Handbook of Teaching and Learning Persian as a Second Language Hooman Saeli, 2025-09-26 This collection explores relevant pedagogical and sociolinguistic topics in the teaching and learning of Persian as a foreign and second language. Owing to the dearth of research in many areas pertaining to the teaching and learning of Persian, this handbook provides empirically supported insights into various aspects of these areas. While the literature on teaching and learning Persian is growing, the field lacks a cohesive collection on Persian as a foreign second language. The book addresses issues pertaining to the standardization and validation of teaching and assessment methods which remain under explored in the contexts of teaching and learning Persian. It also covers the teaching of Persian pragmatics, the use of corpora as well as a range of different areas within linguistics including phonetics, prosody and historical linguistics. This comprehensive collection contributes substantially to the scientific study of many aspects of teaching and learning Persian which have been neglected for decades. A must have text in Persian language pedagogy and Persian sociolinguistics, it is an essential book for those in teaching and learning in Persian language programs worldwide. Ekaterina Nemtchinova, 2022-12-30 This book is an authoritative text that explores best classroom practices for engaging adult learners in beginner level foreign language courses. Built around a diverse range of international research studies and conceptual articles, the book covers four key issues in teaching language to novice students: development of linguistic skills, communicative and intercultural competence, evaluation and assessment, and the use of technology. Each chapter includes teaching insights that are supported by critical research and can be practically applied across languages to enhance instructional strategies and curriculum designs. The text also aims to build intercultural competence, harness technology and design assessment to stimulate effective learning in formal instructional settings including colleges, universities and specialist language schools. With its broad coverage of language pedagogy at the novice level, this book is a must read for graduate students, scholars, researchers and practitioners in the fields of language education, second language acquisition, language teaching and learning, and applied linguistics. Enaction and Ecological Psychology: Convergences and Complementarities

Di Paolo, Manuel Heras-Escribano, Anthony Chemero, Marek McGann, 2021-02-03 Second Language and Heritage Learners in Mixed Classrooms Patricia Bayona, Elena García-Martín, 2022-11-29 This book addresses the complexity of mixed language classroom learning environments in which heritage learners (HL) and second language (L2) learners are concurrently exposed to language learning in the same physical space. Heritage speakers, defined widely as those exposed to the target language at home from an early age, tend to display higher oral proficiency and increased intercultural proficiency but lesser metalinguistic and grammatical awareness than L2 learners The theoretical and pedagogical challenges of engaging both types of learners simultaneously without polarizing the classroom community dictates the need for well defined differentiated learning strategies in response this book offers best practices and reproducible pedagogical initiatives and methodologies for different levels of instruction The chapters address themes including translanguaging linguistic identity metalinguistic awareness and intercultural competence with contributions from Europe Africa and the United States
