Tackling Mens Violence In Families Nordic Issues And Dilemmas:

Tackling Men's Violence in Families Maria Eriksson, 2005-06-22 Nordic countries are generally regarded as global welfare role models. Consequently the influence of Nordic welfare systems in academic and policy debates has been immense. By focusing on the vital issue of violence by men to female partners and or their children this book seeks to reconsider this over simplistic image.

Tackling men's violence in families Eriksson, Maria, Hester, Marianne, 2005-06-22 Nordic countries are generally regarded as global welfare role models in terms of their image of being gender equal child friendly and culturally tolerant. Consequently the influence of Nordic welfare systems in transnational academic and policy debates has been immense. By focusing on the vital welfare issue of violence by men to female partners and or their children this book seeks to reconsider this over simplistic image. Drawing on new research from Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden the book critically examines how men's violence in families is perceived and responded to in the Nordic context. It pays particular attention to the links between violence to women and violence to children, children's perspectives, professional discourses and responses and legal and policy approaches. With clear links between research, policy and practice the book is highly relevant to a wide audience including academics, researchers and students in the fields of social work, health, criminology, sociology, social policy, gender studies, European studies and law. It is also recommended reading for welfare managers, practitioners and policy makers.

Tackling Men's Violence in Families, 2005 Nordic countries are generally regarded as global welfare role models in terms of their image of being gender equal, child friendly and culturally tolerant. By focusing on the vital welfare issue of violence by men to female partners and or their children this book seeks to reconsider this over simplistic image.

Fathers' Rights Activism and Law Reform in Comparative Perspective Richard Collier, Sally Sheldon, 2006-10-10 The legal status, responsibilities and rights of men who are fathers, married or unmarried, cohabiting or separated, biological or social in nature is a topic with a long and well documented history. Yet recent developments in a number of countries suggest a growing politicisation of the relationship between law and fatherhood. In some countries an increasingly vocal, visible and well organised fathers rights movement has been credited with influencing perceptions of the politics of family justice. Fathers, it is argued, have become the new victims of family law justice systems that have swung too far in favour of mothers. Armed with such claims, fathers rights activists have set out to achieve a range of legal reforms, most notably in the areas of child support, law and contact and residence rights following separation. This book presents an attempt to understand these developments. Bringing together leading international commentators it provides a careful critical and comparative analysis of the work of fathers rights activists, the role law has played in their campaigning, their legal strategies, their success or otherwise in achieving legal reform, similarities and divergences with the women's movement and the relationship between fathers rights movements and the societies that frame them. In addition to Collier and Sheldon contributors include Susan B Boyd, University of British Columbia, Canada; Jocelyn Crowley, Rutgers University, USA; Maria

Eriksson Goteborg University Sweden Keith Pringle Aalborg University Denmark Helen Rhoades Melbourne University Australia and Carol Smart Manchester University UK      Interpersonal Violence Marita Husso,Tuija Virkki,Marianne Notko,Helena Hirvonen,Jari Eilola,2016-11-25 From early modernity to today society has encountered various forms of interpersonal violence Through exploration of particular areas within Europe and Russia to Africa America and Asia this collection presents both differences and connections among various forms of interpersonal violence in different times places institutional orders and relationships Interpersonal Violence introduces research results from studies in various disciplines such as history sociology social policy social work cultural studies and gender studies In focusing on the diverse and often ignored social locations and cultural backgrounds of interpersonal violence the book demonstrates 1 how the specificity of temporality and spatiality affect the manifestation of violence 2 how the dynamics of intersectional and institutional differences are located in social space and time and 3 how the different forms of violence in different times are affectively conceptually and discursively connected With its comprehensive and integrative approach this book is a key tool book for understanding the phenomenon and cultural conceptions of interpersonal violence It would be most suitable for upper level undergraduates graduates doctoral students interested in social sciences history criminology psychology cultural studies education gender studies and public health      Queering Methodology Róisín Ryan-Flood,Alison Rooke,2022-10-20 This groundbreaking collection explores the complexities of researching the lives of lesbian and queer women It critically interrogates the concept of lesbian especially as applied to research praxis Who or what is a lesbian and why does this category matter How is research shaped by such categorisations and why What does it mean for research that identities can be fluid and changing Further this collection examines social formation of power from an intersectional perspective in relation to lesbian and queer women s experiences exploring complex tensions and inequalities in relation to class race and trans identities for example These chapters by world renowned scholars bring together compelling accounts of research dilemmas ethics sensitivities and nuances that will resonate for many researchers This book highlights how gender sexuality and power intersect within and beyond the research project illuminating how research can generate new questions as well as provide important insights The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Lesbian Studies      European Perspectives on Men and Masculinities J. Hearn,K. Pringle,2006-10-06 This book compares the state of knowledge on men and masculinities in 14 countries across Europe examining the effects of social change Europeanization globalization and new post socialist configurations of Europe for men Special attention is given to home and work social exclusion violence and health      From Boys to Men Tamara Shefer,2007 The current emphasis in research and education on women and girls is fraught with problems It has raised a concern that boys and men should be included in research and intervention work on gender equality and transformation As a result academics with a background of many years of work in women s and gender studies undertook a research project focusing on the construction of masculinities

