English Language and Linguistics Sociolinguistics Tajikistan Reza Ghasimi, 1994-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 257S Spanish edition Mejoramiento de la Calidad de la Educaci3 n Primaria en Am rica Latina y Caribe Hacia el Siglo XXI Countries in the Latin America and the Caribbean region LAC have invested heavily in primary education over the past 10 years. International studies of achievement however show that LAC countries still perform significantly worse than those in the developed world and worse than many developing countries in Asia. This report reviews selected issues and progress to date in the LAC region and makes recommendations for the future. The paper recommends strategies for managing three elements that are identified as fundamental for improving primary education: increasing the provision of pre schooling, making textbooks and teaching materials available and changing teachers behavior through new incentives and techniques. The volume includes tables, figures and more than nine case studies. Also available in English ISBN 0 8213 2985 5 Stock No 12985 Muslim Reformist Political Thought Sarfraz Khan, 2013-05-13 There are two main trends distinguishable amongst Muslim reformists: revivalists and modernists. This book charts and analyses the main trends of Muslim reformist political thought in Bukhara. It is the first to utilize original sources preserved in Soviet archives that were previously inaccessible to western scholars. The author has translated numerous original documents from Tajiki and Russian into English. This book thus serves as a useful resource for students of Islam, Central Asia, the former Soviet Union and of law, politics and philosophy. Roxy Traveling Light in Tajikistan Roxanne C. Neely, 2012-09 Tajikistan is a beautiful land in many ways but it is also an impoverished land with a history of leaders who have served themselves, their families and friends instead of their people. This makes it a fairly easy target for guerrilla groups and rebellious elements in the surrounding countries. We have all seen the upheavals in the Middle East and Central Asia caused by exactly such conditions. Peace is an extremely relative word and the current peace is truly relative. These small regimes have few instruments at hand to resist violent uprisings. Repression and murder are the norm rather than the exception. Brutality feeds the flames of insurrection and destruction of the limited infrastructure and governmental organizations easily cascades into chaos and anarchy. How NGOs React Iveta Silova, Gita Steiner-Khamisi, 2008 Critical retrospective on the first decades of the transition from planned to free market economy in Central Asia. Contributions from both Eastern and Western scholars. Includes both theoretical NGO research and practical examples taken from experience. During the important early years of post socialist transformation in the Caucasus, Central Asia and Mongolia, the Open Society Institute/Soros Foundation was arguably the largest and most influential network in the region. How NGOs React follows the Soros Foundation's educational reform programs there and raises larger questions about the role of NGOs in a centralist government relationships NGOs have with international donors and development banks and strategies NGOs use to interpret global reforms locally The authors all former or current educational experts of the Soros Foundation analyze the post socialist reform package at the country level highlighting the common features such as decentralization privatization vouchers and liberalization of the textbook publishing market They look at the global reforms and their variations as they were transferred to Armenia Azerbaijan Georgia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Mongolia Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan over the past decade A unique combination of perspectives from Western as well as Eastern scholars based in the region makes this collection an essential retrospective on key processes involved in transforming educational systems since the collapse of the socialist bloc Contributors Tatiana Abdushukurova Erika Dailey Valentin Deichman Natsagdorj Enkhtuya Alexandr Ivanov Saule Kalikova Elmina Kazimzade Anna Matiashvili and Armenuhi Tadevosyan

Educational Policies in Pakistan, Afghanistan, and Tajikistan Dilshad Ashraf, Sarfaroj Niyozov, Mir Afzal Tajik, 2016-12-19 In the mountains of the Northern Pakistan Tajikistan and Afghanistan School and schooling are both symbolic of wider ranging cultural and political battles over morals modernity development gender and the rule of law Educational Policies in Pakistan Afghanistan and Tajikistan Contested Terrain in the Twenty First Century is about both the normative battles over the purpose of education as well as about the structural impediments to providing instruction in those remote and challenging locations where it is attempted The analytical frames in this collection come primarily from the social sciences and comparative education Contributors examine education policy processes and structures in the broader socio cultural religious and economic context of three countries sharing somewhat similar colonial and post colonial legacy and current uprising of extreme religious positions and a drive to social cohesion

From Classroom to Courtroom Michael Craig Hillmann, 2008 The book includes my meeting and falling in love with a very special person My time spent in the Air Force and our children The years we had together and the memories of those years The struggles of my wife taking treatments for CLL and her death In the book I share our children as they grew up and what they are now doing I look back and what do I see I see my love me and family I see a love that was true It was only you My love Me and Family

