

SURVIVAL

In late November 1994, my single-engine plane crashed in the Sierra Nevadas with two passengers on board.

For the next 13 days, in subfreezing weather, with 16 broken bones, I trekked across the frozen wilderness, with no emergency supplies, hoping to bring back help.

This is the story of what happened.

Survive My Fight For Life In The High Sierras:

Survive! Peter DeLeo, 2005-01-12 The man who accomplished one of the most remarkable feats of survival in history finally tells the story of the event that made worldwide news This inspiring story shows what sheer determination can achieve against impossible odds When Peter DeLeo set out one Sunday morning on a sightseeing and photography trip over the central Sierra Nevada mountains in California he had no idea that he would soon be fighting for his life with the odds stacked very much against him DeLeo's single engine plane encountered turbulence and he and his two passengers crashed in the mountains All three survived the accident but sustained multiple injuries DeLeo had broken ribs a shattered ankle and a badly damaged shoulder After assessing their situation they decided that the passengers should remain with the plane while DeLeo would hike out to bring back help It was already winter he left the limited emergency supplies with the plane's passengers and he was hampered by his injuries but DeLeo was determined to get help He found or improvised shelter at night carefully warmed himself during the daytime drank from small pools of melted snow and ice and slowly but steadily made his way toward civilization Suffering from exhaustion and on the verge of collapse he found a hot spring that provided him with temporary warmth and insects to eat Injuries dehydration malnutrition and a two day blizzard slowed him and a rockslide nearly killed him just as he glimpsed the valley and highway that he so desperately sought but DeLeo's courage saw him through Meanwhile Civil Air Patrol planes searched fruitlessly for the lost plane and for survivors twice DeLeo frantically tried to signal the search planes but to no avail When DeLeo finally reached a highway he found it almost impossible to convince the authorities that he was the lost pilot who had been all but given up for dead His astonishing survival one of the most remarkable feats of endurance on record made national and even international news Now for the first time Peter DeLeo tells his remarkable story in gripping detail His amazing saga is destined to become a classic The Rough Guide to Travel Survival Doug Lansky, 2006-01-01

Gold Hill California and embarked on a career in organic farming With a fractured relationship to her heritage Moyer saw an opportunity for repair when she learned of a nearly lost heirloom wheat variety called Sonora Sonora wasn't just an heirloom wheat strain it was her own cultural heirloom Its history can be traced back to Punjab the Indian state where Moyer's own roots are planted In growing the grain on her farm she began to uncover the multigenerational story of her family's resilience From California to Punjab the past to the present Jackie maps her personal story atop the entangled histories of wheat cultivation and the rise of the organic farming movement With a passion for dismantling the exploitative big agriculture industry she examines how the development of high yielding varieties and chemical fertilizers has harmed our relationship with food the planet and each other Braiding memoir with historical inquiry On Gold Hill explores the complexities of the immigrant experience illuminates the ways colonialism and capitalism constrain our food system and investigates what it means to lose and to reclaim one's heritage I Did It to Save My Life Catherine Bolten, 2012-10 Ethnographically rich these accounts come to life in beautiful prose These are inspiring and at times heartbreaking stories of how people living in such difficult and dangerous circumstances find ways to survive love and take care of each other This will be a valuable contribution as well as a welcome counter to the more popular images of warzones as places of total immorality Catherine Besteman author of Transforming Cape Town Be Still and Get Going Alan Lew, 2007-07-31 Written in a warm accessible and intimate style Be Still and Get Going will touch those who are searching for an authentic spiritual practice that speaks to them in their own cultural language Lew is one of the most sought after rabbis on the lecture circuit He has had national media exposure for his dynamic fusion of Eastern insight and Bible study having been the subject of stories on ABC News the McNeil Lehrer News Hour and various NPR programs In the past five years there have been national conferences on Jewish meditation in San Francisco Los Angeles and Miami where Lew has been a featured speaker Lew's first book One God Clapping was a San Francisco Chronicle bestseller and winner of the PEN Josephine Miles Award for Literary Excellence Publishers Weekly hailed him as a perceptive thinker for his refreshing and sometimes startling perspective in his last book This Is Real and You Are Completely Unprepared Raising Spirits Michael Goldberg, 2010-08-01 Raising Spirits Stories of Suffering and Comfort at Death's Door springs from Michael Goldberg's experiences serving dying patients as a hospital and hospice chaplain Previously he had held positions as a management consultant a chaired university professor and a congregational rabbi Although each of those careers fulfilled some of his professional aspirations none filled his spiritual hunger to find purpose in his life In turning to chaplaincy and helping the gravely ill satisfy their craving for meaning at the end of their lives Goldberg discovered spiritual sustenance in his Raising Spirits is the first book to explore care giving at the end of life from a spiritual as well as clinical perspective It tells the stories of Michael Goldberg's journeys with patients their families and loved ones as they try to face the challenges awaiting them at life's edges In the process Goldberg himself is tested as a committed Jew who working largely among non Jews must continually reassess his identity and convictions He comes to see that spirituality need not refer to things occult or otherworldly but as Raising Spirits makes clear to things in this world that can at least start to lift our spirits and revive them The reciprocal process of gaining insight into patients and into oneself is possible indeed crucial for all who care for the sick both lay and professional alike Unleashing Raine

Sierra Raine, 2016-12-20 This is a true story about my life Only the names were changed to protect the identity of my family I am portrayed as Sierra I was born in 1976 to a poverty stricken family in the South My father was an egotistical man who did not want a family and my mother was a melodramatic woman who longed for a fairy tale My parents divorced when I was four years old and Mom moved on to a man named Gregory who she believed was the man of her dream the polar opposite of my dad That relationship began our life of hell and thus my struggle began Gregory turned out to be a monster not only an alcoholic but a paranoid schizophrenic He beat Mom regularly for six years while I hid in the shadows Our home life was unstable we lived in campers run down shacks and dilapidated trailers with no heat or electricity Constant chaos ensued as we tried to desperately survive the horror story that was our lives Gregory controlled us and treated us as his personal slaves and Mom dutifully endured while I accumulated resentment within I was a quiet introverted child who internalized everything Everyone thought I was dealing with the situation beautifully and therefore offered me no help or support My faith in God pulled me through those times and made me into a stronger better person Despite growing up in poverty without loving parents or family and with the troubles I have had in relationships I have done well for myself God has blessed me beyond measure I credit all my success to God and give him the glory
