Swaying Essays On Intercultural Love:

Swaying Jessie Carroll Grearson, Lauren B. Smith, 1995 This engaging anthology of literary non fiction celebrates the creative potential of choosing diversity and explores in many voices the real life social cultural and spiritual consequences of this choice It is not a dry study that seeks to label and categorize intercultural relationships nor is it a collection of fiction that seeks to create a dramatic backdrop for conflict or romance Unrooted Childhoods Nina Sichel, 2011-11-18 The experience of growing up without the opportunity to ever put down roots A fusion of voices and deeply personal experiences from every corner of the globe Unrooted Childhoods presents a cultural mosaic of today s citizens of the world In twenty stirring memoirs of childhoods spent packing writings by both world famous and first time authors many published here for the first time make universal the story of growing up without the opportunity to ever feel rooted Best selling fiction and non fiction authors Isabel Allende Carlos Fuentes Pat Conroy Pico Iyer and Ariel Dorfman contribute powerful and deeply personal accounts of mobile childhoods and the cultural experiences they engender The memoirs touch on both the benefits and the difficulties of growing up in the ever changing landscape of diplomatic military and other expatriate communities

Love in a Global Village Jessie Carroll Grearson, Lauren B. Smith, 2001 In praise of diversity Jessie Grearson and Lauren Smith offer Love in a Global Village A Celebration of Intercultural Families in the Midwest an account of the triumphs of fifteen intercultural families and the perseverance of their relationships in midwestern America The couples recount their courtships their adventures and difficulties and their individual choices to create families and build lives together despite differences of race language religion and culture The Art of Symbolic Resistance Joanne N. Smith Finley, 2013-09-12 Against the background of the r mchi riots July 2009 this book provides a longitudinal study of contemporary Uyghur identities and Uyghur Han relations Previous studies considered China s Uyghurs from the perspective of the majority Han state or people Conversely The Art of Symbolic Resistance considers Uyghur identities from a local perspective based on interviews conducted with group members over nearly twenty years Smith Finley rejects assertions that the Uyghur ethnic group is a creation of the Chinese state suggesting that contemporary Uyghur identities involve a complex interplay between long standing intra group socio cultural commonalities and a more recently evolved sense of common enmity towards the Han This book advances the discipline in three senses from a focus on sporadic violent opposition to one on everyday symbolic resistance from state to local representations and from a conceptualisation of Uyghurs as victim to one of creative agent A Study Guide for Judith Ortiz Cofer's "Catch the Moon" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Judith Ortiz Cofer s Catch the Moon excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Love in a Global Village Roberta Seelinger Trites, Jessie Carroll Grearson, Lauren B. Informalization Cas Wouters, 2007-10-29 This book shows that manners far from being superficial adornments of behaviour are thoroughly interwoven with our personalities and the structures of our societies The concept of informalization provides both an invaluable addition to Norbert Elias s theory of civilizing processes and a most useful tool for understanding how changes in manners are related to shifts in the balances of power between social classes sexes and generations Johan Goudsblom University of Amsterdam Cas Wouters stakes out a powerful theory about changes in human relationships in the Western world over the past twelve decades essential reading for anyone interested in the contemporary human condition Theory and Society It is written in clear unequivocal language abounds with detail and replaces many normative statements about the alienating state of contemporary capitalist mass consumption oriented bureaucracy A nuanced subtle and theoretically informed analysis of the sometimes quite chaotic civilising process of the last century Figurations This original book explains the sweeping changes to twentieth century regimes of manners and self Broad in scope and deep in analytic reach it provides a wealth of empirical evidence to demonstrate how changes in the code of manners and emotions in four countries Germany Netherlands England and the US have undergone increasing informalization From the growing taboo toward the displays of superiority and inferiority and diminishing social and psychological distance between people it reveals an emancipation of emotions and the new representation of emotion at the centre of personality This thought provoking book traces The increasing permissiveness in public and private manners such as introductions the use of personal pronouns social kissing dancing and dating The ascent and integration of a wide variety of groups including the working classes women youth and immigrants and the sweeping changes this has imposed on relations of social inferiority and superiority Shifts in self regulation that require manners to seem natural at ease and authentic Rising external social constraints towards being reflexive showing presence of mind considerateness role taking and the ability to tolerate and control conflicts Growing interdependence and social integration declining power differences and the diminishing social and psychic distance between people Continuing the analysis of Sex and Manners SAGE 2004 this book is a dazzling work of historical sociology

Perfect Killer Lewis Perdue, 2010-02-20 When a prominent Mississippi civil rights attorney asks renowned neurosurgeon Bradford Stone to help her save the life of a white racist condemned to death for the cold case murder of a black man he has no idea that he is about to be dragged through a deadly past he thought he had escaped once and for all Mixed-Race, Post-Race Suki Ali,2020-05-27 Social scientists claim that we now live in a post race society where race has been replaced by ethnicity Yet racism is endemic to British society and people often think in terms of black and white With a marked rise in the number of children from mixed parentage there is an urgent need to challenge simplistic understandings of race nation and culture and interrogate what it means to grow up in Britain and claim a mixed identity Focusing on mixed race and inter ethnic families this book not only explores current understandings of race but it shows using innovative research techniques with children how we come to read race What influence do photographs and television have on childrens ideas about race How do children use memories and stories to talk about racial differences within their own families How important is the home and domestic culture in achieving a sense of belonging Ali also considers through data gathered from teachers and parents broader issues relating to the effectiveness of anti racist and multicultural teaching in schools and parental concerns over the social mobility and social acceptability of their children Rigorously researched this book is the first to combine childrens accounts on race and identity with contemporary cultural theory Using fascinating case studies it fills a major gap in this area and provides an original approach to writing on race Wedding as Text Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz,2002-12-18 This volume using intercultural weddings as its focus examines what occurs when the signs codes of different cultures come into contact influence one another For scholars advanced level students of interpersonal nonverbal intercultural comm Equally Yoked Matthew R. Akers,2016-03-03 During the past fifty years Western culture has experienced a significant shift in its overall stance regarding multiethnic marriage As a result more North Americans than ever marry spouses whose ethnicity or culture differs from theirs This trend also is observable in Christian circles Unfortunately few resources exist to help multiethnic couples maneuver through the potential minefield of cultural collision The purpose of this volume is to provide such a resource Equally Yoked examines the subject of multiethnic marriage from a biblical perspective before considering a history of the practice in North America over the last four centuries Additionally this book surveys the challenges that multiethnic Christian couples frequently encounter and offers premarital counseling propositions that will prove valuable to both counselors and couples who originate from diverse backgrounds Forkroads ,1996 Love in America Marina Sarraan,2009
