American Book Publishing Record ,1995 50, a Celebration of Sun & Moon Classics Douglas Messerli,1995

Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope,2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary worldly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings

Swanny's Ways Steve Katz,1995 The life of a street gang member turned student He is William Swanson of New York who between amours with various women is taking night courses to become a lawyer By the author of Florry of Washington Heights Annie Salem Mac Wellman,1996 A novel of the absurd featuring Jack Scan a philosophical drifter from Ohio with lots of observations on life men women friendship love you name it He has a girlfriend and he also has an obsession with the Ku Klux Klan which he hates and eventually goes to Mars to fight them The Library of Thomas Rivka Martin Nakell,1997 The Library of Thomas Rivka suggesting other fictions by writers from J K Huysmans to Jorge Luis Borges is a rich absurdly ironic comic philosophical and even practical work dealing with the books within the private library of the title character exploring and revealing what knowledge and the containers of knowledge might mean in the human experience Dra- Stacey Levine,1997 Dra Levine's first long fictional work takes the reader into the comic yet dystopic world of the title character who inhabits a drab and dreary world of utter dread The work begins with her visit to an employment agency which punishes the terrified woman for being unable to chose between potential jobs culminating in a terrible vision of rage and torture which the all controlling Administrator proclaims is merely a self tyranny Levine's new work explores through a Kafka like world how the meek and sane are made mad in a society that demands choices that only lead to less and less individual choice and control Levine's characters may have difficulty functioning in the so called normal world but in her exploration of that world we recognize that the terror they feel is justified as we witness with increasing horror the insanity of the world we ourselves inhabit American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000

Stephen J. Burn,2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century's twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade's literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12

The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater Saw Steve Katz, 1998 Saw is a milestone novel of the seventies It is the first work of fiction ever to hide a hippopotamus For the first time what has come to be recognized as a common modern neurosis astronaut angst gets full play in the fictional universe For the first time anywhere in the history of fiction in one of the most passionate encounters ever written Eileen mates with a Sphere Solid geometry finally has a face The Cylinder is a nemesis and its terrifying accomplishments roll on like a nightmare for this astronaut This is a work of science fiction geometric fiction irrefutable fact and gourmand fantasies Asta's Book Ruth Rendell, 2011-02-22 An obsessively readable mystery from the New York Times bestselling author of Dark Corners about a century old diary that holds clues to a murder The Sunday Telegraph Asta Westerby is lonely In 1905 shortly after coming to East London from Denmark with her husband and their two little boys she feels like a stranger in a strange land And it doesn't help that her husband is constantly away on business Fortunately she finds solace in her diary and she continues to do so until 1967 Decades later her granddaughter Ann finds the journal and it becomes a literary sensation offering an intimate view of Edwardian life But it also appears to hold the key to an unsolved murder and the disappearance of a child A modern masterpiece by the Edgar Award winning author of the Inspector Wexford Mysteries and an excellent choice for readers of P D James Ian Rankin or Scott Turow Asta's Book is at once a crime story a historical novel and a psychological portrait told through the diary itself and through Ann who is bent on unlocking the journal's excised mystery The Illustrated London News, 1877 Antonello's Lion Steve Katz, 2005 In his first novel since Swanny's Ways Steve Katz takes another look at the failure of Humanism in the West through the lens of the great Sicilian master Antonello da Messina A father and son who have never met both set out on quests for meaning in their lives The father is obsessed with Antonello and convinced he can find what he thinks is a lost painting of St Francis He gets lost on the way and disappears The son becomes obsessed with finding out what happened to the father and his discoveries are more than he can absorb This is a double picaresque that takes turns through fantasy sexual follies and wild historical and philosophical speculations The frail positionings of order in art are played against the background of contemporary chaos BOOK JACKET The American
