moonlight the softly hummed words of a Spanish love song the sweet liquid music of the bells in the mission San Carlos De Carmelo fleeting pictures of old Father Junipero Serro these and a hundred other rich memories flood the mind as one unfolds the story of little Suzanna a peon girl poor futureless at a time when the Dons and the grandsons of the conquistadores were supreme in California You think of Ramona the dust covered stretches of El Camino Real the King s Highway appear before your eyes you hear the roaring of quaint old fashioned muzzleloading guns the clash of cold steel subconsciously you thrill to the deeds of valor of sacrifice and danger You are in step with romance and adventure when it was in its heyday in Old California Red lipped smoky eyed senoritas smile on you your nostrils dilate with ungent aromas of hot golden brown tortillas or fragrant steaming tamales for you the clock has been turned back a hundred years you walk in a land that is gone but in which fate played as recklessly with the lives of men and women as it does in our own world today
