Acting Up and Getting Down Sandra M. Mayo, Elvin Holt, 2014-04-15 One of the few books of its kind Acting Up and Getting Down brings together seven African American literary voices that all have a connection to the Lone Star state. Covering Texas themes and universal ones this collection showcases often overlooked literary talents to bring to life inspiring facets of black theatre history. Capturing the intensity of racial violence in Texas from the Battle of San Jacinto to a World War I era riot at a Houston training ground Celeste Bedford Walker's Camp Logan and Ted Shine's Ancestors provide fascinating narratives through the lens of history. Thomas Meloncon's Johnny B Goode and George Hawkins's Br'er Rabbit explore the cultural legacies of blues music and folktales. Three unflinching dramas Sterling Houston's Driving Wheel, Eugene Lee's Killingsworth and Elizabeth Brown Guillory's When the Ancestors Call examine homosexuality, a death in the family and child abuse bringing to light the private tensions of intersections between the individual and the community. Supplemented by a chronology of black literary milestones as well as a playwrights canon Acting Up and Getting Down puts the spotlight on creative achievements that have for too long been excluded from Texas letters. The resulting anthology not only provides new insight into a regional experience but also completes the American story as told onstage. Man of Constant Sorrow

Ralph Stanley, Eddie Dean, 2009-10-15 A giant of American music opens the book on his wrenching professional and personal journeys paying tribute to the vanishing Appalachian culture that gave him his voice. He was there at the beginning of bluegrass. Yet his music forged in the remote hills and hollows of Southwest Virginia has even deeper roots. In Man of Constant Sorrow Dr Ralph Stanley gives a surprisingly candid look back on his long and incredible career as the patriarch of old time mountain music. Marked by Dr Ralph Stanley's banjo picking, his brother Carter's guitar playing and their haunting and distinctive harmonies the Stanley Brothers began their career in 1946 and blessed the world of bluegrass with hundreds of classic songs including White Dove, Rank Stranger and what has become Dr Ralph's signature song Man of Constant Sorrow. Carter died in 1966 after years of alcohol abuse but Dr Ralph Stanley carried on and is still at the top of his game playing to audiences across the country today at age eighty one. Rarely giving interviews he now grants fans the book they have been waiting for filled with frank recollections from his boyhood of dire poverty in the Appalachian coalfields to his early musical success with his brother to years of hard traveling on the road with the Clinch Mountain Boys to the recent jubilant revival of a sound he helped create. The story of how a musical art now popular around the world was crafted by two brothers from a dying mountain culture Man of Constant Sorrow captures a life harmonized with equal measures of tragedy and triumph.