Understanding Multimodal Discourses in English Language Teaching Textbooks

Christopher A. Smith, 2022-08-11 Textbooks are indispensable components and in some case the cornerstones of the mission of English Language Teaching ELT However they are artefacts of a pedagogical culture that rarely echo the concerns of their most prolific consumers teachers and students This book offers a useful framework for evaluating ELT textbooks from a critical discourse perspective one that is based on sound current research but also offers practical guidance to teachers Building from a foundational understanding of ELT textbooks the author presents a systematic procedure to critically analyze their multimodal discourse examine how those discourses are negotiated between teachers and students in class and measure how those consumers privately value the lessons The book provides teachers with the tools they need to select and adapt materials based on critical multimodal discourse analysis where not only the text but the pictures websites audio visual elements too are subjected to a process which can reveal underlying ideologies assumptions omissions and reifications The triangulated approach demonstrated in a series of vignettes featuring Korean university students and native English speaking instructors can inform textbook choice instigate change and inspire lesson re contextualization to best suit the needs of its primary consumers American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Education in West Central Asia Mah-E-Rukh

Herzig,2013-09-13 Tajikistan is one of the lesser known and least researched former Soviet Central Asian republics The birth of the new state in 1991 was followed closely by a civil war which killed more than 50 000 people and displaced many tens of thousands more While a peace agreement was signed in 1997 significant political violence continued until 2001 and intermittent outbreaks still occur today Many claim it remains a very weak state and perhaps in danger of state failure or a return to civil war However the revival of Tajikistan should not simply be seen in terms of its post conflict stabilization Since its creation as a republic of the Soviet Union in 1920s Tajikistan has been transformed from being a shell for socialist engineering to become a national society under a modern state Despite a multitude of economic social and political shocks the Republic of Tajikistan endures This book places the transformation of Tajikistan in its Soviet and Post Soviet historical settings and local and global contexts It explores the sources of a state with Soviet roots but which has been radically transformed by independence and its exposure to global politics and economics The authors address the sources of statehood in history Islam and secularism gender relations the economy international politics and security affairs This book is a new edition of a special issue of Central Asian Survey Tajikistan the sources of statehood including two additional papers and a revised introduction Tajikistan Shirin Akiner,Mohammad-Reza Djalili,Frederic Grare,2013-01-11 Since its independence in 1991 Tajikistan has suffered a painful series of political crises followed by a civil war still continuing whose repercussions extend far beyond its borders This work examines the causes of the turmoil and analyses through the case of Tajikistan social and political dynamics at work throughout Central Asia The book is the work of eleven Central Asian experts from different disciplinary backgrounds and provides new insight into questions as varied as clan and local identity the political construction of ethnicity and the role of peacekeeping forces Central Eurasian Reader Stéphane A.

Dudoignon,2021-10-11 No detailed description available for Central Eurasian Reader Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan
Kamoludin Abdullaev,2018-08-10 Tajikistan is the poorest and only Persian speaking country among the post Soviet independent states Historically the Tajiks of Central Asia and Afghanistan along with the Persians of modern Iran came from a related ethnic group When the Tajik Autonomous Soviet Socialist Republic was established in late 1924 it became the first modern Tajik state that remained one of the 15 union republics of the Soviet Union until 1991 Almost immediately after the collapse of the USSR Tajikistan became a scene of brutal civil war taking place in one of the global hubs of religiously motivated political struggle militancy mass cross border refugee flows insurgency and drug trafficking During the first decade of the 21st century the country was making modest progress toward stability However the heavy burden of socio economic problems in addition to continuing conflict in the neighboring Afghanistan Pakistan presented even bigger challenges for Tajikistan In addition Western economic sanctions against Russia in 2014 coinciding with continuing lower oil prices have negatively affected one million of Tajik labor migrants in Russia Yet Tajikistan has become neither weaker nor less important as a player in world politics This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Tajikistan International Handbook of Reading Education Betty J. Eller,John Hladczuk,1992-07-27 As major political and social changes continue to sweep through the countries of the world and more and more nations move toward forms of social democracy the importance of being able to read has taken on a new urgency The burden of government commerce education and social welfare is moving increasingly toward the individual and with it the need to turn basic reading skills into the sophisticated ability to analyze comprehend and debate the whole world of language in front of him This book offers an opportunity to see how the process of learning to read is being handled in a broad cross section of countries in the world representing the First Second and Third Worlds Each of the twenty six country surveys has been written by an international scholar indigenous to that land and follows the same basic pattern in examining reading education Following a brief introduction to the nation and its particular educational characteristics ten reading associated factors are fully discussed and analyzed These factors include the language of the country in question its reading policy the goals of reading illiteracy issues pertaining to the rate and diagnosis of reading disabilities reading readiness programs the teacher qualification procedure the source and availability of materials in reading the financing of reading education and research thrusts in the field of reading Each chapter then concludes with a summary and brief bibliography of important reference sources within that country This unique study will be an essential reference tool for students and practitioners in the fields of education and reading literacy as well as a valuable addition to both public and academic libraries
