The Calling To Adopt: Should I or Shouldn't I Ellen Weber Libby PhD, 2024-09-22 The Calling to Adopt guides readers in making the decision with increased confidence of whether to adopt a child This decision is deeply personal for every prospective parent whether straight or gay male female or gender nonconforming single coupled or married and is influenced by our unique personal histories and emotions To assist us in finding our way it is informative to learn from those who have walked the path before us This book includes the anecdotes of others who have been on this journey and provides thought provoking questions encouraging honest self reflection In this guide to your introspective journey Ellen Weber Libby relies on her personal experience as an adoptive parent and her decades as a psychotherapist who counseled men and women in making the decision best suited for them Adoption Matters Sally Anne Haslanger,Charlotte Witt,2005 As a social and legal institution of family formation and as a personal experience of members of the adoption triad adoption provides a fresh vantage point on an important set of philosophical and feminist issues The family is often thought to be the basic and natural form of social life for human beings adoption however highlights the powerful role that law and politics play in shaping families and our ideas about families As a result attention to the practices of adoption sheds light upon deeply held but often tacit assumptions about what is natural and what is social in human life from the IntroductionThe institution of adoption has come under increasing scrutiny in recent years as the adoption world has undergone seismic shifts the rise in international and transracial adoptions and the effects of global economics adoption by gays and lesbians increasing openness in the adoption process and changes in domestic welfare policy on adoption Adoption Matters adds to our understanding of reproduction parenting familial bonds personal identity self knowledge and contemporary social policy The contributors to Adoption Matters explore a range of related topics such as the manner in which interracial or international adoption affects the way we perceive the relationships among race ethnicity and culture and how class affects one s life prospects and choices In this distinctive collection of essays the authors illuminate adoption by bringing feminist theory to bear on it and they expand and enrich feminist theory by making it respond to their own personal experience as adoptive parents or as adoptees Joan Heifetz Hollinger Boalt Hall School of Law University of California Berkeley editor of Adoption Law and Practice and coeditor of Families by Law An Adoption Reader Adoption Matters courageously examines how adoption influences and challenges our society s understanding of the intersection of family and identity an intersection that is both deeply personal and highly political Abigail Garner author of Families Like Mine Children of Gay Parents Tell It Like It Is The Family of Adoption Joyce Maguire Pavao,2015-09-22 Full of wonderful stories that give insight into a wide variety of adoption issues now revised in light of recent developments The Family of Adoption is a powerful argument for the right kind of openness in adoption Joyce Maguire Pavao uses her thirty years of experience as a family and adoption therapist to explain to adoptive parents birthparents adult adopted people and extended family as well as to those who work with children professionally the developmental stages and challenges one can expect in the life of the adopted person The Family of Adoption is truly the most insightful and healing book on the adoption shelf Counting Our Losses Darcy L. Harris,2011-01-19 This text is a valuable resource for clinicians who work with clients dealing with non death nonfinite and ambiguous losses in their lives It explores adjustment to change transition and loss from the perspective of the latest thinking in bereavement theory and research The specific and unique aspects of different types of loss are discussed such as infertility aging chronic illnesses and degenerative conditions divorce and separation immigration adoption loss of beliefs and loss of employment Harris and the contributing authors consider these from an experiential perspective rather than a developmental one in order to focus on the key elements of each loss as it may be experienced at any point in the lifespan Concepts related to adaptation and coping with loss such as resilience hardiness meaning making and the assumptive world transcendence and post traumatic growth are considered as part of the integration of loss into everyday life experience
