Oleh S. Ilnytzkyj,2024-07-22 Russian culture and Slavic Studies maintain that Gogol is an incontrovertible Russian writer To call him a Ukrainian is to encounter deep skepticism Oddly the grounds of his Russianness are rarely made explicit and even less often examined critically This book address these problems It shows for example how scholars assume that language and theme make Gogol Russian How others call him Russian by denying Ukrainians status as a separate nation while still others avoid explanations altogether by representing him as a typical Russian in a national culture and literature This book challenges such paradigms situating Gogol within an imperial culture where Russian and Ukrainian elites shared intellectual pursuits but clashed over rival national projects It reveals Gogol as a Ukrainian Russian language Imperial Writer a person who embraced an emergent Ukrainian movement while remaining a loyal imperial subject This book will appeal to Russianists and Ukrainianists anyone interested in questions of identity cultural politics and colonialism It provides ample context and background making it suitable for students Readers who enjoy Taras Bulba will be drawn to the chapter that dispels the myth of its Russianness
