Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick, 2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick's study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France's former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity Ibss:

la politique de puissance et d'indépendance nationale de la France a constitué un sujet de fort ressentiment des Océanien·e·s. L'encontre de la France. Ce rejet du nucléaire a peu à peu conduit la remise en cause de la présence territoriale de la France dans la région d'autant que la revendication d'indépendance faisait basculer la Nouvelle Calédonie dans la violence au cours des années 1980. Parallèlement durant les quarante années pendant lesquelles ont eu lieu les essais atomiques Paris n'a pas per·u·ses les océanien·e·s comme des entités particulières mais les a davantage administrées comme les maillons d'un même Archipel au service de ses ambitions de puissance.

Moruroa and Us Pieter de Vries, Han Seur, 1997 During the last thirty years thousands of Polynesian men and boys worked at Moruroa and Fangataufa the two atolls in the Pacific where France conducted its nuclear tests. A curtain of silence has so far existed around their experiences motivations and anxieties. In this report a representative number of former workers and islanders living in the vicinity of the test sites speak out. Their hidden histories and problems are revealed. Back cover L'héritage de la bombe Bruno Barrillot, 2002 Depuis octobre 1945 lorsque le général de Gaulle quelques semaines après les bombardements d'Hiroshima et Nagasaki décida de créer le Commissariat à l'énergie atomique pour faire la bombe on a imposé la règle du secret militaire toutes les activités liées à l'arme nucléaire centres de recherche secrets fonds secrets sites d'expérimentation secrets ne parlait-on pas de Territoires du sud pour désigner les centres d'essais sahariens dossiers militaires secrets. Le fonctionnement normal de la démocratie s'est soudain effacé devant la divinité nucléaire qui devait hausser la France dans le nirvana des grandes puissances de la planète. Les essais nucléaires de la France n'ont pas contrairement ce qu'affirment sans cesse depuis quarante ans nos dirigeants militaires et politiques et la plupart des scientifiques du CEA tant sans accidents et incidents et leurs conséquences globales nocives pour la santé et l'environnement. Aujourd'hui nos lointains compatriotes polynésien·e·s et de nombreux visiteurs apportent leur pierre à l'édification de la vérité sur les essais nucléaires de la France. Beaucoup ont payé un lourd tribut la bombe décise pour maturiser atteintes cancéreuses maladies inexplicables. Dans ce livre ils ouvrent un débat qui n'a jamais eu lieu dans notre pays pas même au Parlement. N'est-il pas temps que la voix des citoyens soit enfin entendue par ceux qui habitent en notre nom n'ont pris l'oreille qu'aux experts qui après tout n'étaient que des apprentis sorciers.

How will political changes in New Caledonia and a growing independence movement in French Polynesia impact on Paris.
