It was where all of life's celebrations took place where we took things apart when our mothers were out of the house.

It was where one would find string, rubber bands matches washers, safety pins, sellotape batteries bottle openers pencils.

It was where the visitors were entertained when the best sheet in the house would be washed ironed creased and made to look like the best of Irish linen.

It was where there was full and plenty and candles at Christmas and where the dog knew which one of us sat too far away from it.

It was where letters were written and bills opened and where we discussed politics and shared news and views and stories.

It was where everything was put before being placed on a shelf.

It was where heavy heads in cupped palms rested on elbows when there was nothing else to put there.

Poetry-Painting Affinity as Intersemiotic Translation Chengzhi Jiang,2020-04-16 This book interprets the close intimacy between poetry and painting from the perspective of intersemiotic translation by providing a systematic examination of the bilingual and visual representation of landscape in the poetry of Wang Wei a high Tang poet who won worldwide reputation The author s subtle analysis ranges from epistemological issues of language philosophy and poetry translation to the very depths where the later Heidegger and Tao oriented Chinese wisdom can co work to reveal their ontological inter rootedness through a two level cognitive stylistic research methodology The Poems of T. The Language of Contemporary Poetry Lesley Jeffries,2022-09-30 This book introduces a new way of looking at how poems mean drawing on the framework first developed in the author s book Critical Stylistics but applied here to aesthetic more than ideological meaning The aim is to empower readers of poetry to articulate the features of poetic language that they come across and explain to themselves and others why these features convey the meanings that they do While this volume focuses on contemporary poets writing in English and mostly based in the UK and Ireland the framework will work just as well for other eras poetry as well as for other cultures and languages The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour, William IX of Aquitaine Fidel Fajardo-Acosta,2023-08-15 The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour William IX of Aquitaine The Songs that Built Europe offers a new edition translation and critical discussion of the songs of the first European troubadour William IX Duke of Aquitaine This book argues that William and his poetic works manifest the economic political and cultural forces that laid the foundations of modern Europe including the subjectivities of modern westerners and the concerns and motifs of what later became the national literatures of France Spain England Germany and Italy Encouraging personal freedoms self definition and the pursuit of love and happiness the culture of courtly love that William initiated is distinctly modern but can also be seen to have played a key role in the subjection of medieval Europeans to the then emergent market economy imperialist ambitions of the Church and authority of proto national kingdoms As such subjection affected even the highest ranking aristocrats such as William the road of liberation of desire appears to have been a fast lane to serfdom for everyone perhaps the most pre modern feature of the modern and postmodern conditions Poetry Writing, Grades 3-5 Kimberly A. Williams,2000-06 The Wisdom, Poetry, and Literature of the Ancient Hebrews. [Extracted from the Old Testament.] ,1855 The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States,1922