among young men From Boys to Men was born out of this project This highly original work arises from the conference From Boys to Men held in January 2005 It represents the work of some of the best known theorists and researchers in masculinities and feminism in South Africa on the continent and internationally The subjects covered are based on rich ethnographic studies mostly in South Africa but also elsewhere in Africa Acknowledging that there are multiple versions of masculinity and that some are more valued than others this book is concerned with documenting both hegemonic discourses on masculinity as well as resistances and challenges to dominant forms of being a boy or man in different contexts of space and time From Boys to Men provides valuable material for those working with issues of gender identity and power and will sharpen understanding of males inform community based interventions and facilitate theory building This impressive collection of research on men boys and masculinities would have been impossible just a generation ago It took the worldwide impact of the women s liberation movement and the many feminisms that have since developed to bring gender into focus and to bring men into focus as participants in a gender system Raewyn Connell Professor at the University of Sydney author of Masculinities 1995 Given the extant paucity of research and literature on masculinities this book will undoubtedly prove to be an invaluable resource for scholars in the field of gender studies The editors of the volume should be commended for this timely well constructed and significant contribution to the literature on masculinities studies both in South Africa and internationally Norman Duncan Chair of Psychology University of the Witwatersrand Setting this collection apart from existing scholarship on masculinities in South Africa is its interrogation of the gendered rhetoric of boyhood and manhood in the context of HIV Aids This is a multilayered and rich collection that suggests masculinities have the potential to be unmade and remade The volume usefully opens up new avenues of analysis telling us that masculinities are always in process under negotiation contradictory for ever in crisis Vasu Reddy Gender and Development Unit Human Sciences Research Council

Coercive Control Evan Stark, 2009-03-01 One of the most important books ever written on domestic violence Coercive Control breaks through entrenched views of physical abuse that have ultimately failed to protect women Evan Stark founder of one of America s first battered women s shelters shows how domestic violence is neither primarily domestic nor necessarily violent but a pattern of controlling behaviors more akin to terrorism and hostage taking Drawing on court records interviews and FBI statistics Stark details coercive strategies that men use to deny women their very personhood from beeper games to food logs to micromanaging dress speech sexual activity and work Stark urges us to move beyond the injury model and focus on the real victimization that allows men to violate women s human rights with impunity Provocative and brilliantly argued Coercive Control reframes abuse as a liberty crime rather than a crime of assault and points the way to bringing real equality for women in line with their formal rights to personhood and citizenship freedom and safety

Injustice and the Reproduction of History Alasia Nuti, 2019-03-28 Develops a new account of historical injustice and redress demonstrating why a consideration of history is crucial for gender equality Making an Impact - Children and

