Margaret Hickey,2018-05-03 Ireland s Green Larder tells the story of food and drink in Ireland for the first time From the ancient system of the C ide Fields established a thousand years before the Pyramids were built right up to today s thriving food scene Rather than focusing on battles and rulers Margaret Hickey digs down to what has formed the day to day life of the people It s a glorious ramble through the centuries drawing on diaries letters legal texts ballads government records folklore and more The story of how Queen Maeve died after being hit by a piece of hard cheese sits alongside a contemporary interview with one of Ireland s magnificent cheese makers and the tale of the author s day in Clew Bay on the wild Atlantic coast collecting the world s freshest oysters is countered by Jonathan Swift s complaint about dubiously fresh salmon being sold on the streets of Dublin Beautifully illustrated and dotted with recipes there are chapters covering everything from strong tea to the Irish rituals and superstitions associated with food and drink With a light touch and a flair for finding the most telling details Hickey draws on years of research to bring this sweeping history brilliantly to life Twentieth-Century Ireland (New Gill History of Ireland 6) Dermot Keogh, 2005-09-27 Professor Dermot Keogh's Twentieth Century Ireland the sixth and final book in the New Gill History of Ireland series is a wide ranging informative and hugely engaging study of the long twentieth century surveying politics administrative history social and religious history culture and censorship politics literature and art It focuses on the consolidation of the new Irish state over the course of the twentieth century Professor Keogh highlights the long tragedy of emigration its effect on the Irish psyche and on the under performance of the Irish economy He emphasises the lost opportunities for reform of the 1960s and early 70s Membership of the EU had a diminished impact due to short term and sectionally motivated political thinking and an antiquated government structure Professor Keogh looks at how the despair of the 1950s revisited the country in the 1980s as almost an entire generation felt compelled to emigrate very often as undocumented workers in the United States Professor Keogh also argues that the violence in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s was an Anglo Irish failure which was turned around only when Britain acknowledged the role of the Irish government in its resolution He extends his analysis of the twentieth century to include a wide ranging survey of the most contentious events financial corruption child sexual abuse scandals in the Catholic Church between 1994 and 2005 Twentieth Century Ireland Table of Contents A War without Victors Cumann na nGaedheal and the Conservative Revolution De Valera and Fianna Fáil in Power 1932 1939 In the Time of War Neutral Ireland 1939 1945 Seán MacBride and the Rise of Clann na Poblachta The Inter Party Government 1948 1951 The Politics of Drift 1951 1959 Seán Lemass and the Rising Tide of the 1960s The Shifting Balance of Power Jack Lynch and Liam Cosgrave 1966 1977 Charles Haughey and the Poverty of Populism Ireland in the New Century Ireland Terence Brown, 1985 Terence Brown juxtaposes such key topics as nationalism industrialization religion language revival and censorship with his assessments of the major literary and artistic advances to give us a lively and perceptive view of the Irish past In the first two parts he analyzes the ideas images and symbols that provided the Irish people with part of their sense of national identity He considers in Part Three how these conceptions and aspirations fared in the new social order that evolved following the economic revival of the early 1960s

Books Ireland, 1984 Selected Essays of Sean O'Faolain Brad Kent, 2016-10-01 Sean O Faolain 1900 1991 was Ireland's leading social and political critic in the period following the country's independence from the United Kingdom Since his death scholarly opinion has alternately cast him as an arch revisionist a liberal nationalist and a frustrated republican The Selected Essays of Sean O Faolain reassesses his reputation by showing that he wrote in the tradition of post Enlightenment European intellectuals and that while he was a significant figure in Ireland his work extends beyond immediate national concerns This volume includes over fifty unabridged essays by O Faolain on a wide range of subjects from canonical writers to architecture from religious scandals to economics from nationalism to internationalism from long dead historical figures to recent controversies O Faolain's fearlessness in taking on the major political cultural and religious figures of his day his masterly use of rhetoric and his intellectual acuity have contributed to his works being quoted often by scholars working across several disciplines. Many of these essays appear here in print for the first time since they were published in the foremost periodicals of their day. An extensive introduction and helpful annotations contextualise and explain them for a new audience. In his re-readings of history and challenges to dominant historiographical trends O Faolain has become a pariah to some and a hero to others. The Selected Essays of Sean O Faolain bridges some of these competing visions presenting a more complex figure through his varied corpus of writing.

The Stars of Ballymenone, New Edition Henry Glassie, 2016-09-12

In the time of the Troubles when bombs blew through the night and soldiers prowled down the roads Henry Glassie came to the Irish borderland to learn how country people endure through history. He settled into the farming community of Ballymenone beside Lough Erne in the County Fermanagh and listened to the old people. For a decade he heard and recorded the stories and songs in which they outlined their culture, recounted their history and pictured their world. In their view their world was one of love, defeat and uncertainty, demanding the virtues of endurance, faith, bravery and wit. Glassie's task in this book is to set the scene, to sketch the backdrop and clear the stage so that Hugh Nolan and Michael Boyle, Peter Flanagan, Ellen Cutler and their neighbors can tell their own tale which explains their conditions and converts them into a tragedy of conflict and a comedy of the absurd. It gathers the saints and warriors and celebrates the stars whose wit enabled endurance in days of violence and deprivation. With patience and respect Glassie describes life in a time and a place exactly like no other and yet Ballymenone is like a thousand other places where people work on the land during the day and tell their own tales at night, forgotten while the men of power fill the newspapers and history books by sending poor boys out to be killed. The Stars of Ballymenone is an integrated analysis of the complete repertory of verbal art from a rural community where storytelling and singing of quality remained a part of daily life.
