her hard work on Barack Obama's presidential campaign is about to pay off with a White House job thirty five year old Ida B Wells Dunbar finds herself on Washington D C's post election sidelines even as her twentysomething counterparts overrun the West Wing Adding to her woes her father the Reverend Horace A Dunbar Atlanta civil rights icon and self described foot soldier for freedom is notoriously featured on an endlessly replayed YouTube clip in which his pronouncements don't exactly jibe with the new era in American politics The Rev's stinging words and myopic views don't sound anything like the man who raised Ida to make her mark in the world When friends call to express their concern Ida realizes it's time to head home and see for herself what's going on Besides with her job prospects growing dimmer getting out of D C for a while might be the smartest move she could make Back in her old West End neighborhood Ida runs into childhood friend and smooth political operator Wes Harper also in town to pay a visit to the Reverend Dunbar his mentor Ida doesn't trust Wes or his mysterious connections for one second but she can't deny her growing attraction to him While Ida and the Rev try to find the balance between personal loyalties and political realities they must do some serious soul searching in order to get things back on track before Wes permanently derails their best laid plans

I Got It From Here Francesca Miracola, 2025-07-30 Growing up in an Italian American family in Queens New York in the 70s Francesca Miracola was trained from an early age to keep up appearances at all costs but behind closed doors her parents toxic marriage served as a blueprint for dysfunction So when she met Jason Axcel at a bar as a twentysomething she ignored all the red flags and there were plenty of them and dove right in normalizing his emotional and physical abuse just like she'd learned to do She even married and had two children with him But something in her clicked one night when Jason strolled out the door after a vicious fight that left her degraded on the floor and she decided she was done Except Jason wouldn't let her go Even after they finally divorced and Francesca fell in love with someone else her ex husband was keen enough to recognize that she was the same broken girl he'd met a decade earlier and he exploited that fact at every turn He called the cops to her home with bogus claims he bombarded her with provoking emails and texts he stalked her every move and worst of all he used their little boys as pawns in his campaign Then he went for the jugular and sued her for custody But Francesca was stronger than he'd given her credit for Raw and illuminating I Got It from Here is one woman's story of saving herself and her children from the grips of a sociopath posing as a family man and from the inherited trauma passed down by her own family of birth while learning to trust in the inner voice that's been trying to guide her all along

Inheritance of Light Ray González, 1996 Inheritance of Light is divided into five sections each containing poems set in a flowing sequence based on similar themes and concerns Part One is introductory surreal poems about the art of poetry and the creative process an intense opening Part Two contains autobiographical poems about the family growing up and ancestors Part Three is the political section with a number of poems about war politics and global matters Part Four may have the most personal confessional yet universal poems about the poets reactions to the world around them Part Five contains poems about journeys reaffirmation renewal life and death which brings the whole book to an

J. Rushdoony, Jesus is the true bread of life come down from heaven His flesh His true humanity is our bread of life this He gives for the life of the world We are in Him no longer the sinful and death bound sons of fallen Adam but the just and life bound people of the last Adam Christ gives us His flesh His glorious humanity so that we are remade into people of righteousness and eternal life In this commentary the author maps out the glorious gospel of John starting from the obvious parallel to Genesis 1 In the beginning was the Word and through to the glorious conclusion of Christ s death and resurrection Nothing more clearly reveals the gospel than Christ s atoning death and His resurrection They tell us that Jesus Christ has destroyed the power of sin and death John therefore deliberately limits the number of miracles he reports in order to point to and concentrate on our Lord s death and resurrection The Jesus of history is He who made atonement for us died and was resurrected His life cannot be understood apart from this nor can we know His history in any other light This is why John s testimony is true and while books filling the earth could not contain all that could be said the testimony given by John is faithful The Edinburgh Annual Register, for 1808-26 ,1824 Up To Date Business Seymour Eaton,2023-08-22 Up To Date Business by Seymour Eaton Published by Good Press Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre From well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read Each Good Press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices Our goal is to produce eBooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format Munsey's Magazine ,1923 Sunset ,1923
