6 ASK FOR HELP

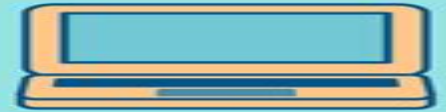

If you see individuals who are managing a variety of heavy responsibility, take the time to ask them how they do it. Their tips could also work for you--and this is an opportunity to expand your network.

7 TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF

Make sure that you are physically, emotionally, and mentally healthy. It is okay to feel overwhelmed but if it is worsening, seek help through your local counseling and wellness center.

8 REMEMBER TO HAVE FUN

College is going to be difficult. But that doesn't mean you can't enjoy it. Your involvement will give you the opportunity to experience new things, so don't be afraid to take a chance.
