Literature: The Story of an Hour

Directions: Answer the following questions.

1. What is the main idea of The Story of an Hour?

The main idea of "The Story of An Hour" is freedom and its importance for an individual. Louise Mallard is happily married and has a very loving husband. However, she does not have freedom which she only gets after she comes to know that her husband is dead. And when he turns out to be alive, she dies of grief.

2. What is the message of The Story of an Hour?

The message of The Story of an Hour is that freedom is the basic right of every individual on earth. Gender should not be a reason to prohibit a person from freedom.

3. What happens at the end of the story The Story of an Hour?

In the end, the husband comes back home alive. However, his wife dies out of grief and despair.

4. Why does Mrs. Mallard die at the end of the story?

She dies at the end of the story because of the grief of losing freedom which she got some time before. The fear of getting back to restrictions shocks her and she dies.

5. Why was Mrs. Mallard happy her husband died?

Mrs. Mallard was happy because she tasted freedom for the first time since her marriage. She thought that her married life was enjoyable. However, when she tasted freedom, she found it much better. This is why she was happy at her husband's death.

6. Why is Mrs. Mallard death an example of situational irony?

Situational Irony occurs when something happens which is totally opposite from what is expected. Mrs. Mallard is a good example of situational irony because she feels happy and joyful after coming to know that her husband has died (instead of weeping and mourning). However, as soon as he comes back alive, she dies out of sorrow and despair (though she was supposed to be happy)
