A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies John Lee, 2017-08-14 Provides a detailed map of contemporary critical theory in Renaissance and Early Modern English literary studies beyond Shakespeare A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is a groundbreaking guide to the contemporary engagement with critical theory within the larger disciplinary area of Renaissance and Early Modern studies Comprising commissioned contributions from leading international scholars it provides an overview of literary theory beyond Shakespeare focusing on most major figures as well as some lesser known writers of the period This book represents an important first step in bridging the divide between the abundance of titles which explore applications of theory in Shakespeare studies and the relative lack of such texts concerning English Literary Renaissance studies as a whole which includes major figures such as Marlowe Jonson Donne and Milton The tripartite structure offers a map of the critical landscape so that students can appreciate the breadth of the work being done along with an exploration of the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is must reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of early modern and Renaissance English literature as well as their instructors and advisors Divided into three main sections Conditions of Subjectivity Spaces Places and Forms and Practices and Theories A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies Provides an overview of theoretical work and the theoretical informed competencies which are central to the teaching of English Renaissance literary studies beyond Shakespeare Provides a map of the critical landscape of the field to provide students with an opportunity to appreciate the breadth of the work done Features newly commissioned essays in representative subject areas to offer a clear picture of the contemporary theoretically engaged work in the field Explores the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Offers examples of the ways in which the practice of a theoretically engaged criticism may enrich the personal and professional lives of critics and the culture in which such critical practice takes place

The Church Explorer's Handbook Clive Fewins, 2005 A fully illustrated pocket guide to UK churches and their contents

Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England Anne M. Myers, 2013-01-01 Our built environment inspires writers to reflect on the human experience discover its history or make it up Buildings tell stories Castles country homes churches and monasteries are documents of the people who built them owned them lived and died in them inherited and saved or destroyed them and recorded their histories Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England examines the relationship between sixteenth and seventeenth century architectural and literary works By becoming more sensitive to the narrative functions of architecture Anne M Myers argues we begin to understand how a range of writers viewed and made use of the material built environment that surrounded the production of early modern texts in England Scholars have long found themselves in the position of excusing or explaining England's failure to achieve the equivalent of the Italian Renaissance in the visual arts Myers proposes that architecture inspired an unusual amount of historiographic and literary production including poetry drama architectural treatises and diaries Works by William Camden Henry Wotton Ben Jonson Andrew Marvell George Herbert Anne Clifford and John Evelyn when considered as a group are texts that overturn the engrained critical notion that a Protestant fear of idolatry sentenced the visual arts and architecture in England to a state of suspicion and neglect

Death Across Oceans: Archaeology of Coffins and Vaults in Britain, America, and Australia Harold Mytum, Laurie Burgess, 2018-08-07 Death Across Oceans Archaeology of Coffins and Vaults in Britain America and Australia brings together the leading researchers in historic mortuary practice from Britain North America and Australia It is the first book dedicated to the material culture associated with burial in the historic English speaking world It combines reflections and evaluations from the pioneer scholars who initiated research in this field during the 1980s with studies by young scholars now pushing the research into a new and wider range of issues This volume will be the seminal work in this field for some time providing key analyses and essential bibliographic routes into site specific literature and setting the research agenda for the future