Domestic Violence Chris Pearson, Nicola Harwin, Marianne Hester, 2006-12-15 This fully updated Reader provides a comprehensive review of recent research and legislation relating to domestic violence and its consequences for children and identifies the implications for practice It enables professionals to develop informed child care and protection responses for children experiencing domestic violence

International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities Michael Flood, Judith Kegan Gardiner, Bob Pease, Keith Pringle, 2007-08-07 The International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities offers a comprehensive guide to the current state of scholarship about men masculinities and gender around the world The Encyclopedia s coverage is comprehensive across three dimensions areas of personal and social life academic disciplines and cultural and historical contexts and formations The Encyclopedia examines every area of men s personal and social lives as shaped by gender covers masculinity politics the men s groups and movements that have tried to change men s roles presents entries on working with particular groups of boys or men from male patients to men in prison incorporates cross disciplinary perspectives on and examinations of men gender and gender relations gives comprehensive coverage of diverse cultural and historical formations of masculinity and the bodies of scholarship that have documented them The Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities is composed of over 350 free standing entries written from their individual perspectives by eminent scholars in their fields Entries are organized alphabetically for general ease of access but also listed thematically at the front of the encyclopedia for the convenience of readers with specific areas of interest

Violent fathering and the risks to children Harne, Lynne, 2011-05-25 Current family policy approaches emphasise the significance of paternal involvement in children s lives yet there has been a silence on violent and abusive fathering in these discourses This is the first UK book to specifically focus on violent fathering discussing original research in the context of domestic violence and emerging practice literature to address this problem The book examines fathers perceptions of their domestic violence and its impact on children their relationships with children and their parenting practices It will be of interest to academics and professionals in family and child welfare policy socio legal studies social work criminology and other disciplines with an interest in domestic violence and child protection

Social Work and Child Welfare Politics Hannele Forsberg, Teppo Kröger, 2011-03-15 Drawing on contemporary research and debates from different Nordic countries this book examines how social work and child welfare politics are produced and challenged as both global and local ideas and practices

International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities , Domestic and Sexual Violence and Abuse Catherine Itzin, Ann Taket, Sarah Barter-Godfrey, 2010-10-04 Taking a life course approach the book explores what is known about appropriate treatment responses to those who have experienced and those who perpetrate domestic and sexual violence and abuse Publisher s description

Critical practice with children and young people Robb, Martin, Thomson, Rachel, 2010-07-21 This reader provides a critical perspective on work with children and young people at a time of change Written by experts with a wide range of academic and professional experience it examines the ways that ideas inform practice explores recent changes in the organisation of services especially moves towards greater integration and explores what it means to be a critical reflective practitioner Covering the whole age range from early years to youth the book will be relevant to anyone working with children and young people for example in social work education healthcare youth work youth justice and leisure services

Domestic Violence, Family Law and School M. Eriksson, L. Bruno, E. Näsman, 2013-09-24 Domestic Violence Family Law and School discusses the ways in which family law disputes in cases of domestic violence can impact on children's lives at pre school and school In drawing on new research the book establishes a new framework for understanding how welfare systems tackle domestic violence

Gender Equality and Welfare Politics in Scandinavia Kari Melby, Christina Carlsson Wetterberg, Anna-Birte Ravn, 2009 This book examines the meanings of gender that underpin policies in the Scandinavian welfare states historically and today and raises the question whether the hallmark of the Scandinavian welfare model is a special combination of gender equality and gender differentiation

The Limits of Gendered Citizenship Elżbieta H. Oleksy, Jeff Hearn, Dorota Golańska, 2011-02 This collection responds to the need to re evaluate the very important concept of citizenship in light of recent feminist debates In contrast to the dominant universalizing concepts of citizenship the volume argues that citizenship should be theorized on many different levels and in reference to diverse public and private contexts and experiences The book seeks to demonstrate that the concept of citizenship needs to be understood from a gendered intersectional perspective and argues that though it is often constructed in a universal way it is not possible to interpret and indeed understand citizenship without situating it within a specific political legal cultural social and historical context
